

RED CROSS DRUG STORE

The Kodak Store

Social and Personal

Philip Porter is over from his home in Weston.

J. D. Maxwell is in the city from his home in Elgin.

George Haynes is spending a few days in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook are spending a few days in Portland.

R. E. Howard of Baker is a business visitor in the city today.

Mrs. C. J. Wood of Enterprise, is a visitor in La Grande today.

Bert L. Jones and O. M. Burrows came in from Joseph last evening.

Miss Kate Zweifel, of Summerville, is spending a few days in La Grande.

Mrs. Fred G. Schilke was called to Portland last evening on business.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe entertained at a Red Cross party at her home this afternoon.

Fred J. Holmes, of the M. & M. Co. has returned from a business trip to Portland.

George J. Buri, auditor of the Union Pacific System, is spending a few days in La Grande.

Miss Cassie Kelly, of Pendleton, is spending a few days in La Grande visiting with friends.

T. E. Hudson, of Enterprise, and J. M. Burdett of Joseph is spending a few days in Pendleton.

H. I. Stanfield, a large sheep owner from Stanfield, is looking after business interests here.

G. S. Levy, of the Levy-Vogel Drug Company, was a business visitor in Baker yesterday.

J. H. Minnaugh, a prominent lumber man of Wallawa county, is a business visitor in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wagner, J. R. Wagner and Miss Helena Kay are Enterprise visitors in the city.

Geo. B. Carmichael a prominent rancher of Umatilla County, is in La Grande from his home in Weston.

Mrs. C. R. Tibbets of North Powder, who has been in La Grande, returned to her home this morning.

H. E. Coolidge has returned from a ten days' trip in Malheur County, where he has been looking after his sheep.

Mrs. Fred Braden left this morning for Portland, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

The Misses Reed came up from Elgin last evening and left this morning for Portland, where they will remain for a short time.

Mrs. Mary Jhenky, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lony, returned to her home in Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Hall and baby are spending a few days in La Grande. Mr. Hall is Superintendent of Schools at North Powder.

Little Miss Mildred Fulp of Cove accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Blaine Geer to her home in Walla Walla, and will visit there for a short time.

Mrs. M. E. Swauger and daughter, Miss Hazel, who have been visiting friends in La Grande for the past few days, returned to their home in Kamela this morning.

Mrs. Blaine Geer and daughter, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Geer's mother, Mrs. B. F. Bell, at Cove, returned to their home in Walla Walla this morning.

Mrs. W. F. Dunlap and baby son, of Colfax, Washington, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lony, left this morning for Portland to visit with relatives for a while. Mr. Dunlap has recently enlisted as electrician in the Navy and is now located at Bremerton.

Cassius H. Wood, formerly a resident of La Grande, but more recently living in Port Townsend, Washington, will arrive in the city tomorrow morning and spend the day with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Simkins, and will also visit with his former friends here. Mr. Wood is on his way to Franc as a Y. M. C. A. worker and his many friends in this city will be pleased to have this opportunity of wishing him God speed on his journey.

Miss E. Morgan is down from her home in Kamela.

Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew returned from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. Dave Osborn was an imbler visitor in the city yesterday.

Miss Theodosia Shinn of Joseph is visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. G. T. Fleming.

Mrs. Anna Wardell and babies left this morning for Nampa to visit for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. J. K. Lantz was over from Cove yesterday to attend the meeting of the Neighborhood Club.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson left last evening for Portland where she will attend the Gail-Curel concert.

Miss Wilma Oesterling and Miss Mary Newlin left last evening for Portland to attend the Gail-Curel concert.

Mrs. Frank McKennon was up from Alicel yesterday and attended the meeting at the Neighborhood club rooms.

Miss Margaret Grow left this morning for Telocast to visit with her sister, Mrs. I. A. Hallmark for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Halpapp have returned from a trip to Portland. Mr. Halpapp is division accountant of the O. W. offices.

Miss Margaurite Carney went to Portland yesterday to attend the Gail-Curel concert and visit with friends for a short time.

E. E. Kiddle, General Manager of the Red Cross Drive, left last evening for Portland to attend the War Conference that is now in session.

T. J. Scroggin, Chairman of the Council of State Defense, left last evening for Portland to attend the War Conference now in session.

Miss Marjorie Silverthorne left yesterday for Portland where she will attend the Gail-Curel concert and the commencement week program at Reed College.

Dr. C. J. Smith, a former well known physician of Pendleton, but for the past few years located in Portland, passed through La Grande this morning en route east.

E. E. Romig, formerly a resident of La Grande, who has been in the city for the past few days, visiting with relatives and friends left this morning for a short business trip to Baker before returning to his home in Portland.

Like an unexpected message from a long lost friend, comes word to L. C. Smith that a carload of Dodges is rolling La Grandeward. The shipment will come early in June. Any dealer who gets cars in this day and age, is fortunate and Mr. Smith is highly elated over the news that he is to get some Dodges.

Mrs. J. K. Wright and daughter Miss Ethel, entertained at dinner last evening, having as their guests, Miss Ava Milam, Dean of Women of the O. A. C., Miss Anna Turley, State Leader of Home Demonstration, Mrs. J. D. McCombs, assistant State leader of Home Demonstration and Miss May Murphy, Economy Home Demonstrator of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wagner, J. R. Wagner and Miss Helena Kay are Enterprise visitors in the city.

Geo. B. Carmichael a prominent rancher of Umatilla County, is in La Grande from his home in Weston.

Mrs. C. R. Tibbets of North Powder, who has been in La Grande, returned to her home this morning.

H. E. Coolidge has returned from a ten days' trip in Malheur County, where he has been looking after his sheep.

Mrs. Fred Braden left this morning for Portland, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a couple of weeks.

The Misses Reed came up from Elgin last evening and left this morning for Portland, where they will remain for a short time.

Mrs. Mary Jhenky, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lony, returned to her home in Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene W. Hall and baby are spending a few days in La Grande. Mr. Hall is Superintendent of Schools at North Powder.

Little Miss Mildred Fulp of Cove accompanied her aunt, Mrs. Blaine Geer to her home in Walla Walla, and will visit there for a short time.

Mrs. M. E. Swauger and daughter, Miss Hazel, who have been visiting friends in La Grande for the past few days, returned to their home in Kamela this morning.

Mrs. Blaine Geer and daughter, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Geer's mother, Mrs. B. F. Bell, at Cove, returned to their home in Walla Walla this morning.

Mrs. W. F. Dunlap and baby son, of Colfax, Washington, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lony, left this morning for Portland to visit with relatives for a while. Mr. Dunlap has recently enlisted as electrician in the Navy and is now located at Bremerton.

Cassius H. Wood, formerly a resident of La Grande, but more recently living in Port Townsend, Washington, will arrive in the city tomorrow morning and spend the day with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Simkins, and will also visit with his former friends here. Mr. Wood is on his way to Franc as a Y. M. C. A. worker and his many friends in this city will be pleased to have this opportunity of wishing him God speed on his journey.

"YOUR MONEY OR YOUR LIFE" SAYS HUN, THE HOLDUP MAN

SOW THE SEEDS OF VICTORY! EVERY GARDEN A MUNITION PLANT

"Your money or your life," is what the hold-up man says when he sticks a gun in your face. That is what the Hun will do to the civilized world unless America feeds the world. Plant a garden and help to feed yourself, says the National War Garden Commission of Washington. Send a two-cent stamp for a free garden book and become a Soldier of the Soil, as James Montgomery Flagg so well pictures.

Mrs. J. E. Anderson and children leave this evening for Portland and Seaside to be absent for some time.

Mrs. E. Guthridge received a telegram from her son Wes, who is in the U. S. Engineers, that he has been transferred to Mare Island.

Miss La Verne Delashmuth, who has been teaching in the Conley district, leaves this evening for Portland to spend a few weeks with friends.

Don Meyers and Mrs. Leiter of the Arcade Theatre, drove to Baker yesterday on business. They were accompanied by Miss Douglas and Frank Appling.

Have you tried "Over the Top" at Silverthorn's Fountain. Try one and you will become a regular customer. Something entirely new in the sundae line.

Mrs. Roy Frazier of Boise, and Mrs. Albert Byers of Nampa are spending a short time in La Grande. Mrs. Byers was formerly Miss Nora Gray, and is a graduate of the Grande Ronde Hospital.

Mrs. Bert R. Russell leaves tomorrow for Vancouver, Washington, to join her husband who is in the ship yards at that place. Mr. Russell is also playing in the Vancouver band, an organization composed of thirty-five pieces.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Bohnekamp Chapel for Richard Isbell. Rev. Smith of the M. E. Church South presided.

The remains will be shipped this evening to Tarwick, Texas, the former home of Mr. Isbell.

MOTORCYCLISTS WILL HAVE PICNIC Last Week's Postponed Event Will Be Held Sunday.

With the return of good weather the motorcyclists are again looking forward to their picnic next Sunday. Bad weather compelled the postponement of the date set for last Sunday. All the motorcyclists planning to attend must turn their names to one of the motor cycle shops.

SUMMONS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.

La Grande National Bank of La Grande, Oregon, a banking corporation, plaintiff, vs. Turner Oliver and J. R. Oliver, defendants.

To Turner Oliver, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action and court, on or before June 20, 1918, and you are further notified that if you fail so to answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take the judgment of the court against you for the sum of three thousand dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum from and after April 15th, 1917 (less the sum of $60 paid October 27th, $60 paid November 3, and $20 paid December 15, all in 1917, and the further sum of $20 paid

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY. Last showing today of "HESPER OF THE MOUNTAINS," With LILLIAN WALKER and big BILL HART in "Dakota Dan"

Two reel Masterpiece. TOMORROW, Goldwyn presents MADGE KENNEDY in the Comedy Riot "NEARLY MARRIED."

WAR IS ON Between the P. M. Co. and Tubercular disease. With up-to-date machinery we are able to cope with this and all other disease.

Every bottle of milk that leaves our plant is guaranteed to be absolutely pure, then why feed your children raw milk that may come from an infected cow when you can get milk that is pasteurized, cool and bottled in a sanitary way and absolutely free from disease germs of any kind. Yours for Pure Milk,

Pure Milk & Cream Company

Ladies: Select Your Future Needs in SUMMER UNDERWEAR

Today at Last Years Prices

Select your future needs in Summer Underwear today at last year's prices. Vests, Drawers, Combination Suits, with lace and tight knee, high or low neck, ankle and knee length, beautiful mercerized lisle garments, from the famous Corwith Mills.

Priced from 18c to $1.25.

LAST CALL

We appeal to your good reason today to buy NOW. Prices on Ladies' Suits and Coats will be out of reason in another season. Supply your wants now, and be assured of an all-wool suit or coat at prices that are right.

We are Agents for McCalls Patterns. T^H GOLDEN RULE Co. Quality the same-Prices less. One of the 600 R. C. U. Stores with an Annual Purchasing Power of Over 60 Million Dollars. We close Saturday evening at 9 o'clock.

LA GRANDE STORE

Jan. 7th, 1918)—together with the sum of $300 as attorney fees and the costs and disbursements of this action, and will take the order of the court for the sale of your real property attached in this action and situated in Union county, Oregon, to pay such judgment. This summons is published by order of Hon. J. W. Knowles, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on May 7th, 1918, fixing six consecutive weeks for such publication and in the La Grande Evening Observer, published at La Grande, Oregon.

C. H. FINN, Attorney for Plaintiff, Residence and Post Office address, La Grande, Oregon. First publication, May 8, 1918.

OIL BURNERS Your wood is gone, the summer is here, that oil burner that you have longed for is ready to install in your Range—FREE TRAIL and guarantee cover your dollars.

Furniture Exchange Best Prices Paid for Used Furniture

DO YOUR WINTER SHOPPING EARLY

Your Know You Will Have to BUY FUEL

Sooner or Later KING COAL

The J. D. Lynch Co.

Feed Fuel Transfer Storage

BESSIE M'COY DAVIS WEARS TRENCH HAT ON FIFTH AVENUE

The trench hat, latest war style, made its first appearance on Fifth Avenue on the fair head of Mrs. Bessie M'Cooy Davis who returned to the stage after death of her husband, Richard Harding Davis.