

RED CROSS DRUG STORE

The Kodak Store

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Mrs. C. H. Stevens, formerly with the Observer, left this morning for Nampa, where Mr Stevens has been for several days.

Mrs. J. L. Ruby and daughter, Miss Eva, left this morning to visit with Mrs. Ruby's son, Dr. J. L. Ruby at Portland.

Miss Martha Schofield, who has been employed as stenographer in the city manager's office for some time past has accepted a position with the O. W.

State Forester S. A. Elliott of

Salem will arrive tomorrow to visit a few days with his sister, Mrs. W. S. Parker and at the A. T. Hill home.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman has returned from a trip to Seattle in the interest of the Red Cross work. Mrs. Mossman is chairman of millinery relief work in this section of the country.

Mrs. E. E. Henderson leaves in the morning for Walla Walla to visit with friends for a few weeks. She will be accompanied as far as Pendleton by her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Grady.

Mrs. Grace Beaumont of New York City, who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. S. L. Given, for the past week, left last evening for Portland to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary O. Forrest.

Wilmer Stanchfield arrived this morning on No. 17 from Camp Green, North Carolina, and will spend a day in La Grande with friends. Mr. Stanchfield is a member of Co. E 4th Engineers, N.A.

Mrs. Tom Peach will leave in the morning for Medford, where Mr. Peach has accepted a position in one of the large grocery stores. Mr.

Peach has been with the City Grocery and Bakery for a number of years, and they have a host of friends in this city who wish them every success in their new home.

G. C. Leiter, former proprietor of the Observer, is back in La Grande visiting old friends and incidentally assisting L. J. Simpson in his race for the governorship. It is whispered among his friends that as soon as the primaries are complete, Mr. Leiter will proceed to the East to take up a very important post on one of the greatest of all America's daily papers.

Mrs. S. L. Given entertained at a Red Cross party at her home on Washington avenue last evening, having as her guest of honor her sister, Mrs. Grace Beaumont, of New York City. Mrs. Frank Jackson won the first honors and the consolation prize was given to Mrs. Edna Morrison. A delicious luncheon was served and the guests all voted the evening an enjoyable one, while $6 was added to the Thursday Bridge Club chain of Red Cross parties.

The Parkdale club members were entertained Wednesday by Mrs. E. E. Hughes and Mrs. Kate Hanley at the home of Mrs. Hughes. The work was principally on garments for Belgian children. In the silver offering the sum of five dollars was contributed which will be turned over to the Red Cross. Refreshments were served during which time the guests laid out extensive plans for future work. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Wm. Anson.

The members of Chapter I. P. O. E., called at the home of their member, Mrs. J. Garfield King last evening and gave her a little farewell surprise party. Light refreshments were served and a good time enjoyed.

Mrs. C. R. Hibberd entertained at a Red Cross party this afternoon at her home on Fourth street.

Mrs. J. J. Carr entertained the Thursday Bridge Club at her home on Fourth Street yesterday afternoon. The honors were awarded to Mrs. Vincent Palmer.

Harber Shops will close 6:30 p.m. every day except Saturdays. Will be open Saturday nights till 9 p.m. Hair Cuts 50 cents on and after May 1st.
