Tuscana Survivors List Incomplete

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Only ten names were added to the roll of survivors of the Tuscania in dispatches today and tonight to the War Department. The list of American soldiers whose names have not been reported among the survivors as rescued numbers 340, although about 200 of these and probably more have been rescued. The War Department is trying to decipher a number of names that came garbled by cable, and considerable additions to the list of survivors may be announced by tomorrow.

Russia Out of the War, Leaves Rumania In Hopeless Plight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Almost simultaneously with the announcement by the Bolshevik government that Russia was out of the war and that a general demobilization on the entire Russian front is to be carried out, thus permitting the Teutonic allies to withdraw all their forces for use on other battlefronts, President Wilson appeared before the joint session of Congress and restated the fact that the United States is in the war to stay and reiterated those principles which the people regard as fundamental to a permanent peace.

No formal treaty has been made between the Russians and the Central Powers, but the Bolshevik government has ordered the cessation of hostilities against the Germans, Austrians, Turks and Bulgarians and the withdrawal of troops from the trenches and the fortified positions from the Baltic Sea to the Roumanian frontier. Long ago the enemy forces began a withdrawal of troops from these fronts, leaving virtually only a handful there. Peace having been effected both by the Russians and the Ukrainians with the Teutonic allies, the situation of Roumania becomes most critical. Cut off now from their allies, the Roumanians are apparently forced by absolute necessity to make a separate peace or to be overrun by superior armies. Nothing has transpired to indicate whether a new Roumanian cabinet has been formed since the Roumanian cabinet resigned Friday, or whether any reply has been made to the ultimatum of the Central Powers that peace negotiations be immediately started.

On various battlefronts operations by small patrols and artillery duels are in progress. The enemy forces bombarded several positions on the Italian fronts. All the attacks of the enemy were repulsed by the Italian batteries.

President Wilson Will Accept No German Made Peace

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Wilson in his address before the joint session of Congress today cleared the atmosphere of confusion in regard to the peace speeches of the German chancellor and the Austrian foreign minister. He made it clear that there would be accepted no German-made peace based on the desires of the military masters of Germany, but that the United States would continue to fight until it had won a peace based upon the principles of justice. He said that Czernin, the Austrian minister, had employed a very friendly tone and seemed to see the fundamentals of peace with clear eyes and would probably have gone very much further if he had not been embarrassed with Austrian alliances and dependence upon Germany.

Members of Congress did not regard President Wilson's speech as a peace message but as notice to the Central Powers that the United States would not be turned aside from the object for which it was fighting, and they regarded it as a warning to Congress and the people that the progress of the war would not be interfered with by the misleading and equivocal utterances of Teutonic statesmen.

His address was prepared after conference with Colonel E. M. House, the American representative at the great inter-allied conference. He did not announce his coming in advance, only giving sufficient notice to prepare for the joint session, which was held in the House. After his address he was warmly congratulated by members of both houses, without regard to party.

8-Hour Law Evasion Charged

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Charges made by representatives of the other brotherhoods that the railroads were trying to evade and discredit the operation of the eight-hour law were supplemented today by Timothy O'Shea, acting president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, Engineers and Hostlers, at today's hearing of the Railroad Wage Commission.

"We want time and one half for overtime," said Mr. O'Shea, "computed on a minute basis. I think I can say that if this is granted as a penalty, that there will be very little overtime paid by the managements of the railroads as they will readjust the work and shifts so as to eliminate it." He asserted that as to hostlers some roads had gone to an eight and nine-hour basis and some had reclassified them so that they do not come under the eight-hour law.

CANDIDATES FOR CHAIRMAN WITHDRAW

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 11.—In the interest of harmony, Will H. Hayes of Indiana, and John T. Adams of Iowa, will both withdraw their candidacies for chairman of the Republican National committee, it was announced tonight. This will leave the field open for tomorrow's election. George W. Perkins of New York, John C. Shaffer of Indiana, and Harold Ickes of Chicago of the Progressive wing of the party and the Indiana delegation opposed Adams all day, and the spokesman of this faction announced tonight that Adams would certainly withdraw. Followers of Adams said that Hayes also would retire.

GERMANY CONFIRMS REPORT

LONDON, Feb. 11.—German government wireless messages confirm the Amsterdam announcement that Russia has ordered the cessation of war and the demobilization of Russian armies on all fronts.

Judge Upholds Search Warrant

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Federal Judge Landis today denied the motion to quash the search warrant issued to agents of the Federal Trade Commission under which they had seized certain books and papers from the vaults of Henry Veeder, general counsel of Swift & Co., alleging that they were to be used as evidence to prove that certain felonies had been committed by the packers. Judge Landis held that the espionage act, under which the search warrant had been issued, was constitutional and denied every objection of the counsel for the packers to the validity of the warrant.

LAST OF HEATLESS MONDAYS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Indications were that today would be the last of the heatless Mondays. Fuel Administrator Garfield will announce the end of the closing order tomorrow as the result of a conference with Director General of Railroads McAdoo. Better weather and improved traffic conditions are responsible. Reports to Director McAdoo are that traffic conditions are improving steadily, despite floods.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT ENDORSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The woman's suffrage amendment to the constitution was endorsed today by the executive committee of the Democratic National Committee after a referendum to the committeemen from the forty-eight states.

BOSTON BASEBALL MANAGER NAMED

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—President H. H. Frazee of the Boston American League team announced that he had appointed Edward G. Barrow as manager of the Red Sox.

WE ACCEPTED THIS WAR FOR A WORTHY OBJECT, AND THE WAR WILL END WHEN THAT OBJECT IS ATTAINED. UNDER GOD, I HOPE IT WILL NOT END UNTIL THAT TIME!

—ABRAHAM LINCOLN, June 16, 1864.

ALL BOUND ROUND WITH A WOOLEN STRING

"We have with us today this smiling young person who is favoring the interested public with a practical demonstration of how to put on the new wool puttees, especially recommended for women war workers as well as for soldiers. The new puttees are in reality only long bands of wool webbing with a woollen tape sewed on one end to serve as fastening. The puttee is worn over the upper part of the shoe and is secured by holding one end of the band firmly pressed against the ankle, and then winding round, around, and round while gently squeezing. 'All Bound Round with a Woollen String.' The wool puttees are suited to the women who go abroad to drive autos in France and England or practice for that feat by learning auto mechanics in America."

San Francisco Celebrates New Year
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 12.—Chinatown celebrated the 2469th anniversary of the creation of the world, according to their manner of reckoning, Sunday. This city is said to have the largest Chinatown in the country. With the end of the Manchu dynasty a number of the old rites which appeared barbaric to Occidental eyes have been done away with but enough of the old time festivity remains to make it unique among the annual celebrations of the city.

A Penny a Day Means a Kit-a-Month for a Boy at the Front

Every man, woman and child in this city can help keep one of our boys at the front supplied with cigarets and tobacco by setting aside one cent a day for each working day.

Just think what this little sum will do! For 25 cents we will enter your name on our Tobacco Fund list and will send 45 cents worth of smoking tobacco and cigarets to our boys in France. In the kit will be a postal card stamped and addressed to you, and on the kit will be a request to the soldier asking him to write a message to you on the postal and mail it.

The Red Cross takes charge of these kits of smoking tobacco and cigarets; it tributes them; the French government sends back the postal card; the United States stamp and admits the tobacco free of duty.

Surely if as busy an organization as the Red Cross Society and as pre-occupied officials as those of the French government will do these things to see that our soldiers get a chance to smoke, it isn't asking much to ask you to set aside one cent a day for the purpose.

Send in your contributions of any amount—25 cents, $1.00, $5.00, or more. For every 25 cents that you give, a separate postal bearing your name goes to the front.

Here's 45 cents worth of tobacco which is sent for your quarter:

A package of Tuxedo tobacco and four books of cigaret papers. Three pouches of Bull Durham Tobacco and three books of papers.

Two packages of Lucky Strike cigarets, twenty cigarets in each package.

A return postal card addressed to the contributor on which the soldier will pen his appreciation and gratitude as a gift.
