LACK OF CHIVALRY.

The Kaiser and his gang need to be wiped off the face of the earth if for nothing more than their general lack of gallantry and consideration for anybody or anything that is not part of the German military.

There never was before a war among civilized people in which the commonest sense of reason and feeling have been so flagrantly violated.

What a contrast it is with the chivalrous things that have happened heretofore. When Hobson sank the old Merrimac in San Francisco and subsequently became a prisoner of the Spanish Admiral Cervera he was treated with every respect and courtesy. Another example that will last as long as there is a human heart that can respond to any feeling of humanity, is that great sentiment "Malice toward none and charity for all."

Is it possible to conceive of anything like that in the German military mind?

Not by any means. The Kaiser's motto is "might makes right, charity for none and malice toward all; murder, mutilation for the men and outrage for the women; death to the children, starvation and servitude for the subdued."

Contrast this attitude even with the scene within the British camp the past week when a German aviator was buried with military honors. Is the Kaiser and his military satellite capable of anything like that in magnanimity or chivalry? Never.

NAVY OFFICERS ARE COMING.

the Navy, and men who can qualify have splendid opportunity for rapid advancement: Machinists' mates, electricians, shipfitters, boiler-makers, coppersmiths, blacksmiths, plumbers and fitters, shipwrights, painter-tenders, officers, firemen, painters, musicians, buglers, hospital corpsmen, cooks and bakers, also masons and bricklayers for the naval aviation service.

Athletics in the navy are encouraged in every way in order to degree of efficiency in connection with the recruit to the highest physical attainment.

The food in the navy is always of the very best, the Navy having established a high standard in this regard that it always maintained.

A man in the navy service is always assured of three square meals each day, served hot, and at night a warm, comfortable place to sleep.

To men who are eligible for military service this opportunity to learn full details of the naval service should not be overlooked and every man in this vicinity is cordially invited to call at the headquarters of the traveling recruiting party immediately upon its arrival in La Grande, the first of the coming week.

H. N. STANFIELD IN LA GRANDE

field, "because I live in this part of the state and have many friends and old business associates in this section, but I did not want my friends to think I had overlooked them so have been making hurried visits to a number of the cities."

"It is highly gratifying to receive such a warm reception as has been accorded me during the past week. The cattle men in session at Ontario certainly made me feel that they were strongly behind me. Being a live stock man myself, a producer of cattle and sheep, I like to know that the men with whom I have come into contact in a business way all my life are with me politically."

Mr. Stanfield was in Baker for a short time yesterday morning and made the trip by auto to La Grande stopping at Haines, North Powder and Union. He had been advertised to be at Cove yesterday afternoon but due to an error in the message to him, Mr. Stanfield thought that the Cove meeting was last night instead of in the afternoon.

The senatorial candidate is seeing as many people as his time will permit. He stopped at the Hot Lake sanitarium yesterday afternoon and cheered up some of the sick whom he knew were stopping there and met quite a number of the other patients.

Mr. Stanfield leaves this evening for Pendleton, where he will be for several days before returning to Portland to conclude the campaign.

HUSTON TO WITHDRAW.

Stanfield has gained so much of a lead in the contest that there is no chance to defeat him.

With Mr. Huston out of it there will be left only the two candidates, Mr. Stanfield and Senator McNary. During the past two weeks, it is said by Mr. Huston's friends, Mr. Stanfield has made great strides in lining up the voters and that Mr. Huston thought it useless to continue to make a campaign. His withdrawal is taken as conceding that Mr. Stanfield has the nomination won.

Following upon the filing of Oswald West for the democratic nomination for senator the action of Mr. Huston is regarded as a victory for Mr. Stanfield. Most persons believed that West went in to the race for the democratic nomination because he felt that McNary, who has always been a political associate, had no chance to defeat Stanfield in the primaries so to make sure would attempt to get on the democratic ticket and try to defeat Stanfield at the general election and accomplish what McNary could not do at the primaries. With the West-McNary ring securing two chances to defeat Stanfield, it was quite evident, it is said that the ring did not believe it possible for McNary to get the nomination.

Now with Mr. Huston withdrawing because he sees no chances in the primaries on account of Stanfield's lead the nomination of the latter is believed by his supporters to be practically assured.

The votes which Mr. Huston would have received had he stayed in the race, it is believed will to a great extent go to Stanfield.

BIG SHEEP PURCHASE.

Gerald Stanfield Pays $28 Per Head For Band Of Ewes.

Gerald Stanfield, who with Mrs. Stanfield is a visitor in La Grande today, has purchased from the Hill, McKennon and Co. a company a band of ewes for which the price paid was $28 per head. The number of sheep in this purchase is not reported.

PERSONAL MENTION.

James Johns, a prominent real estate dealer of Pendleton, is a business visitor in La Grande today.

Floyd Maxwell, former editor of the Union Scout, is in La Grande on a business trip.

Lou Stoop is up from Elgin on business.

E. N. Strong, assistant manager of the Oregon Life Insurance Co., is a guest at the Hotel Foley.

MOOSE DANCE BIG SUCCESS.

Among the various occasions that have been given this winter from which the proceeds have gone to the main and great cause at the present time, none have shown more resplendent or gave more satisfactory results financially than the benefit dance given this week by La Grande Lodge No. 850, L.O.O.M. Nor has there been gathered together this winter a better-mannered or more sociable crowd than congregated at Zuber hall.

While the usual elaborate decorations that have been noticed heretofore at the annual Moose balls were absent on account of the determination to save every cent possible for the Union County Army and Navy Auxiliary, to whom the profits were donated, the usual spirit of sociability that is always observed at the Moose dances was surely there.

The Auxiliary ladies rallied to their part of the entertainment in a way that brought the smile to every patron's face and the nimble dime from the recesses of his pocket, and dispensed ice cream and cake, Royal Club coffee (donated by the Oregon Grocery Co.) and sandwiches and temperance drinks in a way that won them patrons for future events, with which they will be connected.

The Moose and the Auxiliary wish to thank the public for their liberal patronage, through which over $200 were added to the funds available for the war work of the Auxiliary, and especially do they wish to thank the management of Zuber Hall, which was donated for the occasion, and those who donated the cakes. They can rest assured that the lodge and the auxiliary will pass the good deeds along in a way that those who receive the benefits will appreciate them.

LECTURE WAS ENJOYED

Appreciative Audience Hears Dr. Feese, at Methodist Church.

"That Girl's Fellow" was entertainingly visualized before an appreciative audience at the Methodist church last evening by Rev. George Harrison Feese. Taking hold of the average boy's life at the age of 12, the speaker followed "him," the boy, through to that stage of life where he becomes husband and father. The speaker showed a keen insight into human nature, and, unfolding the vicissitudes, exuberances and emotions of the real American boy. Meanwhile, the speaker cunningly intertwined keen wit, in a way that punned both the boy and girl, passing through the first love.

As a lecture, the address was remarkably analytic, and was made possible in clearness and insight by the fact that the speaker had given much study to the subject and could speak with the knowledge of one who had once been a boy himself. It was frank and clear—a lecture that is different.

CARS GOING FAST

Hamilton Garage Makes Many Sales During the Week.

Out of a carload of Nash cars received at the Hamilton garage Monday, there is but one car left out of the shipment. Just as an index of how many car sales are going in this locality, it may be stated that the Hamilton garage has received five carload shipments since the first of January and every auto received, with the exception of the one now on hand, has been sold in the Hamilton garage territory.

EDITOR CURRY ON VISIT.

George Huntington Curry, editor and owner of the Malheur Enterprise, arrived from Vale this morning and will remain in La Grande a day or two. Mr. Curry is a La Grande raised boy, and is of course at home here and his friends may be interested in knowing that he is publishing one of the best edited and most neatly printed weekly papers in the interior of Oregon, or in any other part of the state.

DON'T CAMOUFLAGE LICENSE PLATE.

Motorists should be careful that the spare tire on the rear of the automobile does not hide a part or all of the number on license plate, advises the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company.

Owners of automobiles should also see that the plate is properly lighted at night. The police in many sections are rigidly enforcing the law and motorists will find that paying a fine is an expensive way to learn of such mistakes.

STARBA FOLKS HERE

Former La Grande People On Their Way to Pendleton.

J. C. Starba and his wife, Dr. Loretta Starba, passed through La Grande today on their way to Pendleton where Mr. Starba is just returning to his position as yard master at that place, after an illness of three months and a half, following an operation for ulcer of the stomach, at Portland.

Dr. Starba will resume her practice as chiropractor at Pendleton.

FOR CORONER.

The undersigned announces that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of county coroner at the primary election to be held May 17, 1918. My pledge is "I will perform the duties of the office according to law."

PLANTS FOR PORCH BOXES.

The Government has requested us to raise all the vegetable plants possible. We consider it our patriotic duty to do so. Every inch of our Greenhouse space we will at once give over to tomato plants in pots. Our stock of plants for out-door planting is much smaller this year. If you want any, come quick, as they will not last long. Positively none reserved for anyone.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblain, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

“Why Some People Fail”

the use of farm tractors on farms adapted for their use is a proposition which every farmer should give his earnest and careful consideration. There is every conceivable make and size of Tractors, and the greater part of these are undergoing the try and stage of the Tractor game, so it pays to use common sense and judgment in selecting a Tractor—don't buy a Tractor for one certain piece of work—buy one that is most adapted to all classes of work—if farm labor and horse power is taken up by the use of Tractors, you must figure on the one that will meet these demands—now don't be misled by some poor imitation of a tractor—investigate "Sonison, Kill-n, Strait, Rumly" oil pull tractors—they are the kind that stay sold.

Your Outing Pleasures Depend on Your Outfit

You don't go fishing just for the fish; if you did, all you'd need would be a willow pole, a hook and line. You go for the pleasures, the outing—and all that depends on your outfit, your pole, tackle, your basket and the clothes you wear. You want your khaki water repellent pants and coat, your hat or cap, and a good pair of high top boots.

We have your equipment right here—everything to wear on a fishing trip.

Mr. Grain Farmer:

Are you prepared to handle your grain in bulk? Do not wait until Spring and Summer when you are buried with work and worried with labor shortage, but build your granaries now.

You can buy the lumber and roofing paper for a first-class 1000 bushel portable granary for $54.58 and it will last for years. Sacks for the same amount of grain will cost you $125.00 and this would be a dead loss against this year's crop.

A granary of this size can be moved anywhere and can be filled directly from the threshing, doing away with high priced labor handling and sewing sacks.

The boys in the trenches need the sacks for sand bags for the protection of their very lives and perhaps your boy is among them.

Spend your money in your own valley by buying lumber manufactured at home. When you buy sacks part of the money goes to India.

BUILD YOUR GRANARIES NOW

Be prepared by building them before the farming season opens up. Be sure to get good lumber, well seasoned, as low grade lumber will give you trouble in a few seasons. Don't use green lumber.

Save money—keep what you spend at home—prevent loss and damage from exposure to weather—leave the sacks for our boys in the trenches; help win the war by building granaries now.

Portable granaries of this type are universally used in other sections. One trip with a good team will haul the material for one granary. For particulars as well as prices on Union County lumber for all farm purposes, see

RUNNIN' RISKS!

Despite the prevalence of robbery, a few continue to keep money about their homes. In thus doing they are not only risking the loss of the money, but also their lives.

How much safer and better it would be if these people would bring their money to this bank.

You're not running this risk—are you?

Never despise a small beginning.
