RED CROSS News and Notes.

TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS:

The La Grande Chapter of the Red Cross is compelled to make another appeal to the patriotic citizens of this community. The funds of the Chapter are inadequate to the demands made upon it for the purchase of material and supplies which it is supposed to furnish.

At the present time the chapter finds itself in debt about $1,000, having expended since April 16, 1917, to April 1, 1918, $24,347.38. Their indebtedness at this time in excess of their assets is $1,017.59.

In order to hold the chapter's charter and continue the good work which is now more necessary and essential than ever before in the history of the war, the chapter has found that it will have to receive a regular monthly income amounting to from one or two thousand dollars, and to this end we appeal to you to fill out the attached subscription blank for as much as you can spare monthly for this very essential work.

La Grande, Oregon.....1918 I hereby agree to pay to La Grande Chapter of the Red Cross the sum of $..... payable on the first day of each month.

Signed..... These coupons and monthly payments can be turned in to either of the banks in La Grande.

"IN OLD KENTUCKY."

"In Old Kentucky" which comes to the Arcade Theater tomorrow evening, is one of those rare plays that seem to improve with age. It has made its success without any help from this star or the other. Its present production is one of the best on record.

The Portland Oregonian, in closing a lengthy criticism of "In Old Kentucky" has the following:

"The liveliest and best innovation imaginable is the introduction during the second act of the 'Wood-lawn Whangdoodles,' dancers and singers and musicians, whose jazz band is the jazziest bunch of players that ever jazzed. They are a whole show in themselves, these pickaninnies, who give some of the old Southern melodies, some pathetic and some gay and introduce buck and wing and jig dancing that is a whirlwind of fun."

S-T-A-R

COUNTRY GIRL CLUB'S VICTURE'S WINGS.

In Triangle's new photoplay "Limousine Life," which will be shown at the Star Theater tomorrow and Friday, Olive Thomas enacts the part of an apparently innocent young country girl who inherits a rich, young fortune of a large sum of money. "Limousine Life" is an adaptation of the story by Ida M. Evans, which made such a hit in the Red Book, and gives pretty Olive Thomas a decidedly charming character lead. Miss Thomas equals if not surpasses her clever work in "Betty Takes A Hand" and "Indiscreet Corinne." She is most ably supported by Lee Phelps, recent addition to Triangle forces. The standard excellence of Triangle casts as a whole are deserving of more than passing mention, and Triangle can afford to be particularly proud of the clever acting in this photoplay "Limousine Life."

In addition to this lively photoplay a two-reel Keystone Comedy, "False to the Finish" will also be shown.

SHERRY'S

O. HENRY HERO SEEN IN FEATURE.

J. Frank Glendon, favorite among screen fans through his splendid work in O. Henry's pictures, adds to his reputation in "The Wooing of Princess Pat," the Blue Ribbon Feature, which will be the attraction in the Sherry Theater last showing today.

Mr. Glendon is a Westerner, born and educated in Montana, coming to photoplay after nine years of success on the speaking stage. He has played featured roles in nearly every picture company of importance since settling down in New York City.

Glady's Leslie, the girl with the "million dollar smile," is the princess in the picture who marries a grand duke she never has met, to save her father's kingdom from a hopeless war. Mr. Glendon is the duke, who finally awakens the love of the unhappy child of royalty.

Others in the cast are Biscow Cooper, William Dunn, Charles Kent, Carlton King, Templar Ruxe, and J. Albert Hall.

VERSATILITY OF STAR SHOWN IN DANCES.

Nazimova, the great star of the Metro pictures, "Revelation," which will be presented at the Sherry Theater on Thursday and Friday, shows her ability as an artistic interpreter of classic dancing in this photodrama.

Dressed as a bacchant, a priestess of Bacchus, god of wine and revelry, with leaves in her hair, a garland of grapes across her shoulders, with a goblet in one hand, and a cluster of grapes in the other, she performs "La Danse Bacchante," typifying the exuberant spirit of revelry of a Parisian cafe.

The great Nazimova executed this dance with true artistry and poetry of motion in graceful movements which were ideal for registration by the motion picture camera. On the screen this dance is a revelation in accurate presentation of dance movements in motion pictures.

SAVE MORE WHEAT.

The bread ration of the civilized population in France has been cut more severely; they are now on individual bread cards allowing only about ten ounces a day, barely one-third the average daily bread consumption of the French peasant or workman before the war. How does it compare with your bread ration?

GAVE UP HER HOME TO WAR WOUNDED

COUNTESS OF OSLOW.

Not only her home in London, but her time and service has the Countess of Onslow given to the wounded soldiers who fought the fight of liberty in northern France. Before the war the countess's mansion was filled with gay parties, and her hours with social affairs. But not so now. The home has been turned into a hospital, and the mistress of the mansion finds time only for the wounded men of war.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Rev. Harrison Feese, pastor of the M. E. Church, will lecture at the church Friday evening, giving his popular lecture "That Girl's Fallow." Press comments, letters from educators and ministers throughout the northwest all praise the lecture highly, calling it a combination of good logic, wit, pathos, and a keen analysis of the problem.

ARCADE

LYCEUM NUMBER AT ARCADE TONIGHT.

Tonight at the Arcade will see the last of the three attractions which were booked from the Redpath Lyceum Bureau.

This number is the largest and most pretentious of any of the others. Laurant and Company have been with the Redpath people for more than ten years and have grown and expanded each year.

Mr. Laurant offers an evening's entertainment of the latest wonders of magic and also shows a number of large illusions. Laurant is also quite an impersonator. With the company are two young ladies who have quite a reputation as musicians. During the intermission, these young ladies will offer a number of musical selections and will

The Man of Many Mysteries TONIGHT ARCADE

When a young girl puts on her first corset her figure has a tendency to grow into the line of her corsets whether the lines are good or bad. If her first corset is a bad one and she obtains a bad figure from it, of course a new corset of the same model will fit her better than any corset of superior lines or design, for has she not allowed her figure to take the imperfect lines of the poor corset?

We make this suggestion. Try on one of these
