

The Pipe That Suits

Smokers have individual opinions as to what kind of a pipe they like, and we have the pipes to meet every opinion.

Material, shape, size or price considerations can all be met.

If you are a pipe smoker, drop in and look through the line, even though you don't want a pipe just now. It will show you what choice you'll have when you do want one.

SUMMERVILLE NEWS

SUMMERVILLE, Feb. 18. (Special.)—Miss Marna Beecher, teacher at the Dry Creek school, deserves high praise in her entertainment of the large crowd which gathered for the basket social last Saturday evening.

The program was full of life and full of interest for old and young. John Philpott was auctioneer and from the 28 baskets sold the net proceeds were $240.15.

L. R. Niederer and B. F. Stack are busy taking estimates of the crop and labor survey. The principle of the survey is to get an estimate of the acreage planted and the required amount of stock and labor for this year's harvest. It is something that every farmer should take an interest in and should see that he is not overboard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Niederer were down from La Grande to spend Saturday and Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. Edna Fisher returned from Joseph Friday evening.

E. J. Sanderson was a business visitor in Elgin Thursday.

Sara Emerson, formerly of Summerville, who now resides at Brown, Oregon, arrived on Friday to attend business regarding his farm north of town.

Mike Royes owns what seems to be a "freak" calf. People having seen the calf claim that it resembles a deer, as it has short, sleek hair, weighs only eleven pounds, and has a head shaped more like that of a fawn than of a calf.

"Crazy" Party Popular

The Red Cross Busy Bee and a number of their friends were pleasantly entertained Friday evening, February 15, at a Red Cross benefit Crazy party, given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bradshaw and Mr. and Mrs. Al Watson at the home of the latter.

The guests were requested to dress in "crazy" costumes, and a prize was given to the one who looked the most ridiculous. The service of a fortune teller was procured and he gave the proceeds of his mystic knowledge to the Red Cross fund. A Hoover lunch was served in harmony with the other features of the party, for which was charged 15 cents "and as much more as you want to give. It all goes to the Red Cross." A total of $2.75 was collected and turned in to Red Cross headquarters.

Doctor Ralston Commissioned

Dr. F. L. Ralston, formerly of La Grande, is now a first lieutenant in the spruce division at Vancouver barracks.

make good there; if I was home I would like to be with them. What is Will doing? Shipping spuds as usual, I suppose. I got a letter from M. H. yesterday; I like to get his letters; he usually writes good ones.

An sending two pictures, one of our section A and one of the "chow" hall decorated up for the holidays. I did not take a very good picture; my features seemed to be sun-drowned a little bit but you can recognize me and it is a good picture of the boys generally. The one to my left is Hutchinson of Union.

There are boys from nearly every vocation of life, although we have no millionaires or hoboes—they are rated about the same in the Marine corps, but I think the boys have a little better chance for promotion if he has any ambition, for it takes a man who has had experience and knowledge to make a fighter, not one who is used to several course meals and champagne. It is consoling to see some of the kids who have never been more than twenty-five feet away from their mamma's, who have
