

Galvanized Iron Grain Bin

MADE FROM GENUINE OPEN HEARTH IRON THE IRON THAT WILL NOT RUST.

With prices prohibitive, and no boys to be had, and a very limited amount of elevators built—what is the farmer to do with his grain? There is only one solution to the proposition, and that is to provide yourselves with these steel bins. They are vermin and rat proof; no danger of fire; the price is in reach of every farmer; they will LAST A LIFETIME—so why pay your good money every year for GRAIN BAGS? Come in and let us talk this over with you. We will not bore you to death trying to get your order, so come in and make us a friendly call.

USE POTATOES TO SAVE WHEAT

The following timely suggestions on the matter of food conservation are submitted to the Observer by Miss May Murphy, Home Demonstration Agent:

Use of potatoes to save wheat is demanded by the present situation, because greater quantities of wheat must be conserved, for the use of the American forces and the allied armies in Europe, and also because of an unusually large supply of potatoes remains in the hands of the growers. Great quantities of these will go to waste unless they are used even more freely and in a greater variety of ways than is customary in American families.

By eating potatoes instead of wheat the people of the United States can help win the war. We have not enough wheat for the allies and ourselves if we are to continue at our normal rate of consumption. We have an abundance of potatoes. Wheat flour is a concentrated food and therefore good for shipping; potatoes are bulky and are consequently not suited for limited shipping space, nor are the allies short of potatoes as of wheat. Next to cereals, potatoes have been in this country, the mainstay of starchy food, which supplies energy.

If potato is used for bread making, allowance must be made for the large amount of water in it and less additional liquid used for this reason.

Potato Bread—One Loaf

- 1 cup mashed potato. 1 teaspoon salt. 2 1/2 cups flour (more if necessary) 4 tablespoons water. 2 to 4 tablespoons liquid yeast, or 1/4 cake dry yeast, or 1/16 to 1/8 cake compressed yeast

Short process: Mix the salt with the mashed potatoes, which are free from lumps and cooled until lukewarm. Add 1/6 to 1/8 cake compressed yeast softened in 4 tablespoons warm water, or 2 to 4 tablespoons liquid yeast, or 1/4 cake dry yeast. When liquid yeast is used no additional water must be added. Blend with this potato and yeast mixture 1 cup flour. Stir until smooth, cover, and set to rise. When this sponge is light and soft, knead in enough flour to make a rather stiff but elastic dough. Be sure that it is stiffer than ordinary dough. Cover and let rise again until very light. Knead down, mold and place in lightly-greased pan. Let rise in pan until as high as ordinary white bread, then bake at least one hour in a moderately hot oven. Bake very thoroughly. This makes one loaf.

Potato Cornmeal Muffins.

- 1 cup mashed potato 1 cup corn meal 1/2 cup sifted flour. 1 teaspoon salt 3 teaspoons baking powder 1 or 2 tablespoons syrup 2 tablespoons shortening 1 or 2 eggs. Liquid to mix to a medium batter (about 1/2 cup)

Add the corn meal, salt, syrup and 1/2 cup liquid to the hot mashed potato, place in double boiler and steam 10 to 20 minutes. Add the shortening and allow to cool thoroughly. When cold add the well-beaten eggs and the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder. Add just enough more liquid, if necessary, to make a somewhat stiff batter. Beat thoroughly, place in greasy pans until half filled, and bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

Chocolate Potato Cake.

- 1/2 cup butter or other fat. 1/2 cup sugar 3/4 cup dry rice potato 1 egg 1/2 cup milk. 1/4 teaspoon salt

1 square chocolate 3 teaspoons baking powder 3/4 cup white flour. Cream the butter, add the sugar gradually, then the well-beaten eggs, and warm potatoes. Beat well. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder, then add to the first mixture with sufficient milk to make a cake dough. Bake about 25 minutes in a moderate oven.

Include the use of baked potatoes, boiled potatoes, mashed potatoes, potatoes pared and roasted in the pan with meat, and potatoes (sometimes with a little onion) fried with a little fat or drippings saved from roast meat or the top of the soup kettle. All these you know how to cook and use. The more of them you eat the less bread you will need, so here is a way to save wheat and DO IT CHEERFULLY.

WITH THE COLORS

FROM TUSCANY SURVIVOR

The following letter is from John Doane to his mother, who is visiting her son, Earl Doane, in La Grande:

Dear Mamma: I am somewhere with the United States Army. Now you know where I am.

I am very happy and having a fine time and enjoying good health and I am indeed very happy.

Mamma, I was on that torpedoed transport and was sick in bed, but I made my way to a lifeboat and after being picked up, I was taken to the coast of Ireland and placed in a hospital. Orders were given by the U. S. government to give us everything we wanted or needed, and the people, the allied Red Cross, the American Red Cross, and the authorities sure kept us from wanting. I was in the hospital for three weeks, and it was just like being sick at home. As I had the best of every care, it leaves me with very pleasant memories and I have some very dear friends.

It gives me a chance to realize the great work of both Red Cross and the treatment of the government of the U. S. when you are in distress, and now we have a real cause to fight and show us the United States does not let you want for anything. And, mamma, the officers of my company and the British seem to get on better, every day, and they seem to us as our own men.

I get paid any day now and it will be a very welcome event, as I haven't had any army pay. I'll increase my insurance to $10,000.

Met two companies of the 3rd Ore. N. G. and there are about 24 boys among them from Forest Grove. They all looked fine and were very happy.

There were 38 men last from Co. F. on that torpedoed ship and they were the finest kind of men. My chum was one of them.

I will have some wonderful tales to tell you when I get home as I see more every day.

The Y. M. C. A. has free shows every night and do everything possible to help the men and make them happy.

I am sending you a piece of poetry I wrote for the paper while I was sick.

A British admiral's wife came to visit us every day, a lieutenant's wife and colonel's daughter, so we had the best of company and visited old castles over 700 years old and were treated royally.

In haste with lots of love.

JOHNNY. Write often. Don't worry as I am safe and well and happy.

HILGARD MAN HAS CHICKEN FARM

HILGARD, April 16.—(Special.)—Mrs. Leila Campbell is here from La Grande, visiting her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. William Cantrell. Spring seeding is now in progress. C. N. Lewis and wife Sundayed in La Grande. Fred Taal was a La Grande visitor Friday. John Wells is having shingles.

If I Were a Farmer.

If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable remedies for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician, such as Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy me to treat slight ailments as soon for bowel complaints. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup. Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains. Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in the night, and would enable as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.—Adv.

from here to fix his house and barn near Starkey.

Giles Harnden and family were visiting Hilgard Sunday.

Mario and Gerald Sanford have the measles, but are not very ill. No other cases have been reported.

William McDougal has started a poultry ranch on the flat just below Hilgard, and so far is meeting with success. He has a fine flock of white Leghorns and ships out several crates of eggs each week, besides running an incubator. He sells the chicks when only a few days old and has orders ahead for nearly half the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cantrell and son Arthur, Mrs. Leila Campbell and baby went to La Grande Tuesday.

SERVE CHICKEN DINNER.

The ladies of the M. E. Church, South, will serve a chicken dinner at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday, April 20, at noon. 4-17-31

IN THE SPRING

Will be the great test of a life and death struggle on the Western front. In the everyday walks of life, it is the spring time that brings ill health. One of the chief reasons why the run-down man finds himself in a bad state of health in March or April, is because he has spent nearly all his leisure time in the past four or five months peering up within the walls of a house, factory or office. It is the lack of outdoor life, coupled with perhaps over-eating, lack of good exercise, insufficient sleep, and constipation.

There is nothing better for health than taking an occasional mild laxative, perhaps once a week, such as one as you can get at any drug store, made up of May-apple, jalap, aloes, (sugar-coated, they easily taken) which has stood the test of fifty years of approval—namely, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. But for the "Spring Fever," the general run-down condition, the lack of ambition, the "blues," one should take a course of treatment every spring; such a standard tonic as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, now to be had in the best form in natural out-purging of a healthy body. It does not spring up in a night. Try this spring tonic, and you gain the courage that comes with good health.
