HELP WIN THE GAME.

The efforts of the Home Interests to get your trade is similar to the fielder of our team to catch the ball before it lands outside the grounds. He knows that once it is over the fence the outsider will pick it up, so he does not spare effort to catch it.

The merchant is always doing his utmost to offer you the best grade of merchandise at the most reasonable price. He has to buy the better grade of goods than the out-of-town house because he wants your trade continually. He must meet the deficiencies of his representations. Let us cooperate with the home interests by getting our trade down, and allow the home team to win.
