PORTLAND MARKETS

PORTLAND, Jan. 29.—The general trend of market conditions in the Northwest is indicated by the sale of top steers in the Portland Union Sock Yards at the early week's market at 11.50, to cows at 10.00, and a sharp advance in hog prices, aggregating 25 to 35c. While sheep prices are quoted steady, the activity in that department is scarcely less than in other departments of the market. The sensation of the week's opening market in the cattle department was the sale of a car of well "finished" cows at a dime, which sets a record market in the Portland Yards for that line, and on the same day a new record was set in the steer top at 11.50. The great bulk of steers carrying a kill, fit for packing or even the block purposes, sold at 10c or better. Feeders of the type which were bringing 7c three or four weeks ago returned to the country today at 9.00-9.25. The supply is not sufficient for the demand, and general conditions in the cattle market look towards a continued accumulation of strength.

Practically the same conditions prevail in the hog market as in the sheep market. The past week has shown a gradual accumulation of strength, the result of which shows a market of 45c above the Chicago market. This show of strength justifies the Western farmer for the production of pork.

The sheep department had a very light offering, principally in wethers, that came into the open market over Sunday, but sales are active at the top end of last week's quotations. The following quotations prevail in the different departments, which do not, in all cases, reach up to the top of the figures actually obtained:

CATTLE—Medium to choice steers, 10.25-11.00; good to medium steers, 9.35-10.35; common to good steers, 7.75-9.25; choice cows and heifers, 7.75-9.00; canners, 3.00-6.00; bulls, 5.00-7.50; calves, 7.50-11.00; stockers and feeders, 6.00-9.00.

HOGS—Prime light, 16.10-16.25; prime heavy, 16.20-16.35; plus, 13.75-15.00; bulk, 16.25.

SHEEP—Western lambs, 15.00-15.50; Valley Lambs, 14.50-15.00; yearlings, 13.00-13.50; wethers, 12.50-13.00; ewes, 9.00-11.00.

Temporarily. His latest wrecking crew tactics have denuded him of all his glory.

With Strunk, McInnis, Schang, Bush and the newer players he had gathered Mack was in a position to win a few ball games. The sales of these men took everything away. Mack has left only a memory of great days. Years and years must pass before he can again expect to step out on even terms with the others in his league, if he follows along the same lines he has laid down for himself.

The draft and enlistments in the army and navy took some players away from Mack, unfortunately the best of his young players. Very few are left to him. Most of his men are just so-so players, not nearly to be classed as major leaguers.

There is hardly a chance that Vean Greig can come back sufficiently to do the slender leader any good. Chester Thomas has passed the height of his effort and he never was any more than an ordinary mechanical catcher. One player is yet to be turned over to the Mackmen from Boston. Connie may succeed in turning a complete wreck into just a mere derailment if he picks the right man.

Mixing in the old-timers with a few youths, however, couldn't make any ball club, to say nothing of the preposterous joke Mack has played.

Are Your Sewers Clogged?
The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as in the case of constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action. They also improve the digestion. Adv.

PHILADELPHIA PRESS IS PANNING BAKER AND MACK

By H. C. HAMILTON
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—If sentiments expressed in the Philadelphia newspapers have any influence with the Philadelphia baseball fans, William F. Baker, and Connie Mack, between them, have perpetrated the two greatest mistakes in the history of baseball.

Fandom in baseball is ready to chew nails. The formerly praised

Mack is being made the target for all sorts of attacks. No defense he can think of is getting him right with his clientele. The sale of Melnis was the last straw, if one was needed. It has been suggested that the only thing left for him is to sell Rube Schauer and strengthen the Athletics.

Just a shred of a baseball team is left to the Shibes and Mack. After a couple of years painstaking experimenting and shrewd purchasing Mack had forced himself to a point where his baseball club again could command some respect from his con-

HORSE RACING ON ICE IS POPULAR

A Close Finish on an Ice Track

Trotting races on the ice, long recognized as one of the leading winter professional sports in Canada, is finding a place in the United States this year and from the size of the crowds which are patronizing the races it is bound to become popular in those states where cold weather make it practicable. In some of the northern cities, Cleveland particularly, ordinary half-mile race tracks are utilized. The tracks are flooded evenly, a piece of ice being left by the freeze.
