

OUR PRESCRIPTION SERVICE SUPPLEMENTS THE EFFORTS OF YOUR PHYSICIAN—

Our prescription department is so organized and conducted that it supplements the work of the physician. When your physician writes a prescription and you bring it to us to be filled, we see to it that drugs of known purity and potency are used and that the drugs are compounded in a truly scientific manner.

We base the charge of prescriptions on the exact cost of drugs and the time consumed by the prescription clerk in the preparation of the medicine—This means that the price is reasonable and just in every instance.

CHILDREN APPEAR IN PANTOMIME

Delightful Entertainment at Neighborhood Club Meeting Yesterday.

"The Transformation of Winter Into Spring," a delightful little pantomime with musical accompaniment, was given at the Neighborhood club Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Ray Murphy.

This pantomime represents the struggle between winter and spring. King Winter, with the help of Jack Frost, is reigning supreme. King Winter walks abroad in a blustering manner, waving his scepter and admiring the wonderful work of Jack Frost. He summons the White Winds who blow about and make the earth cold; then he calls the Snow Flakes, who dance about softly and cover the earth with a blanket white.

Presently Spring approaches, laughing and dancing. She commands King Winter to be gone. He refuses and tries to drive Spring away, but she laughingly shakes her head and continues to dance about him. Finally he is forced unwillingly to yield his ground and is apparently vanquished. Yet no sooner has Spring begun to dance exultingly than King Winter reappears with his cold winds to drive her away. He succeeds, but not for long. Spring quickly returns and, with the help of the South Breezes, forces King Winter, Jack Frost and the North Winds to retire before her step by step. Then she summons the South Breezes and the Sun to prepare the earth for her flowers. The Sun enters and glides about, smiling at the flowers until they awaken. The Breezes and the Butterflies come to greet the Flowers, and Spring is here. Jack Frost, Lawrence Bay, Snow Flakes, Laura Jane Talbott, Etta Bell Kitchen, Arlene Winter Winds, Franklin Eberhard, William Miller, Howard, Margaret Baker, Snow Man, Vernon Cortney, Spring, Claire King, South Breezes, Dorothy Eberhard, Florence Sullivan, Iva Neider, Sun, Philip Walnum, Sunbeams, Mary Mildred Ride, naur, Ruth Harrison, Leona Jackson, Raindrops, Kenneth Oxner, Stanley Ford, Westley Hilton, Crocus, Bettie Cochran, Buttercups, Mary Helen Corbett, Dandelion, Franklin Eberhard, Violet, Marjorie Gore, Daffodil, Lois Nelson, Blackeyed Susan, Daisy, Anna Jane McMillan, Red Poppy, Myrtle Gore, Four-leaf Clover, Russell Nelson, Sweet Peas, Phyllis Dunn, Barbara Levy, Marie Baxter, Bee, Jack Kirtley, Butterflies, Arlene Howard, Margaret Baker, Etta Bell Kitchen, Laura Jane Talbott.

Chorus of Sunflowers, Laura Pierce, Garolene McAlister, Thelma Kitchen, Evelyn Emahiser, Cordova

Diggs, Neva Young, Catherine Snapp, Edith Ebell. The scenery and costumes for this little pantomime were very artistic and the color arrangement was beautiful and effective, and much praise is due Mrs. Murphy for the success scored by the little people.

FURLOUGHS FOR SOLDIERS

experts needed in the service of the United States Department of Agriculture may be granted by the Secretary of War upon application therefore by the Secretary of Agriculture; or in the service of agricultural colleges, established under Federal law and regularly receiving Federal funds, upon application therefore by the presidents or other executive heads of such colleges, provided such furloughs are voluntarily accepted by the persons desired.

3. Individual applications for furloughs submitted by relatives will be on Form 1025 P. M. G. O., which form will be furnished the local boards. After sections 1 and 2 are made out by the applicant the form will be given the local board having jurisdiction of the registrant and it will complete section 3 of the form and then secure the action of the county agent or representative of the Department of Agriculture, and if there be no such county agent or representative, then by the Government appeal agent of the local board. The application will then be forwarded to the soldier's post, camp, or cantonment commander and the soldier given an opportunity to sign section 5 of the form, which signature will be considered as a voluntary application for the furlough within the meaning of the law. If the furlough be granted, the application will be filed by the commanding officer and a certificate furnished the soldier to the effect that a furlough without pay or allowances, except as herein stated provided, has been granted for the time therein set forth. If not granted, the application will be returned by the commanding officer setting forth the reasons for disapproval in section 6 of the form. If the soldier initiate the application, he will sign section 5 of the form, adding thereto the name of the person for whom he desires to work, and on submission to the commanding officer the latter will forward it to the local board, who will ascertain from the person named by the soldier, whether such soldier is required; and if so, the board will then require the filling out of sections 1 and 2 of the form and proceed as if application arose from the person named by the soldier in the first place.

4. Furloughs may also be granted on blue to men that are willing to accept them upon request of farmers when the time to be consumed in traveling from the post to the places of labor will not exceed 24

WASHINGTON'S BEST PITCHING BET SEEMS DUE FOR ANOTHER BIG YEAR

Walter Johnson

Clark Griffith this year has one of the best pitching combinations in the league, with Walter Johnson, as usual at the head of the list. Walter Johnson isn't fond of talking about himself, but his catcher, Eddie Ainsmith, declares Walter is due for another of his big years, perhaps 30 victories.

Washington might break into the first division if the punch can be produced, but if the Senators bat no harder than last year they are due for another second division berth.

hours. In making these requests farmers will make use of Form 1025 P. M. G. O., making alterations to show number of soldiers requested and adding that they are in a position to pay the wages usually paid in the vicinity, and such wages will be paid to the soldiers assisting them. These applications will be made to the local boards, who will proceed as in the preceding paragraph. When the application reaches the post, camp, or cantonment commander he will cause it to be endorsed on the back by the soldiers who desire to accept work, and such signatures will be considered as voluntary applications within the meaning of the law. If the number of soldiers desired signify their wishes to accept such furloughs, telegraphic authority will be requested by the commanding officer upon whom application is made from The Adjutant General of the Army for the granting of such furloughs, stating the number of men requested and the number of the local board through which the request was forwarded, giving the recommendation of the commanding officer. The Department of Agriculture will then be called on for information as to agricultural conditions in the particular district, and telegraphic instructions then sent the commanding officer.

5. Form 1025 of the Provost Marshal General's Office is here set forth, and the requirements as shown therein taken in connection with this order, explain the attitude of the War Department upon the question of furloughs under the recent law.

DEATH OF PROMINENT WOMAN OF WALLOWA

MRS. JOHN McDONALD DIES
SUDDENLY FROM ATTACK OF HEART TROUBLE.

Deceased Was Prominently Connected With Church, Educational And Civic Affairs.

WALLOWA, April 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. Maggie McDonald, wife of John MacDonald, died suddenly this morning from heart trouble. As is usual in such cases, Mrs. McDonald was apparently in good health and was an attendant and participant in an important meeting of the local Red Cross yesterday evening.

On account of her prominence in many of the affairs of Wallowa, the community is greatly shocked over her sudden taking away.

Mrs. McDonald was fifty-seven years of age. Her maiden name was Maggie McLean, and she was a resident from girlhood in Grande Ronde where she was prominent in school and other educational matters. She arrived in Oregon, with her parents with the immigration of 1863 and was left motherless at an early age.

During her residence in Wallowa she was recognized head of most of the church, educational, lodge and social affairs of the community and was president of the school board at the time of her death.

She was married in 1894 to John

McDonald and Wallowa has been their place of residence the most of the time since their marriage. There are no children. She leaves, besides her husband, a brother, Duncan McLean, a resident of Wallowa, two nieces, Mrs. Howard K. O'Brien and Mrs. Chas. Hunter, and a nephew, Claud Lockwood. Funeral Will Be Held Friday. The funeral will be held Friday, April 19, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and will be conducted by Rev. Atkins.
