MANY ATTEND LUNCHEON

called upon there was plenty of oratory on tap. Mr. F. I. Meyers reported that the stamp sales exceed $83,000, an increase of nearly $7,000 in the past week. Superintendent A. C. Hampton gave a report covering the activities of the Junior Red Cross. Dr. Hall, president of the La Grande Chapter of the Red Cross, gave some interesting reports on the condition of the organization which had been gathered on an official visit to Seattle. Among the honor roll of chapters for the northwest district the La Grande chapter stands well at the top.

Mr. Farrell, of the Lostine branch, said that his locality was ready to meet its share of the drive. Judge Kelley, of Albany, spoke in very complimentary terms of the evidences of patriotism he had met in La Grande, and by a similar vein Dudley Evans, of Portland, said that there was a similar spirit of patriotism all over the state but when a person met with such people as were present today it was the same as a renewed inspiration. Mr. Evans demonstrated his faith by his work and handed over a check for $5 a his contribution to the La Grande Chapter's quota.

Roll Call and Responses. The speech making was preceded by a roll call which brought out some clever responses; one of which was by Mrs. Kiddle who announced herself as the "wife of the red haired chairman" whereupon Mr. Kiddle announced that Larry Larson, who was at the head of an adjoining table was the "chairman." Mrs. Kiddle immediately came back "I meant the red headed gentleman who doesn't have much hair."

The next luncheon will be on Monday, and Capt. Richmond Pearson-Robson, hero of the Marimac, will be the guest of honor. Judge J. W. Knowles will preside.

KEEPS ON GOING

Another Big Feature Added to the Pi-U-Pi-Ann Show.

In addition to the several acts previously mentioned, the management of the Pi-U-Pi-Ann Show has been successful in securing another act depicting in the far West. This has been done after tireless and ceaseless effort and at great expenditure. This act is declared by experts to be bigger and better than the famous, "Ten Nights in a Barroom."

Don't forget the features previously mentioned. These are:

The Parisian Beauties, "Les Soeurs des Polius," a group of fourteen young maidens who will entertain with a delightful act of singing and dancing.

Inkoost-kaua, the noted Zulu-land Medicine-man, who will give an exhibition of magic and insight into the realm of spirit-land, that never has been and probably never will be duplicated in La Grande.

H. E. Draws-em-quick, the lightning cartoonist, with a delightful humorous, instructive and up-to-date chalk talk.

The big military act by a crack squad from the High School Cadet Corps, under the personal supervision of J. E. Fulkerson. These men are being put thru the "paces" daily and this act promises to be a good representation of what the Cadet Corps is accomplishing in the art of warfare.

"Fat and Jazz," the funny duo in a short skit of rapid fire comedy.

Music for this occasion will be furnished by Jazz de Souse's Arniea Band. This is an organization with a reputation.

This production will be staged in the High School Auditorium, Thursday evening, May 16th.
