DOROTHY DALTON AT ARCADE
ALSO ROLLICKING COMEDY

Dorothy Dalton, Thomas H. Ince's brilliant photoplay actress will be seen at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow in "The Price Mark." This is Miss Dalton's first appearance under the Paramount banner, and reflects the celebrated producer and his popular star in one of the most ambitious photodramas of the year.

"The Price Mark" has to do with a young girl who goes from a small Ohio town to New York City in search of a theatrical position. Failing to secure this, she is forced by ever-pressing poverty to accept an engagement as an artist's model.

From the moment that Miss Dalton, in her screen character of Paula Lee, enters that studio to the last scene of the picture, here is a romance that thrills even the most blasé theatre-goer, so accurately and understandingly does it portray the very heart of the artist's model and her life from that point.

"Taming Target Center" is the name of the new Mack Sennett comedy that will be shown in connection with the above feature.

Polly Moran takes the part of the sheriff and starts things going when she takes office. The fun is carried on with the help of Ben Turbin and Tom Kennedy and others and there is sure something doing from the start to the finish. As one critic put it, it starts with a riot and ends with a roar.

This big seven reel show will be presented today and tomorrow at the Arcade.

LIST OF MEN DELINQUENT IN THIS COUNTY

UNLESS HEARD FROM IN FEW DAYS WILL BE REPORTED TO ADJUTANT GENERAL

The local exemption board of Union County makes the following announcement:

The following list of delinquents that have failed to send in their questionnaires will be reported to the Adjutant General in a few days. If there are any in this list that are known to any person in La Grande and reasons can be given why they failed to send in their questionnaire the local board will appreciate any information that can be given. In the last list of delinquents published in the Observer, over twenty of the names were reported to the local board as having enlisted. This method saves the Adjutant General considerable trouble in locating delinquents.

"THE CAR OF CHANCE"
Franklyn Farnum in Comedy Drama, and a Two-Reel Comedy at Star.

The romance of a jitney bus will be told in clever comedy-drama at the Star theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday when Franklyn Farnum, Brownie Vernon and a skillful company of players will interpret "The Car of Chance," a Bluebird photoplay of immensely humorous motives. Incidentally there will be an engaging love story told in beautiful photographic episodes while a car strike is broken (without "strike breakers") and a bunch of society chaps show that they are good for something besides posing as tango experts and tea toppers. "The Car of Chance" is to laugh—and be happy. What more could be desired from an hour spent at a picture theatre?

On the same program will be shown a two-reel L.K.O. comedy. This entire program can well be called a big day show.

About Constipation.
Certain articles of diet tend to check movements of the bowels. The most common of these are cheese, tea and baked milk. On the other hand raw fruits, especially apples and bananas, also graham bread and whole wheat bread promote a movement of the bowels. When the bowels are badly constipated, however, the sure way is to take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.—Adv.

WOULDN'T THIS JAR YOU?

Mary Pickford is in the jar, and though she is conceded to be a "peach," she is not being pickled. This is one of the scenes in "The Little Princess," Mary's latest photoplay being released by Artercraft, from the book by Frances Hodgson Burnett, in which Mary plays the part of Sara Crewe and tells the girls in the fashionable boarding school Arabian Nights tales, which are shown on the screen. In this picture she is taking the part of Morgiana in "All Baba and the Forty Thieves."

When You Have a Cold.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good quality of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes: "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured."—Adv.
