CHOOSE DARK SILK FOR DEPENDENCE

What is better for street wear or for semi-formal occasions than the becoming gown of dark silk? Here is an attractive model developed in black charmeuse with a rather close fitting corsage of black georgette crepe beaded in steel beads. One of its chief charms is the simple draping at the back. The slender sash of crepe, beaded and tasseled in steel renders this an unusually effective frock.

By these tests Captain Neilligan was able to determine the athletic caliber of the men under his direction.

forts and most of life's necessities, to be ministered to in this fashion. It is perhaps, understandable to them that "less Americans" out of sheer pity might offer them that meager thing that civilization calls "charity." But to be clothed, fed, sheltered and cheered as they have been by our Red Cross is more than they can understand. For they have seen a great miracle grow out of the darkest pit of human experience. They have seen a bright light out of which has stepped the ministering angel who has taught them to smile again. They are no longer sick. They are no longer cold nor hungry, and now, wonder of wonders, this same good friend has contrived in some magic way—within the sound of the guns—to give them—baths.

FORD CAR BRINGS A SHOWER BATH EVERY AFTERNOON Babies Grow Whiter as Doctor and Nurse Serve Daily Baths From Door to Door. "Good morning, We have come to give the children their bath," this, of course, said in good French. Then from off the motor car slides a portable shower bath, carried into the house by doctor and nurse. For the next half hour that little cottage boasts of a bathroom in active service, for when the water is heated the blessing of a warm, clean shower pumped by the doctor falls on the head of Young France, while the nurse scrubs religiously and the darkening water bears witness of a whiter, cleaner child. And as you might well imagine, the kiddies like it, except the last cold dash that the doctor slyly engineers by quickly transferring the supply pipe into a bucket of cold water—for hygienic effect. And what a blessing it is to these meek, tortured people, who for months have been without all of life's comforts and most of life's necessities, to be ministered to in this fashion. It is perhaps, understandable to them that "less Americans" out of sheer pity might offer them that meager thing that civilization calls "charity." But to be clothed, fed, sheltered and cheered as they have been by our Red Cross is more than they can understand. For they have seen a great miracle grow out of the darkest pit of human experience. They have seen a bright light out of which has stepped the ministering angel who has taught them to smile again. They are no longer sick. They are no longer cold nor hungry, and now, wonder of wonders, this same good friend has contrived in some magic way—within the sound of the guns—to give them—baths.

The Film in Wartime

By THOMAS H. INCE, Producer of Paramount and Arcraft Pictures. The world cataclysm is so unprecedented that it is impossible to forecast its effect on the mind of man. Nothing that has hitherto happened can assist in making a forecast as to its influence on Art of Literature, and it is especially difficult to determine its effect on so recent a form of expression as the motion picture. We, producers, are without precedents to guide us and can only follow the vaguest clues. The motion picture is in great demand in all belligerent countries, and is shown in all camps to audiences of soldiers, men gathered from all parts of the world, speaking diverse tongues and reared in different traditions. It would be immensely valuable to learn what pictures speak with a language understood by all nationalities. This would be a guide to the producers when, at the end of the war, the world's markets are opened again. There is, I believe, a consensus of opinion that the fighting men prefer photoplays dealing with simple sentimental things. They do not want tragedy, sex problem stories, presidential oratorical in disguise, pretentious rather clean, wholesome stories tinged with sentiment. There is also a demand for comedy pictures, and necessarily those of the slapstick order, but which furnish quaint touches of humor and genial characteristics. In all countries near the scene of war there is a demand for plays that relieve the strain of surrounding horror. What the result will be when the final curtain has fallen on the tragedy, it is impossible to forecast. That the war will leave a deep im-

Wirthmor Summer UNITED STATES CREAM SEPARATOR "Is Always on the Job" It's at the two extremes in weather when a cheap or old style separator gets on your "nerves." Below zero or above ninety will spoil the health of any Cream Separator except the U.S. Fortified Against Extremes of Temperature. WHEN IT IS WINTER When it's a U. S. you don't have to heat a kettle of hot water to start the skimming. It works cold. When the oil in other separators has clogged or frozen up, the U. S. with no links, bends, or goose necks, in its oil tube, is running smoothly and silently, perfectly lubricated. When every liquid is freezing solid, you don't have to worry about the U. S. bowl being damaged by neglect. It empties itself automatically—always. When the gas engine "dies" if you are using power, the U. S. has a hand crank on the other side, and you can "go to it!" Every Season is "Open Season" for the U. S. Do you wonder now that I will never rest easy until all my dairy friends have the U. S. I am selling satisfaction and will not try to build up business on any other basis. Send for Complete Catalogue. LA GRANDE IMPLEMENT CO. Special Price for 30 days.
