THE UNDERSIGNED MERCHANTS

have agreed to uphold the principles and agreements of the Retail Clerk's Protective Association, Local 417. We have asked for shorter working hours, to enable the clerks to get more time at home to work in their gardens and get a little recreation before and after working hours, so we appeal to all organized labor and the people of La Grande to trade with those carrying Union Store Cards in their windows.

The following stores have agreed to open their places of business at 8 a.m. every day in the week and close at 6 p.m. every day except Saturday, when they will close at 8:30 p.m.
