

A Prompt Source of Spring Energy

At this season it is well to take a good tonic, one that will renew your vital forces.

OUR BLOOD PURIFIER

will supply new energy. It does so by increasing appetite, by insuring better assimilation of food and by directly supplying elements that serve to strengthen the nervous system.

This reconstructive tonic is valuable in all run-down conditions of the system, especially those marked by depression and nervous debility.

dominate the world and will continue to do so as long as the human, and re-conquered by the barbarian spirit responds to the lofty ideals with which the Greek name is forever associated. The Romans were vanquished by the Huns and the Vandals of their day; conquered hordes that "swept down like the wolf on the fold" now—

"The Forum roars no longer; Fallen every purple Caesar's dome."

But "Her ocean roll of rhythm Sounds forever of vanished Rome."

Roman law and Roman jurisprudence and Roman character and Roman ideas about political and colonial government and regulation of life and civil affairs are still points of light in our sky. Ideas in the end are the masters of the world. What ideas did the Huns and Vandals, the Goths and Visigoths bequeath to posterity? Only the ideas of brutality and destruction. They were doomed to oblivion because they had no constructive ideas. Modern Germany, even in triumph, will be a by-word and a

Girl Ball Tossers Meet at Wallowa

HOME QUINTET REGISTER VICTORY OVER VISITING TEAM

Interesting Program is Presented by the High School Literary Society

WALLOWA, March 16.—Edward Holmes of the Wallowa hardware company was demonstrating a Case Tractor on our streets Friday.

The Enterprise-Wallowa girls basketball game, which was played here Friday night, resulted in a victory for the home team by a score of 55 to 13. While the Enterprise team was outclassed in every department of the game, a good fight was put up and good sportsmanship was shown by both teams. The members of the visiting team were entertained in Wallowa homes.

Mrs. John McDonald went to Enterprise to visit her nephew Claud Lockwood, who leaves soon for Washington, D.C.

Jerry Maxwell was an Enterprise visitor Saturday.

Theodore Shell returned from Enterprise Saturday where he had been on business.

J. S. Keeler went to Portland last week to get employment in the shipyards. He will move his children to that city later.

Mrs. Geo. Coleman was in town Saturday on her way to her home in Powwaka, after having spent a week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Conner, who lives north of that town.

Miss May Dunn returned to her home in Enterprise, Sunday, after having spent a few days with Miss Ruth Southwick. While here she attended the Enterprise-Wallowa basketball game.

Arthur Courtney returned to his home in Enterprise Saturday. The roads are fast drying up and the purr of the auto is once again heard in the land.

Guy Davis of Joseph is a weekend visitor.

The cafeteria luncheon was served last Friday evening instead of noon so that the Enterprise basketball team could be the guests of the Wallowa High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox and children went to Evans, Sunday to visit with Roy Haun and family.

J. A. Tulley is remodeling his butcher shop building, which will be occupied by the city market.

Gideon Wolfe has just finished remodeling his cigar and soft drink store.

The public schools are actively engaged in the second Rainbow noon.

Thrill and Saving Stamp drive.

Mrs. R. J. Brund entertained Friday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Heron. The time was pleasantly spent in sewing and visiting. Dainty refreshments were served.

Misses Flora Allen and Mary Randall entertained the third, fourth and fifth grades of the public schools at a masquerade party in the gymnasium Saturday afternoon. Many unique characters were in evidence.

High School Program The Dollar society of the Wallowa high school presented the following program last Friday afternoon:

Debate—Affirmative, Edward Mordock, Lyal Baird; Negative, Theodore Glassy, Dwight Glassy. The question was resolved, that in the United States the negro has suffered more at the hands of the white man than has the Indian. The negative side won the decision of the judges.

Roll call of the society. Piano solo—Halbert Hall. Recitation—William Cooper. Skit—speech: Anna Footberg. Speech: Lena Chenoweth.

Guitar Solo: Edna Reinfrow. Ladies' Quartette: Mary Feeder, Beatrice Pfeiffer, Amanda Harris, Ruth Southwick.

Vocal Solo: Mrs. Mary Randall. Reminiscence: Supt. Conklin. Solo Vocal: Mary Keeler. Extensive Speech: Julia Miller. Recitation: Laura Gastin.

LEGAL NOTICES

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.

La Grande National Bank of La Grande, Oregon, a banking corporation, plaintiff, vs. Turner Oliver and J. R. Oliver, defendants.

To Turner Oliver, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action and court, on or before May 6th, 1918, and you are further notified that if you fail to so answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of three thousand dollars together with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from and after April 15th, 1917 (less the sum of $60 paid October 27th, $60 paid November 3rd, and $20 paid December—all in 1917 and the further sum of $20 paid Jan. 7th, 1918)—together with the sum of $300 as attorney fees and the costs and disbursements of this action, and will take the order of the court for the sale of the attached property levied on in this case, to pay such judgment. This summons is published by order of Hon. J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled court made and entered March 16th, 1918, fixing six consecutive weeks for such publication and in the La Grande Evening Observer, published at La Grande, Oregon.

C. H. FINN,

Attorney for Plaintiff.
