"HE HAS NOT TRIMMED."
(The Oregon Statesman.) Governor Withycombe will receive a vote of confidence in May and in November. He will receive it, because it is recognized by all unprejudiced people that he deserves it. He has faithfully performed the duties of his high office during the portion of his first term that he has served. He has sidestepped no issue. He has frankly and openly taken up every problem as presented, and decided every question according to his honest judgment. He has not trimmed. He has not played politics for mere partisan or personal gain.

It is the rule in Oregon that one good term deserves another. The people generally believe in this rule. It is a fair and just rule. So the vote of confidence will be given, as it should be.

MARINE ENLISTMENTS RECEIVED.

HOME FOLKS WITH HIM.

(The Marshfield Star.) Today's mail brought us an agreeable surprise, the announcement that L. J. Simpson would enter the race for the Republican nomination for Governor. We were rather inclined to judge Mr. Simpson from his past performances, in which he beat off all demands for his entering the political arena, but in this case has yielded to entreaties of admiring friends, who will get behind his candidacy for all they are worth. They, too, are pleased that they have the opportunity. Besides being a fluent speaker, L. J. is a good mixer. He carries the unanimous endorsement of the "home folks" with him.

Don't Let It Linger.

A cough that follows in grippe or any other cough that "hangs on" from winter to spring wears down the sufferer, leaving him or her in a weakened state unable to war off sickness and disease. Joe Gillard, 148 Fillmore St., Nashville, Tenn., writes: "I was suffering with a dry hacking cough and a pain in my chest, but since taking Foley's Honey and Tar I have been relieved." It soothes, heals and cures coughs, colds and croup. Good for whooping cough. Sold everywhere. —Adv.
