

You Have no Hair to Spare

Most people pay but slight attention to an occasional falling hair—and do not think seriously of the loss until the thin or tiny bald spot begins to show. The time to check falling hair is now. The best remedy is

A. D. S. Hair Vigor

It tones up the hair and scalp and gives the hair new life and lustre. It removes dandruff and stimulates the hair bulbs to healthy activity.

Return to Elgin—Mrs. D. A. Zweifel and daughter, Winnifred, who were here yesterday, have returned to Elgin.

In Portland—J. H. Minnaugh, of La Grande, was at Portland Monday and made his headquarters at the Multnomah hotel.

Registered in Portland—The following people registered at the Imperial hotel, Portland, February 4: W. B. Sargent, La Grande.

Returns to Pendleton—Miss Harriet Young, pianist of Pendleton, who attended the recital here Monday night has returned home.

Leaves for Corvallis—Miss Inez Knowles, daughter of Circuit Judge Knowles, left La Grande last night for Corvallis where she will attend a course of study at the O. A. C.

Leaves for Seattle—Mrs. Clarke Letter left for Seattle last night to arrange for new and special feature films for the Arcade and Star theatres. At the same time she will book a number of vaudeville companies for La Grande.

Trial in Circuit Court—A trial is being held in Circuit Court today wherein Luther Geiger and brother are being tried on a charge of alleged trespass, it being alleged that they cut down timber on land not their own.

Lectures on Child Welfare—The Neighborhood Club held a meeting at the club rooms yesterday. Dr. B. W. De Busk of the University of Oregon, gave a lecture on "Child Welfare." The meeting was well attended and the lecture was enjoyed by all.

Will Visit in Joseph.—Mrs. Ida Barton of Pendleton has gone to Joseph today, where she will visit the Barton family there.

Spends Day With Mother.—Mrs. J. D. Harvey spent the day with her mother, Mrs. J. R. Weaver at Elgin.

District Deputy Coming—District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler C. C. Bradley, will visit the Elks lodge February 21. The nineteenth annual ball and banquet will be held on February 22 and Mr. Bradley has been invited to remain over for that event, which will be made one of the most enjoyable ever given by the Elks lodge.

Visits Great Granddaughter—Mrs. Jessie Spencer, granddaughter of R. C. Plass, was visited by her grandfather today, who was anxious to see his six-week-old great granddaughter. This was the first time Mr. Plass has had an opportunity to get to La Grande from the ranch, and he pronounces his great granddaughter perfect.

Gave Oriental Dance.—One of the novelties at the Red Cross benefit concert Monday night which added great interest to the program was the Oriental Dance by Miss Leona Newlin. Miss Newlin is a graceful dancer and her rendition of the Oriental dance, with its maze of steps and postures, was indeed artistic and highly appreciated by the large audience.

Move to San Francisco—Geo. L. Bonsteel, for the past 14 months division accountant on the second division of the O. W. R. & N., accompanied by his wife and son, left for San Francisco Sunday. Mr. Bonsteel will accept a position with the Southern Pacific auditor's office in the disbursing department. Mr. and Mrs. Bonsteel will be missed as during their 14 months at La Grande residents they made a host of friends who wish them every success in California.

Judge Crawford Appointed—Circuit Judge Knowles, at the request of Robert Tucker, president of the State Bar Association today appointed Judge Thomas H. Crawford to represent the bar of this circuit court district at the meeting of the State Bar Association to be held Saturday, February 16, in Portland, when memorial services will be held in honor of the late Charles W. Fulton and the late Julius C. Moreland.

Telegraphy Class Growing—Five nights a week the telegraphy class at the Y. M. C. A. is in full swing. The attendance is very good and nearly every class sees several new pupils. Information is being received from all points on the branch and from Pendleton and Baker. Principal Divens is very well pleased with the outlook and especially with the interest that the pupils are taking.

Teachers Over the Top—Supt. of Schools A. C. Hampton reports today that the teachers of the public schools have responded to the 100 per cent perfect for the Armenian-Syrian relief committee. There are yet a few of the firms and corporations that have not responded to the appeal made for this good cause and it is the hope of the committee that they will within the next few days.

Teachers Do Their Bit—The following members of the high school faculty under the supervision of Mr. J. E. Fulkerson of the faculty, are at work classifying registrants on a card that has 47 different entries which will give the government considerable information concerning the qualifications. The following members were at work last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building: Misses Ida Gunderson, Ida Howard, Dorothy Wright, Bessie White and Messrs. Henry DuBois, E. A. McEachron and J. E. Fulkerson. This group is certainly "doing their bit" because the job is a big one and will take considerable time.

Activities at Y. M. C. A.—Last evening at the Y. M. C. A. the following activities were in full swing: Ted Thye with his wrestling class, which is becoming a feature at the "Y" and is constantly growing; the telegraphy class with a large attendance; the Senior gymnasium class that made the gym ring with the good feeling and fellowship that always prevails there; the teachers of the high school at work with the card indexing of the registrants of the county. The pocket billiard tables have been moved from the social room to the main lobby. The tables will be ready for playing the latter part of this week. They have been repaired and new table and cushion cloth have been put on both tables.
