TITLED BOY HELPS WIN WAR

This patriot is only nine years old—but his bit helps in the winning the war. The little boy is the Duke de Chaulnes, son of the late Duke de Chaulnes, son of the late Duke de Chaulnes. His mother was Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of the head of New York's traction system. Everywhere that he can find war activities, the boy is on the job. Even if it's only running errands at a Red Cross bazaar he welcomes the chance. He is shown here at the wheel of a motor ambulance which was presented to the Italian army by several New York society leaders, including the Duches de Chaulnes.
