RED CROSS News and Notes.

TO ALL PATRIOTIC CITIZENS:

The La Grande Chapter of the Red Cross is compelled to make another appeal to the patriotic citizens of this community. The funds of the Chapter are inadequate to the demands made upon it for the purchase of material and supplies which it is supposed to furnish.

At the present time the chapter finds itself in debt about $1,000, having expended since April 16, 1917, to April 1, 1918, $24,347.38. Their indebtedness at this time in excess of their assets is $1,017.59.

In order to hold the chapter's charter and continue the good work which is now more necessary and essential than ever before in the history of the war, the chapter has found that it will have to receive a regular monthly income amounting to from one or two thousand dollars, and to this end we appeal to you to fill out the attached subscription blank for as much as you can spare monthly for this very essential work.

La Grande, Oregon.....1918

the part of the Paramount officials or Mr. Thomas H. Ince, when the picked out "His Mother's Son" for Charles Ray to follow "The Son of His Father"—it is just one of those queer happenings that occur once in a while in Hollywood, for the two productions are very unlike each other, although both are attractive, wholesome photoplays, of the typical Ray variety. The latest "His Mother's Son" will be shown in this city for the first time at the Arcade Theater on Monday.

It is desired that special attention be given to when this picture will be shown.

On account of the wrestling match that is billed for Tuesday and for which the Arcade Theater has been rented out for the occasion, this picture will be shown at the matinee and evening on Monday and on Tuesday matinee only. On the same program with the Charles Ray feature will be a new Mack Sennett comedy featuring Louise Fazenda, Ben Turpin and Slim Summerville. This comedy is called "Are Waitresses Safe?" and is said to be the best yet.

STARTS REVOLUTION WHEN GIRL IS FORCIBLY HELD BY FOE.

The most realistic revolution ever fought out on screens is one of the dramatic scenes in "Soldiers of Chance," the Greater Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature, now appearing in the Sherry Theater for today only. There are soldiers galore and a real palace about which the battle rages until the federal troops are driven off under big gun and rifle fire. This is a picture of two strong men fighting for a wealthy young woman of highest character who is led to believe her father is a murderer. As the struggle, which begins in a counting room in New York, is carried across the Atlantic in a private yacht to its conclusion in the interior of South America.

Albert E. Smith, president of Greater Vitagraph presents a cast as strong as the play, being headed by Ewart Overton and Miriam Fouché and including Charles Kent, Charles Henderson and Denton Vane.

With this is shown a Frank Daniels' comedy.

DANA STARRED IN MYRTLE REED PLAY.

"Weaver of Dreams," the Metro picturization of Myrtle Reed's novel of the same name, which will be shown at the Sherry Theater on Sunday and Monday, is exceptionally well adapted as a starring vehicle for winsome Viola Dana, who appears as Judith Sylvester.

This role is a simple and lovable country girl like "June" in Miss Dana's great success, "Blue Jeans," and the part is very similar in its appeal and human interest. "Weaver of Dreams" is a story of the heart, and Miss Dana excels in her characterization. The action takes place in a rural community filled with quaint types of humanity, where, amid simple surroundings, a drama of the human heart is played and reaches its dynamic denouement.

Admirers of the stories of Myrtle Reed will rejoice in having an opportunity to see the characters they have learned to love brought to life on the screen at Sherry's Theater. Booklovers who have read "Lavender and Old Lace" and other of the Reed novels, are legion and the characters are beloved by all readers. The House of Hearts the House of Content, the above of the beautiful old character, the musician, who gives the story its name, the carrier pigeons that have a distinct part to play in the plot, and other fascinating details which have given Myrtle Reed's novels their charm of sincerity are reproduced in this production.

ARCADE

EX-CRIMINAL CLAIMS REWARD FOR RETURN OF KIDNAPPED CHILD.

Roger Talbot Jr., kidnapped child has been restored to his parents. The man who returned him is known as "Humpty" an ex-safecracker, who is now reformed. He found the child wandering about the suburbs of New York, near his bungalow, and on reading of the reward offered immediately set out to return him. "The Hopper," in which this dramatic return of the "kidnap child" takes place, is a far-from-the-beaten-path story that sparkles with dramatic and comedy values and offers a decidedly pleasing taste to the motion picture patron. It is a Triangle production, and will be shown at the Arcade theater on Sunday night.
