SHIP YARD WORKERS HOME... A VISIT - WALLOWA COUPLE MARRIED - NEW RESIDENCE IS FINISHED - EDEN SCHOOL DISTRICT RAISES FUND.

WALLOWA, June 4.—(Special).—John Wray, who was seriously hurt by being thrown from a horse while at the logging camp of the East Oregon Lumber Co., has been brought home from Joseph, where he has been in the hospital for several days. He is recovering nicely, considering the nature of his injuries.

Miss Mabel Bell and Guy Oliver were married May 28, 1918, by Justice R. McCrae, at the Hotel Northorn. Miss Bell has been teaching school the past year on Smith Mountain and is one of Wallowa's popular young ladies, while Mr. Oliver is a prosperous young farmer of Lower Valley.

George Coleman, of Powwotka, was a business caller last week. J. C. Baird's new house, east of the mill, is rapidly being constructed. When finished it will be one of the best residences in town.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamstreet, Friday, May 24, 1918, daughter.

The Peterson house in the west end of town, owned by John McDonald, was destroyed by fire Sunday night about 12 o'clock. No one was living in the house and the cause of the fire is a mystery.

Edna Renfrow, of Troy, who has been attending high school for the past year, left for her home Wednesday.

E. A. Hart, of Enterprise, came up the first of the week on important business.

Arch Lander of Imnaha has presented a petition in the county court, asking for improvements for the Grouse Creek road. This is an important road and about $400 has been subscribed by the people and by Joseph business men.

J. A. Wetzel was a visitor in Portland last week. He returned on Sunday.

Mr. F. H. Gaulke left last week for a month's trip in the East. While away, he will visit Chicago, Minneapolis and several other cities.

Whooping Cough.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. P. H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes, "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it worked like a charm."

Try "Over the Top," the Sundae served by Mr. Cain at Silverthorn's Fountain is sure a winner.

SPRING CROWNS ARE TOWERING TALL

The up-standing feature of the spring hat crop is the towering tall crown. Every type of hat except the draped turban shows the aspiring top. The particular example sketched above shows a crown of tan caterpillar braid, and attached almost as an afterthought, a military brim of tan taffeta, and two aviating quills.

Has a Good Opinion of Chamberlain's Tablets.

"Chamberlain's Tablets are a wonder. I never sold anything that beat them," writes F. B. Tressey, Richmond, Ky. When troubled with indigestion of constipation give them a trial.

"Who Will Win This Battle?"

Your kidneys are the filters of the body. If they become inactive and fail to eliminate the waste matter, they are apt to throw the whole mechanism of the body out of order, thus toxic poisons can accumulate in the system and be as deadly as snake venom.

Besides causing the minor ailments of rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago and backache, neglect of the kidneys is apt to develop into more serious diseases, such as diabetes or stone in the bladder.

Rid the body of toxic poisons—clean the bladder and kidneys and cure the twinges of rheumatism with Anuric and you win the battle of life.

Anuric was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and has benefited thousands of sufferers as well as appeared and eliminated the ravages of the more serious kidney diseases. Now procurable at any good drug store, or send direct to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

Mrs. B. G. COKER says: "When I commenced the treatment of Anuric I was in bad shape. My back ached all the time and oh! how my back would ache at night until I would have to get up. I could never sleep all night. But since I have taken the Anuric Tablets my backache is all gone and I can lie down and sleep good and sound all night. Oh! how much better I do feel—no one knows but myself. My advice to all sufferers of kidney troubles is to give Anuric a trial and they will find relief from their trouble."
