Dr. George O'Connor was over from Union yesterday and renewed his oldtime acquaintance with La Grande people. The Doctor talked a little politics, a slight fragment of religion and incidentally boosted the Union stock show.

"Old King Cole, the jolly old soul" who sells the Rumley products, has just returned from Wallowa county where he has made an extensive trip over the farming section. He says that county never had such a good prospect for an excellent crop.

FARM LIGHTING PLANTS.

Demonstrations Of Interest To All Progressive Ranchers.

Mr. H. A. Conger is demonstrating the Delco Light farm lighting plant at the Goodyear service station. Every progressive rancher who is interested in modern improvements should avail himself of this opportunity to see this wonderful little plant.

By simply pressing a button a rancher can now have electric lights anywhere on his place. The women can do their ironing, washing, separate the milk, and do churning all by electricity.

Mr. Conger states that there are about 80,000 now in use and over 500 are in use in Oregon. One of its greatest advantages is its safety and elimination of fire hazards.

MURPHY DEMANDS BURNS RESIGNATION

State Penitentiary Warden Kicks Up Trouble At Salem.

(United Press to Observer.) SALEM, May 20.—Warden Murphy, of the state penitentiary, today declared he would resign unless Deputy Burns was forced out of the service. Burns in return said he would not resign. The trouble arose over Burns refusing to remove armed guards from the prison lining room. Burns declared he would make a statement showing the condition of the penitentiary. He says the guards are afraid of the prisoners and that they are afraid to stand guard within the yard alone. The convicts are said to be acting very ugly. The escape of Baldwin has caused a chaotic condition. Up to this time Baldwin has baffled his pursuers.

RACES WERE ENJOYED

Regardless Of Unfavorable Weather Many Riders Participated.

Saturday afternoon the weather was not very good for racing as a slight rain made the pavements wet, but the races came off in good shape just the same.

In the half mile for boys under 14 1/2 years of age, Daniel Siever was first and Everett Kirtley, second.

In the mile race for boys of the same age, Waldo Stoddard was first and Shoalwater Lynch, second.

The half mile for older boys was won by Kenneth Keeney first; William Welling, second.

The most exciting race of all and the one with the greatest number of starters was the two-mile race, free for all. Ted Heidenreich won first place; Shoalwater Lynch, second; and Hard Ball, third.

In spite of the rain a large crowd was out to see the fun. It was a most orderly bunch and no one had a grouch of any kind.

INTERN MORE AMERICANS

HINES TO ASSIST McADOO.

(United Press to Observer.) WASHINGTON, May 20.—Walker Hines, chief counsel on Director-General McAdoo's staff, has been appointed assistant director general to become effective immediately.

Your Clothes Reflect Your Business Judgment

First impressions are sometimes decisive. The business eye takes you in at a glance—a brain cell stores away everything from your hat to your shoes. The correct, careful dresser shows he has exercised critical judgment in apparel selection. He pleases—impresses. His clothes give "entree" into the other man's confidence.

And that is why so many modern, progressive business men in this city select—

CAPPS CLOTHES
100 PER CENT PURE WOOL.

Our Spring styles for conservative dressers are fashioned along pleasing, attention-compelling lines. The patterns are latest from the marts of style.

For the young men, Capps clothes fairly breathe the clothes art of London—modish, mannish, measured to form. Exceptionally moderate prices for exceptional value.

Come in today and see our Capdisplay. Prices $20 to $30.
