Across the Track -- Next Door to Stillwell's Cash Market

pend upon the news and advertising columns of the press of the state and personal visits to reach the voters, was the announcement of R. N. Stanfield today in assuming the active work of his campaign for the nomination for United States Senator on the Republican ticket.

He declared he intended to make a very active and vigorous campaign and would devote practically all his time from now until the primaries to the work.

The old political campaign manager system does not appeal to him, and he is going to break away from it entirely. So far as possible he will personally visit every community and locality in the state and use newspapers quite freely.

His statements of principles, or platform has been made public, and he expects to conduct his campaign strictly on the principles therein enunciated.

In his statement today he said he was more than satisfied with the outlook and was confident that with the effort he intends to devote to the work during the next three months he would be able to secure the nomination. His first work will be a trip through the Willamette valley and then Southern Oregon and then back to Portland.

Japanese Admiral Arrives.
A PACIFIC PORT, Jan. 29.—On his way to London to become naval attaché of the Japanese Embassy Rear Admiral Hisatsune Hida, has arrived here, accompanied by Paymaster J. Matsuda, who will inspect superintending in the Mediterranean.
Rear Admiral Hida held the rank of Lieutenant-Commander in the battle of the Sea of Japan when the Russian fleet was destroyed, and wears medals awarded him for gallant action in that historic engagement.

WANT SOAPLESS DAYS

New War Propaganda by Young Virginia Lad.
A new war propaganda that is certain to be taken up enthusiastically by young America was given a start in Huntington, W. Va., by Jimmy Wallen, a schoolboy, who has been active in the different war activities. Wallen, who is always quick and smart, suggests a "soapless day," saying it is easy to keep clean without using soap one day a week. The "soapless day" would help conserve fats so badly needed by the allies, Jimmy declared.

NOTED CHEF SUGGESTS A "VICTORY" MENU

Jeau Hiroche, for some years a chef in the French army, but now head chef at a New York hotel, has submitted what he calls the "Victory" menu which is a new wartime list of foods for the public to help save what is needed for the soldiers. He suggests that the well-to-do guest should receive what he is accustomed to, such as terrapin, duck, lobster, etc., which would be of no use to the army. The famous chef believes the new menu will serve the double purpose of satisfying the demands of the public and at the same time conserving staple foodstuffs for our fighting men. The following is a "Victory" menu for dinner:

Torbay Oysters
Shirred Egg Bery
Minced Chicken Gratin
Baked Potato
Vanilla Ice Cream
Tea Coffee Milk

HOPS A TOBACCO SUBSTITUTE

Germans Find They "Act and Taste" Much Like Real Weed.
From Frankfurt comes the report that old hops, of which at least 800,000 pounds have been collected recently, are perhaps to be used in Germany as a substitute for tobacco which grows increasingly scarce.
It is asserted that chemical investigations have proved that by a method of preparation the hops act and taste much like tobacco and can be used without even a mixture of tobacco.

WILD ANIMALS LIVE ON HAY

Large Herds of Game in the Colorado Forests Are Becoming Domesticated.
Omaha, Colo.—The efficient protection given them by the state game commission and the United States forest service, in their efforts to preserve the deer, elk, antelope and mountain sheep that roam the Colorado forests has resulted in large herds of the animals becoming domesticated. It is no unusual sight in the towns bordering the Uncompagme National forest to see many of these wild animals grazing in the village streets or approaching the inviting haystacks of some ranch for a feast.

PORTLAND MARKETS

PORTLAND, Jan. 28.—The general trend of market conditions in the Northwest is indicated by the sale of top steers in the Portland Union Stock Yards today at 11.50, top cows at 10.00, and a sharp advance in hog prices, aggregating 25 to 35 cents. While sheep prices are quoted steady the activity in that department is scarcely less than in other departments of the market. The sensation of the day in the cattle department was the sale of a car of well "finished" cows at a dime, which sets a record market in the Portland Yards for that line, and on the same day a new record was set in the steer top at 11.50. The great bulk of steers carrying a kill, fit for packing or even the block purposes, sold at 10c or better. Feeders of the type which were bringing 7c three or four weeks ago returned to the country today at 9.00-9.25. The supply is not sufficient for the demand, and general conditions in the cattle market look towards a continued accumulation of strength.
Practically the same conditions prevail in the hog market as in the cattle market. The last week has shown a gradual accumulation of strength, the result of which shows a market today 45c above the Chicago market. This show of strength justifies the Western farmer for the production of pork.
The sheep department had a very light offering, principally in wethers that came into the open market over Sunday, but sales are active at the top end of last week's quotations. The following quotations prevail in the different departments, which do not, in all cases, reach up to the top of the figures actually obtained:
CATTLE—Medium to choice steers, 10.35-11.00; good to medium steers, 9.35-10.35; common to good steers, 7.75-9.25; choice cows and heifers, 7.25-9.00; common to good cows and heifers, 6.50-7.75; canners, 3.00-6.00; bulls, 5.00-7.50; calves, 7.50-11.00; stockers and feeders, 6.00-9.00.
HOGS—Prime light, 16.10-16.25; prime heavy, 16.20-16.35; pigs, 13.75-15.00; bulk, 16.25.
SHEEP—Western lambs, 15.00-

15.50; Valley lambs, 14.50-15.00; yearlings, 13.00-13.50; wethers, 12.50-13.00; ewes, 9.00-11.00.

POLITICAL NOTES

Will Be His Own Manager
STANFIELD, Ore., Jan. 29. (Special).—That he will be his own campaign manager and have neither headquarters nor assistants but will depend upon the news and advertising columns of the press of the state and personal visits to reach the voters, was the announcement of R. N. Stanfield today in assuming the active work of his campaign for the nomination for United States Senator on the Republican ticket.
