LIVED UP TO NAME.

John D. Marine Spurns All Branches But The Marines.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 2.—Marine is a Marine! That sounds foolish, doesn't it, but it's true in this case more than any other. Most Marines live up to their title, but this one has a big start on the rest of the Marines.

For his name is John D. Marine! He is from Philadelphia and declared when applying for enlistment with Captain S. A. W. Patterson here that he couldn't think of enlisting in any other branch of the service than the Marines.

"I must live up to my name, you know," he said.

WILL FIGHT MUSTARD.

Umatilla County Farmers Unite In Organized Effort.

PENDLETON, July 2.—Weed control, rodent control and herd improvement were the matters discussed at a meeting in Pilot Rock Saturday by County Agent M. S. Shrock and H. G. Casteel, A. J. Gill and T. P. Gilliland, members of the Pilot Rock Committee.

A. J. Gill was appointed to organize Umatilla county people to fight Jim Hill mustard next year. Several pictures showing the extent of this weed were on display and the committee decided that every means should be taken to prevent its spread. Both sheep and grain owners will be asked to help.

Plans for poisoning ground squirrels will be under the supervision of T. P. Gilliland, who hopes to sell poisoned grain for this purpose to farmers at cost. According to Mr. Shrock a government specialist will be employed to prepare the barley which will then be distributed to crop owners.

Herd improvement will be taken up with the cattle men of the district, and some cattle men will be placed in charge.

SUNDAY WORK ON FARMS

Eastern Churches Sanction Things Necessary to Defeat Kaiser.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 2.—It is quite right and proper to do farm work on Sunday if that Sunday work is necessary to produce food crops to help whip Germany. That is the attitude of the rural churches of Indiana, expressed recently in conference at Purdue University. The reason given for this position was the conviction of Indiana rural ministers that Germany is the worst enemy of civilization, and of every church of civilization—of all religion everywhere, that is worthy the name of religion; that the victory of the barbarous Hun would be literally the victory of the devil and the triumph of that pagan monstrosity created by the Kaiser's savage and sacrilegious mind and called by him "the good old German gott," in short, that every church in civilization is fighting for its existence just as every other component of civilization is fighting for its existence and that if Sunday work in saving crops will help overthrow this bestial menace it becomes—veritably a churchly work to do.

The many friends of Mrs. Brooks wife of Engineer F. P. Brooks, of Telocast, will be pleased to know that she is slowly improving after two months' treatment under a well known specialist of Portland. Mrs. Brooks hopes to be able to return home soon.

J. O. Kuhn, Mrs. C. H. Barnell and Mrs. C. H. Chick, who accompanied the remains of their deceased father, Peter Kuhn, from Portland, returned to their home this morning. Mrs. Chick was formerly known as Miss Syra Kuhn and she was for a number of years a proficient teacher in the La Grande public schools.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE WAR

Another phase of the German offensive was opened Sunday morning in an attack between Montdidier and Noyon, over a front of about 20 miles, preceded by a heavy bombardment with shells and noxious gases. The enemy's initial maneuver evidently has in view the bending back of the allied front toward the town of St. Just on the northern wing and toward the railroad junction of Compiègne on the southern flank, getting astride the Oise river and driving southwest toward the French capital.

The French troops appear to be putting up a splendid resistance to this new offensive, especially on the two flanks of the attacking front where the heaviest fighting continues. The Germans have made some progress in the center, where they claim the capture of the heights of Gury, while the French admit the loss of the villages of Reconn-sur-Matz and Mareuil.

The marines and other American units blocked the Germans northwest of Chateau-Thierry by driving forward themselves. The Americans also completely stopped three successive enemy counter-attacks.

As the result of the two attacks by the Americans against the enemy northwest of Chateau-Thierry 300 prisoners were captured and the Americans extended their line over a front of about six miles to a depth of nearly two and a half miles. While the losses of the Americans necessarily have been heavy on account of the nature of the fighting, the German dead is piled three deep in places. A number of machine guns were added to the American booty. All the allied countries are ringing with praise for the gallant American marines, who plunged into the battle with the valor of seasoned veterans.

Offensive Alone Wins, Says Foch.

London.—The battles can be won in the end only by the army which takes the offensive, is the significant declaration made by General Foch, commander-in-chief of the allies, in an important article contributed by him to a weekly journal, in which he discusses the problem of the soldier and the way to victory.

U. S. Gets Krupp Business.

Buenos Aires.—The Argentine government has negotiated a contract with the United States for the manufacture of 64,000,000 nickel coins. Those now in circulation were made by the Krupps.

Shelling of Paris Continues.

Paris.—The long range bombardment of the Paris district is being continued.

THE RED, RED MOON.

If you happen to be around town, in the wee sma' hours of the morning, just cast your eyes toward the setting moon, and then go to your waiting canvas, and with the skill of Michael Angelo—if you have it—transfer to your canvas a blood red moon, just peeping above the mountain at Hilgard, putting into the scene all the fire of Rembrandt, the fervor of Rosa Bonheur, and you will have made a picture that will bring to you the plaudits of a world of people, who will bow down before you and call you great.

The service flag tells of someone in the fight. The question is, who is sending him wheat.
