MUST SAVE FOOD

The subject may appear to be growing stale but it must be impressed in all possible ways that the saving of food is a vital necessity. In this connection D. Vernon Kellogg, of the U. S. Food Administration says:

"We have saved some food during the last few months, the months since there has been a Food Administration. We have made a good beginning. But it is only a beginning. We must save more, not simply more in total, but more each month."

"We have already sent overseas for our army in France and the soldiers and civilians of our associates in this war all of our surplus wheat and meat and fats. But they need much more. We can keep on sending them what they need in only one way, and that is by lessening our own consumption of the food we have on hand and are constantly producing. We need to reduce our consumption of wheat by one-third and of fats and meat by one-fifth. Doing this will not injure us in the least, for we are now eating much more meats and fats than we need and we can easily use corn and other cereals to a considerable extent in place of wheat. So, beginning right now, the Food Administration asks the American people to save more food than they have been saving, by faithfully following the new program outlined in the Home Card of 1918.

"Not all of our people can eat less than they now eat, for many are unable to buy more food than they actually need. But if all who CAN save WILL save there will be enough for all of us, our associates in this war, friendly neutrals and ourselves.

"Do not hoard food, for the Government will keep in this country enough of every essential kind of foodstuff to supply all of the people. The Government has no intention of ever taking an ounce of the home-made preserves or of the home-grown products kept in pantry or cellar. Anyone who tells you otherwise is working for the enemy, either intentionally or unintentionally."

SHERRY

If you miss the George Walsh picture at the Sherry Theatre, you will miss one of the best pictures this William Fox star has ever put forth for your entertainment.

It is not strange that motion picture followers have liked and applauded this photoplay. It is one that has a strong appeal to both rich and poor. It should make the fathers and mothers of your industrious boys happy and should make the parents of the rich, idle young men thoughtful of how they have cared for and guided their offspring.

While George in the play is achieving success as an ironworker, the rich man's son is just spending Dad's money in the night life of New York. This idler loves a beautiful girl whose father is also wealthy. Conventions cause her to think that all rich men must sow wild oats, but when the call comes for the army she sees George, smiling and industrious, and the spendthrift both in similar uniforms. Her judgment is that George is the better man.

Throughout the play George does some of the stunts for which he is famous in the film world. The battle scenes in the picture are gripping.

Now Is the Time to Be Careful.

Farmers!

You Should Keep a Bank Account

Farmers, as a rule, keep no books or accounts. Their bank deposit books afford them a complete record of cash receipts, while the stubs of the check book are a perfect record of expenses and payments. Your returned checks are the best receipts in the world, because the person receiving them must endorse it, and being returned to you by the bank, they can be easily preserved.

Money deposited in a bank is not so easily "foolen away" as when carried around in one's pocket. Try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you.

A large number of the best farmers have accounts with us.

No charge for check books. We are desirous of having farmers' accounts, even though small, for in this locality, where mixed farming is preached and practiced, their accounts are sure to grow larger.

ARCADE

VIVIAN MARTIN IN DELIGHTFUL IRISH PLAY

"Mother Maerces" must have been "A'Wearing of the Green" under a "Little Bit of Heaven" when Edith Kennedy wrote "Molly Entangled," which is winsome Vivian Martin's latest Paramount photoplay—so completely is the whole production permeated with the very spirit of Old Ireland. Indeed, one could almost believe "Twas Only an Irishman's Dream."

The old fiddler is there and the dancers, old and young, colleen and smiddy. Vivian Martin herself makes such a wee, winsome colleen that it is hard to understand why she was not cast in an Irish role long ago. As may Molly Shann she will appear on the screen of the Arcade Theatre on Friday and Saturday.
