ARCADE

"OVER THERE."

"Over There," the great war drama which Select Pictures is releasing for distribution, will be shown at the Arcade Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The picture, which was made by the Charles Richman Pictures corporation, is being hailed as one of the finest of the year's productions, and its co-stars, Charles Richman and Anna Q. Nilsson, set a high standard in motion picture hearacterization.

The story, briefly told, concerns the lives of Monte Jackson and his sweetheart, Betty Adams. Monte has an inherent fear of bloodshed, and when war breaks out sidesteps, on one excuse or another, enlistment. In time his friends question his excuses; he is blacklisted at his club, finally denounced as a coward, and dropped by his set. Even his fiancee, in the face of his continued evasions, loses faith and breaks their engagements. Only his mother stands by him.

Horrified at the position he occupies, in a revulsion of feeling, Monte joins the service. He is sent to France, where Betty is already serving as a Red Cross nurse. Here he works out his salvation, climbs back into the love of friends and sweetheart, and covers himself with glory. See the picture. It is the sort of thing that might happen to any one of us. It is filled with human interest, and appeals to the innate love of country and flag in every loyal American. It is a red-blooded American play with a great idea behind it.

It will be well to remember that by seeing this picture it will mean more than an evening's entertainment. Each night that the picture is shown is a benefit night. Thursday part of the receipts will be turned over to the Red Cross, on Friday night the local Hospital Unit will be benefited by the Ladies' auxiliary sharing in the receipts and part of the receipts on Saturday evening will be used in the purchase of tobacco for the boys "over there."

By attending the Arcade on either Thursday, Friday or Saturday you will, in a small way of course, be doing a bit in helping smash the kaiser.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

OUR DEFENSE

In the spring we may be attacked at any moment. Toxic poisons pile up within us after a hard winter, and we feel "run-down," tired out, blue and discouraged. This is the time to put our house in order—cleanse the system and put fresh blood into our arteries. You can obtain an alterative extract from Blood root, Golden Seal, Stone and Queen's root, Cherry bark, rolled into a sugar-coated tablet and sold by most druggists, in sixty cent vials, as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This blood tonic, in tablet or liquid form, is just what you need for "Spring Fever," for that lack of ambition. It will fill you full of vim, vigor and vitality.

Chilliness, when other people feel warm enough, is a sign of biliousness, or of malarial poisons—so is a furred or coated tongue, loss of appetite, headaches or giddiness, and a dull, drowsy, debilitated feeling. It's your liver that's at fault. You want to stimulate it and invigorate it with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. With every trouble of the kind, these tiny little things act like a miracle. You can break up sudden attacks of Colds, Fevers, and Inflammations, with them. They'll give you permanent benefit for Indigestion, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, and Dizziness. They are small and pleasant to take and the most thoroughly natural remedy. Twenty-five cents at most drug stores.

S-T-A-R

"I Love You" has an Italian girl as its heroine, the hero and the villain being sons of France. Felice is a peasant and is called "The Passion Flower" by her friends and neighbors. She first gives her heart to Jules Mardon, a young artist who engages her as a model, makes love to her while he is painting her portrait; then he goes back to Paris, becomes famous on account of the picture and forgets its inspirer. The picture attracts the admiration of Armande de Gautier, a wealthy young chap of excellent family, and he does not rest until he has sought out Felice and made her his wife, who learns to love him with all the ardor of her nature. Her happiness is complete when a child is added to the family. In the meantime, she has learned to grace her new station in life. When little Roy is about five years of age Mardon comes to call on his friend Gautier and meets his wife. The artist is filled with an unholy passion for Felice and manages to compromise her, and Gautier drives her from the house. But she settles accounts with Mardon. Her boy has been stricken with the Black Plague and she caresses him and presses her lips to his before being forced from his bedside. Hurrying to Mardon, she pretends to be infatuated with him and permits him to kiss her. She then informs him of his danger from the contagion, and the man perishes miserably. Felice is spared, the child recovers and a reconciliation is finally effected between man and wife.

Walter Edwards directed the picture and has done it in a way that calls for unstinted praise. The scenes have much artistic merit, and the cast has been chosen with discretion. Alma Rubens looks very beautiful as the Italian girl and reflects the soul of the character all through the story. Wheeler Oakman as Gautier, Francis McDonald as Mardon, John Lince as Ravello, Frederick Vroom as Prince del Chinay, Lillian Langdon as Princess del Chinay and Peaches Jackson as Roy are worthy candidates for the honor roll. The cameraman was C. G. Peterson.

In addition to this special seven reel super-feature that will be shown at the Star theatre Thursday and Friday will be shown the last two reels of the Official War pictures showing the retreat of the Germans at the battle of Arras. Those who have seen the preceding reels of this series need no introduction to this last one, to those who have missed the others it will be well to these as it shows most vividly the condition of the country that our boys are in right now.

On account of the length of this show, the first show will start at 7:30. Two complete shows will be given each evening.

SHERRY'S

NELL SHIPMAN SKILFUL RIDER

Seated on the back of a galloping horse is nothing new in the life of Nell Shipman, for this talented Vitagraph star has few equals as a horsewoman. But clinging to the bareback of a circus horse while attired in a slippery evening gown is a different matter, as she realized when the situation was put up to her in "The Wild Strain," the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, adapted from the story, "The Eighth Great Grand Parent," by George Randolph Chester and Lillian Chester, and which will be the attraction in the Sherry theatre, last day today. Nothing daunted, however, Miss Shipman attempted the seeming impossibility and "got away with it" so cleverly as to win the commendation of Director William Wolbert.

The active star's abounding vitality is a tremendous asset to her in this production where she plays the part of a hoyden daughter of staid parents. Alfred Whitman has the leading male role, and the remaining members of the cast are Otto Lederer, Mrs. Bodkirk, Ed Alexander, Mrs. Ruth Handforth and R. Bradbury.
