

Discriminating Drug Buyers
Have a Happy Habit of Coming Back to Our Store.

We have always catered to careful drug buyers—customers who bring all of their judgment to bear in every purchase. Such buyers come regularly to our store because they have learned that they can count on us for pure drugs, prompt service and right prices.

The extent and quality of our trade and the obvious confidence reposed in us by the public is pretty convincing evidence that we conduct our drug business in a satisfactory manner.

Let us be your Family Druggists.

OVER THE TOP

When I came to everything was silence and darkness in No Man's Land. I was soaked with blood and a big flap from the wound in my cheek was hanging over my mouth. The blood running from this flap choked me. Out of the corner of my mouth I would try and blow it back, but it would not move. I reached for my shell dressing and tried with one hand, to bandage my face to prevent the flow. I had an awful horror of bleeding to death and was getting very faint. You would have laughed if you had seen my ludicrous attempts at bandaging with one hand. The pains in my wounded shoulder were awful and I was getting sick at the stomach. I gave up the bandaging stunt as a bad job, and then fainted.

When I came to, hell was let loose. An intense bombardment was on, and on the whole my position was decidedly unpleasant. Then, suddenly, our barrage ceased. The silence almost hurt, but not for long, because Fritz turned loose with shrapnel, machine guns, and rifle fire. Then all along our line came a cheer and our boys came over the top in a charge. The first wave was composed of "Jocks." They were a magnificent sight, lithe, flapping in the wind, bare knees showing, and their bayonets glistening. In the first wave that passed my shell hole, one of the "Jocks," an immense fellow, about six feet two inches in height jumped right over me. On the right and left of me several soldiers in colored kilts were huddled on the ground, then over came the second wave, also "Jocks." One young Scottie, when he came abreast of my shell hole, leaped into the air, his rifle shooting out of his hands, landing about six feet in front of him, bayonet first, and stuck in the ground, the butt trembling. This impressed me greatly.

Right now I can see the butt of that gun trembling. The Scottie made a complete turn in the air, hit the ground, rolling over twice, each time clawing at the earth, and then remained still, about four feet from me, in a sort of sitting position. I called to him, "Are you hurt badly, Jock?" but no answer. He was dead. A dark red smudge was coming through his tunic right under the heart. The blood ran down his bare knees, making a horrible sight. On his right side he carried his water bottle. I was crazy for a drink and tried to reach this, but for the life of me could not negotiate that four feet. Then I became unconscious. When I woke up I was in an advanced first-aid post. I asked the doctor if we had taken the trench. "We took the trench and the wood beyond, all right," he said, "and you fellows did your bit; but, my lad, that was thirty-six hours ago. You were lying in No Man's Land in that hully hole for a day and a half. It's a wonder you are alive." He also told me that out of the twenty that were in the raiding party, seventeen were killed. The officer died of wounds in crawling back to our trench and I was severely wounded, but one fellow returned without a scratch, without any prisoners. No doubt this chap was the one who had sneezed and improperly cut the barbed wire.

In the official communique our trench raid was described as follows: "All quiet on the western front, excepting in the neighborhood of Gommecourt wood, where one of our raiding parties penetrated into the German lines."

It is needless to say that we had no use for our prisoners or come-alongs, as we brought back no prisoners, and until I die Old Pepper's words, "Personally I don't believe that that part of the German trench is occupied" will always come to me when I hear some fellow trying to get away with a fishy statement. I will judge it accordingly.

ENTERPRISE MAN DIED OF HEART FAILURE—MISS HARMON
LEAVES FOR BUSINESS
COLLEGE—MR. AND MRS. HINTERMAN ON VISIT TO CHICAGO

ENTERPRISE, June 4.—(Special).—Francis McKenzie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon McKinzie, of Lostine, and Asa P. Craig, a prosperous farmer of Enterprise, were united in marriage Saturday evening, June 1, at the home of the bride's parents. Both are among the very popular young people of Wallowa county.

Francis Charles Tierney, aged 58, died suddenly of heart failure May 30. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. The children are: Mrs. A. C. Stevens, of Woodland, Cal.; Mrs. A. J. Dillon, of Oakland, Cal.; Dennis W. Tierney of Enterprise, and Lieut. Charles Francis Jr., who is in France.

The girls honor guard gave a farewell banquet to the thirty-eight young men who left for the service last week. A large attendance gave them a good bye at the train.

Miss Snow W. Heaton has returned and has resumed her duties on the Record-Chiefstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hinterman have gone on their annual visit to their old home in Chicago.

Mrs. Mary Runkle and Mrs. E. W. Jeffers and daughter Dorris, of Grand Rapids, Wis., arrived Friday and for the present are visiting on the Imnaha.

W. F. Craig has gone to Portland to buy supplies for his modern new dairy barn.

Mrs. Fred L. Colvig and children left Tuesday for Medford to visit her father, E. M. Wall, who was recently injured in a fall.

Mrs. Sam Baker has returned from a visit at Durkee and was accompanied home by Alpha Green, who will be a guest at the Baker home on Elk Mountain.

Miss Catherine Harmon left Monday for Los Angeles to attend business college.

Mrs. J. C. Gunnerman and children arrive Thursday to make their home in Enterprise.

Sour Stomach

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of a food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.
