NEWS OF LA GRANDE

Visits Cove—Paul H. Spillman is in Cove today on business.

Weather Mild—The weather today is mild and the snow is melting.

Go to Imbler—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox, of Union, went to Imbler today.

Joined Marines—Norval Epler Emmett, of 1909 Oak street, joined the Marines January 25. He is now stationed at Mare Island.

German to Register—Allen Germans must register at the postoffice, beginning Monday. Registration must be made by February 9.

Narrow Escape—Fred Gunderson, who works on the branch in a logging camp, was struck by a falling tree which rolled over him. He got out unharmed except for a slight injury to one arm.

$25 Loss—The report of no damage at the Chase Bohnenkamp residence yesterday, when the fire department was called, was a mistake, as the firemen chopped a large hole around the fire and there was about a $25 loss.

Case Settled Out of Court—The case of Thomas Morgan vs. James Johns, of Pendleton, which was to go to trial Monday afternoon in the Circuit Court has been settled by the parties thereto. This would have been a retrial after a reversal in the Supreme Court.

Fire in Residence—The fire department was called to the home of R. G. Mason, 1509 3-4 Jefferson, about 3:30 this morning. While thawing out the pipes in the basement the blaze ran up along the pipes between the walls. About $10 or $15 damage was reported.

Falchons Film—Due to the storm the Falchons film "The Man From Painted Post" which was advertised to be shown last night did not arrive until this morning, but arrangements have been made to show this

TIGHT SLEEVES AND WAISTCOAT

The tight sleeve, the inner waistcoat, the long rever and the full, belted-up peplum are the distinguishing marks of the spring suit. Both waistcoat and sleeves are in line with the unwritten law of spring fashion designers to save wool.

In the pictured suit the waistline is a trifle high. The full peplum, dipping at the front and pointed, has large pouch pockets.

picture Saturday and Sunday at the Arcade.

Sunday Program at Star—The regular Sunday program will be run at the Star Theatre Sunday. This will give the Star a brand new program for Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Full details of these programs will be found on another page of this issue.

Col. Ivanhoe III—Col. Ivanhoe, secretary of the district exemption board, is confined to his room threatened with pneumonia. He has arranged with Attorney H. J. Green to look after all matters he has pending in the courts, until he is out again.

Chain Letters—G. L. Larson and Pat Foley are sending out chain letters in the thrift stamp campaign. The letters contain a 25-cent thrift stamp. The five that receive them are asked to buy five stamps and mail them with the request that the recipients do the same.

Will Galvin Promoted—Mrs. Chas. E. Camp, formerly Miss Galvin, has received a letter from her brother, Will Galvin, in which he states that he has been rated as Chief Quartermaster and transferred to the U. S. S. Trump. The Galvins are well known to all La Grande residents as they lived here for a long time and Will attended the La Grande high school. Chief Quartermaster Galvin enlisted in Portland three years ago as the family was at that time residing in that city.

Uncalled for Letters—List of letters remaining uncalled for in this office for the week ending Feb. 1, 1918: Gentlemen—Brown, Jack; Dearlove, Chas.; Downey, W. L.; Denhart, Paul; Talbot, Harlin; Young, Wayne; Ladies—Andrews, Mrs. M. A.; Corbett, Mrs. Rose; Harrison, Mrs. Harriett; Harrison, Mrs. May; Rossa, Mrs. Mary (2); Whitney, Mrs. E. W.; Johnson, Grace Weber. These letters will be sent to the dead letter office on February 15, 1918, if not delivered before. In calling for the above please say "advertised" giving date of list.—E. E. Bragg, P. M.

Special Notice to the Relatives of Soldiers and Sailors

The Bureau of Military and Naval Insurance announces that only about one-fifth of the enlisted men have as yet applied for insurance.

If a man has been enlisted before October 15, 1917, he has until Feb. 12, 1918, only to make application. If he enlisted after October 15, 1917, he has 120 days during which he may make such application.

Special provision has been made for the families of men entitled to insurance to fill out special blanks which may be sent to the enlisted men for their signatures. Dr. W. D. McMillan has a large supply of blanks for this purpose and if any relative of an enlisted man desires to avail themselves of their right to war insurance they may obtain these blanks and send them to the boys AT ONCE. If you know of any enlisted man who has not made application for war risk insurance, get a blank, fill it out and send it to him before February 12. d1-31-11. wk2-8-11.

Red Cross Benefit Concert.
The date of the Red Cross benefit concert given by Mrs. A. L. Richardson and a group of visiting and local musicians is Monday evening, Feb. 4, at the L. D. S. Tabernacle. Tickets may be exchanged for reserved seats at Silverthorn's Drug Store, Thursday, where tickets also will be on sale. 1-30-11.
