

Prescriptions

The Most Important Department of Any Drug Store

The compounding of drugs, the interpretation of the prescription, the completion of the doctor's requirements for the patient's recovery are the most important things connected with the drug store. We specialize in prescription work; we exert unusual means and effort to obtain careful drugs. We exercise a knowledge and care and experience that are equal to the best. We do not imitate or duplicate or substitute, but plan at all times to do exactly as the doctor orders or requires. In other words we cooperate with the doctor to the fullest extent, which gives the patient the best possible result. It is safer by far to have all prescriptions filled here.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Campbell, a boy, at the Grande Ronde hospital.

C. E. (King) Cole, of Baker, is here today looking after the market for farm machinery.

Mrs. Lee Warnick left for Union this morning to visit her mother, Mrs. Tuttle, who is ill.

C. G. Rankin, who is in charge of the O-W automatic stoker service, is registered at the Foley.

Mrs. Franz Wilhelm expects to leave soon for her home in Portland after visiting in this city several days.

Clyde Bunting, Sr., representative of the Holt Manufacturing Co., is in Union today looking after the different caterpillars sold in that vicinity for the season.

Traveling representative McCrell, of the Hudson Auto Co., is in the city today conferring with local garage men on the possibilities of the season's business.

Mrs. Roy Forrester and Mrs. Clyde Peterson and daughter, Phyllis, have returned from Boise where they have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Chas. Bugger.

F. H. Anderson, who sells paper for the Pacific Paper Co., of Portland, is making his regular trip to La Grande. Mr. Anderson has begun to claim citizenship here although still a resident of Boise.

K. J. Martin, one of the pioneers of Union, is over today visiting L. E. McKennon. Mr. Martin says he is a fixture at Union and that the town cannot hardly get along without him and certainly could not get along without him.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McClay, recent arrivals from Rupert, Idaho, have established their home on the Wm. McCall place, east of town. Mrs. McClay will be remembered by her former friends as Miss Pearl Huff.

Judge B. F. Wilson, of Union, accompanied by a large delegation of land owners, is in the city today talking over water rights and other things of importance to the Union county districts.

Hal Reese, of the Galloway-Reese Auto Co., is in Baker today on business. While in Baker county he will spread the news of the Moine tractor which the company has lately contracted to sell in Eastern Oregon.

C. B. Grenier, who is with the hospital corps in France has written to Mr. and Mrs. Halley under date of January 29th, and among other things, says: "I received the box and your letter today. Many thanks. Ralph got his box too. I am glad you folks have had a good fall. It makes it a whole lot nicer to get the work done up in time. Gee, say, if the boys keep on going what will the farmers do?"

Wm. Milenburg and Otto Peper are our cooks and they are good ones, too. We have hot cakes almost every Sunday morning. We get enough to eat. I have gained some weight, but that is because I don't do as much as I am used to doing. I am the company's carpenter and cobbler. I like the job first rate.

"We are having ideal Spring weather. There is a little frost in the mornings but the sun shines warm in the middle of the day. The snow, of which there was only about six or seven inches, is all gone and the grass is green in the meadows, and has been all winter. The alder trees have big buds on them and the little tassels which come on them in the Spring. I imagine this is a beautiful country in the summer but the land doesn't look good. It is rocky and a red clay which sticks to your feet. We passed through a town that was started 147 B. C. I guess that's some age. Most all the towns are old here and their ways of farming are way behind ours. The French are very slow in doing lie cloth and you will not hesitate which to buy. Toggery. 2-27-31.

Delber Snider, a former carrier boy for the Evening Observer written to his mother, Mrs. M. Snider, from Charleston, S. C., as follows: "I received yours and the children's letters, but I can hardly think of anything to say to answer them. The reason I have waited a little longer to write is because we have been traveling around a little bit. We have been down to Jacksonville, Florida, and I found it a pretty nice place. Lots of tourists and beer hoppers are there and I think that the only thing that keeps up the city is booze. You know Florida is not a dry state. There is some very pretty scenery and orange orchards and alligator farms. They have a good harbor and shipping docks. We ran into a schooner in Charleston harbor on account of the fog, but not much damage was done. Will be going again soon. With love."

C. B. Grenier, who is with the hospital corps in France has written to Mr. and Mrs. Halley under date of January 29th, and among other things, says: "I received the box and your letter today. The alder trees have big buds on them and the little tassels which come on them in the Spring. I imagine this is a beautiful country in the summer but the land doesn't look good. It is rocky and a red clay which sticks to your feet. We passed through a town that was started 147 B. C. I guess that's some age. Most all the towns are old here and their ways of farming are way behind ours. The French are very slow in doing things, but when they get them done they are done well. When they plow the furrow is just as straight as you can draw a line. They drive all their horses with a jerk line and the teamsters walk along side their teams and balloo, "Gee and Haw." No matter how many horses they work they string them out one ahead of the other. They have fine roads here and they are fixing them all the time. The farmers seem to reach here all the year around. They store the bundles in the barn and thresh when they get ready. They have fine horses and cattle and the stock is fat as can be. Everything is kept in the barn, not a thing left outside—not even the dogs. There are lots of streams all over the country and all the villages are on small streams.

"Anything in the eating line that will keep—as it takes five or six weeks for it to get here—or tobacco, will be appreciated. It is best to put things in tin cans or buckets and then put them in a good box of either tin or wood. They go through a lot of rough handling before we get them. Best wishes to all.—C. B. GRENIER, 167th Field Hospital, 117th Sanitary Train, A. E. F., France."

In a letter to Mrs. Caroline Anderson, "Rollie" Owen, who is with the Aviation corps at Wichita Falls, Texas, says that his division were just ready to go to Garden City, N. Y., and they expect orders to "go across" at any time. "Rollie" has been in aviation training in Texas for several months.
