COLLEENS WIN AMERICAN TARS

Every State in the Union to Boast of Irish Brides After the War.

CUPID BUSY AT NAVAL BASE

Brigid O'Rourke, Descendant of King, Weds a Rancher From Colorado—Record for Love at First Sight Goes to Seaman.

Base American Flotilla in British Waters.—Every part of the United States has supplied a hero in love romances that have culminated in happy marriages between American bluejackets and blue-eyed Irish maidens since the arrival of the American destroyer forces in the south of Ireland.

After the war, every part of the United States from Maine to California and from the great lakes to Florida will boast of an Irish bride who was wooed and won in her native land by an American sailor.

All of the brides are looking forward to that happy day when they will see what their husbands so proudly proclaim as "God's country." Already the American sailor has supplied his Irish bride with all necessary documents to establish her identity as an American, and some have even had their property in the United States transferred to their wives as a precaution in case they lose their lives for their country.

Rancher Weds Irish Maid.

There is the marriage of a former ranchman, Bert Adams, to Brigid O'Rourke, whose family descends from an Irish king of that name. Adams, who is a boilermaker on one of the destroyers, hails from Hugo, Colo. He is now arranging to have his ranch in Colorado deeded to his wife as a precaution in the event of his being torpedoed. His wife's relatives live in Bruce, County Limerick, and there is plenty of anecdote connected with the family's relation to the O'Rourkes of kingly fame.

"I don't know anything about ranching," Mrs. Adams told the Associated Press correspondent, "but I am preparing myself for the fair land Bert has told me so much about by studying a history of Colorado."

Then there is the case of Mary Ridge, head waitress at the leading hotel here, who lost her heart to Harland G. Ritchie, a machinist's mate, first class, of Allston, Mass. She was one of the most popular girls in town. The dining room over which she presided is out of bounds to enlisted men, but Ritchie contrived to see her while she was off duty. They knew each other for four months before Mr. Ritchie led her to the altar of the village church.

But the record for love at first sight among the Americans belongs to a young seaman, Paul Valachovic by name, who used to work in the machine shop of the General Electric company at Schenectady, N. Y. He fell in love the first day he stepped ashore here, from the destroyer, Ada Jones, a Cork girl, was the object of Cupid's dart. After the war Valachovic is going to take her back with him to that thriving city in New York.

A few of the Americans first met their wives on visits to England. Charles Harmon Coble of Charleston, S. C., fell in love on the beautiful Cornish riviera with Ada Gilbert, a widow of twenty-four, whose home was in Plymouth. Another English bride is Nora Elizabeth Kitt, who was married to Joseph W. Highfield of Des Moines, Iowa.

Fighting continues between Ukrainian and Russian forces. Huns Commander Crops PETROGRAD, March 7.—Refugees arriving in Petrograd from German-occupied cities say that the Germans are conscripting Russians crops under direction of Hun officials for use on the west front. Russians who do not join the commandeering of all available crops and supplies are threatened with execution. WEALTHY WOMEN WOULD DO THEIR BIT IN WAR Los Angeles, Cal.—Wealthy women of this city who have automobiles and leisure have volunteered to drive government investigators during their business hours and have formed a new war organization known as the Emergency Automobile Drivers. Mrs. Ralph E. Starkweather sold a diamond necklace and donated the proceeds for the new work. wife over here are Benjamin J. Moore of Dallas, Tex.; Elbert R. Beckingham of Pensacola, Fla.; Harry E. "CHEER PARTIES" FOR RECRUITS SET EXAMPLE OTHER CITIES FOLLOW "Let us give a stirring send-off to recruits for the British lines in France," said Postmaster W. B. Carls of Chicago, as reason for initiating "Cheering parties" on the Government building steps. "Let representative Americans send the thrill to those men that will assure them that America is solidly behind the soldiers, the sailors and the executives who carry on our fight for Freedom," said his actual.

Mr. Grain Farmer: Are you prepared to handle your grain in bulk? Do not wait until Spring and Summer when you are buried with work and worried with labor shortage, but build your granaries now. You can buy the lumber and roofing paper for a first-class 1000 bushel portable granary for $54.53 and it will last for years. Sacks for the same amount of grain will cost you $125.00 and this would be a dead loss against this year's crop. A granary of this size can be moved anywhere and can be filled directly from the thresher, doing away with high priced labor handling and sewing sacks. The boys in the trenches need the sacks for sand bags for the protection of their very lives and perhaps your boy is among them. Spend your money in your own valley by buying lumber manufactured at home. When you buy sacks part of the money goes to India. BUILD YOUR GRANARIES NOW Be prepared by building them before the farming season opens up. Be sure to get good lumber, well seasoned, as low grade lumber will give you trouble in a few seasons. Don't use green lumber. Save money—keep what you spend at home—prevent loss and damage from exposure to weather—leave the sacks for our boys in the trenches; help win the war by building granaries now. Portable granaries of this type are universally used in other sections. One trip with a good team will haul the material for one granary. For particulars as well as prices on Union County lumber for all farm purposes, see The George Palmer Lumber Co. LA GRANDE, OREGON
