IN KEEPING WITH THE BIG THOUGHT OF THE DAY

The daily press reflects a sentiment throughout the nation which clearly indicates a new condition.

Men are wanted everywhere. The work of this war is being carried on largely by those who never before have been in public office or in public work. Men who have been too busy, too engrossed with their own tasks, are leaving their work to others and giving their time and ability to the cause which is ours, yours, everybody's.

It is a time when politics in the ordinary sense must not be considered. It calls for all the ability that can be mustered.

Oregon to be a successful part in this unit plan for the defense of democracy, must likewise place the thought of the future before everything.

In another part of this paper appears the announcement of L. J. Simpson as a candidate for the nomination for Governor on the Republican ticket. Mr. Simpson was urged to become a candidate by his many friends in every part of the state, because of his business record, his understanding and knowledge of Oregon's resources, industries and needs; because of his public-spiritedness, which of recent years has led him to tasks which have been more important to him than his own affairs.

L. J. Simpson is clearly the man who can give Oregon the administration necessary to this plan of National Efficiency.

His campaign will be directed straight to you as voters, as individuals who do your own thinking.

We are firmly convinced that you will not allow politics to influence your decision, and that you will vote for the man who is best fit to help the people of Oregon develop the state's vast resources and to prepare for and participate in the great reconstruction that is to follow.

We believe you will weigh issues more closely than ever before, and that L. J. Simpson will be your choice.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

First—Talk over his candidacy with your friends.

Second—If you believe that L. J. Simpson is worthy of your support, write a letter to this committee.

Suggest how his cause may be advanced. We, in turn, will tell you how you can help.

Daily Recipe for Wheat Substitutes

FEBRUARY 21, 1918

In compliance with the latest Food Edict, the grocer must sell 17 pounds of Wheat Substitutes with every sack of flour. Many of the substitutes recommended by Mr. Hoover are new to La Grande housewives. We take pleasure in recommending this recipe for tomorrow.

WHEAT-RYE BREAD

Half Wheat Flour and Half Rye Flour

1 cake Magic yeast, 2 cups lukewarm water, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 tablespoons wheat flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup boiled mashed potatoes.

Soak yeast 20 minutes in 1 cup of water. Mix remaining ingredients in the other cup of water. Add soaked yeast and mix thoroughly. Let rise over night. Yeast will be ready in the morning.

Sponge 2 cups slightly warmed rye flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar, yeast, prepared as above.

Stir flour, salt and sugar into above yeast, and beat with a spoon until the batter is so smooth that it will fall in ribbons like the batter for a fine cake. Set the sponge in a warm place to rise. It will double in less than three hours.

Bread Above sponge, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 cup rye flour, about 2 cups wheat flour.

When sponge has doubled, stir in the salt, rye flour and sufficient wheat flour to make it stiff enough to knead. Try to handle as soon as you can after 2 cups of flour are added. Brush the freshly scalded and dried bread board with warmed flour. Add, gradually, remaining flour. Completely knead to sticking point after each small addition of flour. Let rise second time. Equally make into two loaves the shape of rye bread and bake on an iron sheet or on the bottom of an inverted dripping pan. In a sweet flavor is desired, add tablespoon of molasses when making the bread.

This space will be used daily for new recipes for Wheat Substitutes. Try a new one each Wheatless Day you will find them delicious. Save the Wheat for the boys in France.
