"My Country 'Tis of Thee, Sweet Land of Liberty."

AFTER WAR WORK.

Much interest is already being taken in the matter of readjustments for the period immediately following the war. That there will be some fundamental changes in many affairs goes without saying.

There will be two or three and possibly five millions of the country's young men who have been out of the usual lines of employment and they will enlist the very first attention, because they are the ones who have been the bone and sinew, the very bulwark of the country's safety. They are being well cared for now and the interest in their behalf must not end merely by the laying down of their arms and return to the walks of peace. All will say that suitable recognition of the returning war veteran will demand the first consideration from a grateful nation.

This country will not find itself in the condition for "reconstruction" as the term is generally understood, but there will be need of readjustment. Just how far federal control of industries will be extended after the war is one of the questions that will require the very best thought and judgment in the period of readjustments.

There will be many different phases to be dealt with, and the highest statesmanship will be required. In many respects this will be a different United States, regardless that the groundwork on which the republic is founded will remain unchanged only to the extent that it is strengthened and its beneficent provisions extended to other countries and other peoples.

There is one thing that will probably not lack attention, and that is in the dealing with those who have been, whether secretly or openly, antagonistic to this government and the part it has taken in the great world war. Deportation of every last man who thinks more of the Fatherland than he does of this country will be about the first thing in order. It is bad enough to have to confine them and feed them as it is. It should be 24 hours for the starting trip for all such have been trying to throttle America's efforts as well as for those who secretly believe in the divinity of the Kaiser and the preference for autocracy.

America is large, but there is not room enough for those whose hearts and minds are not weaned from the fatherland, wherever that mystic country is supposed to be after the war is ended.

CAN'T GO TOO STRONG.

All reports indicate that there will be no let-up whatever in this country's continued preparation for a clean-cut decision on the war question. Regardless of the victories now apparent, there is strenuous work ahead and all the available men of the country as well as all available resources must be assembled in order to make the victory overwhelming and complete. Oregon is to be called upon for 4,000 more men for the month of August, and this may be only the beginning of still further calls that will take away the few that are left of serviceable age under the present regulations. There is also the chance of a raising of the age limit in order to be sure and have the forces which may seem to be necessary.

With all this preparation on the part of the government there is the outstanding necessity for those who are over the draft age, either as at present established or as it may be increased, to get together on a home war basis. The time occupied and the necessary drilling will not be lost. It will be a distinct advantage whether the home drilled men are ever called upon or not.

All localities should be as alert as are the war authorities in doing the right thing at the right time, or as nearly to that standard as may be possible. This is nothing more nor less than a practical application of the old adage "a stitch in time saves nine." Such organization and equipment of the day at homes should be undertaken without delay. It is worth the trouble anyway and it is far more essential as a duty.

There is no way to say just what will happen and it is infinitely better to be prepared fully for any emergency that may come up.

WISDOM NUGGETS

A full silo and a clear conscience travel pretty close together.

No culture can excel, in musical abandon, the vigor of a fellow playing on a Jew's harp.

Suppose Holland should cut off our grain—there's the North Carolina tar-pentine camps.

Give every man a chance. Never make fun of a man with big feet till you've seen him kill a snake.

The farmer is as near independence as anybody—but inventive genius has brought him from the "gang hoe" to the gang plow.

To see the frost looking so white and innocent, you'd hardly think it the inspiration of so many weather liars.

STARS AND STRIPES

The fault finder seldom offers sensible suggestions.

Man can seldom climb to fame twice on the same ladder.

Real patriotism is not easily bluffed in times of emergency.

It is difficult to keep up to the appetite of the man who feeds on flattery.

WALT WHITMAN

I love and invite my soul.—Song of Myself.

The great city is that which has the greatest man or woman.—Song of the Bread Axe.

What do you suppose will satisfy the soul except to walk free and own no superior.—Laws for Creations.

FROM THE PENCIL'S POINT

Vanity sometimes spoils a multitude of real virtues.

"Not guilty" is not necessarily an innocent remark.

Few people are wise enough to know that ignorance is bliss.

Greatness is never thrust upon the man who leads an aimless life.

The man behind the snow shovel makes the biggest impression this winter.

A stag party would be much more enjoyable if a few dears were invited.

People may applaud a kicker at the start, but they feel like kicking him long before the finish.

A Los Angeles minister recently prayed for those of his congregation who were too proud to kneel or too lazy to stand.

RELIEF

Mrs. Thos. H. Davis, R. F. D. No. 3, Montgomery, Ind., writes she had trouble with her bladder and treated for several months without relief. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to her and she commenced using them. She says she got relief from the first two bottles, and eight bottles cured her. Many similar letters have been written by grateful persons who found relief from kidney trouble, backache, rheumatism and stiff swollen joints. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

CANDY ORDER FOR SOLDIERS

CAMP LEWIS TO BE SUPPLIED WITH $200,000 WORTH.

Largest Order Of The Kind That Has Ever Been Placed In The Northwest.

CAMP LEWIS, July 25.—That the government realizes the usefulness of candy in the diet of our soldiers is shown by the immense order for $200,000 worth of candy, which has just been placed for the men at Camp Lewis. Half of this order will be filled by a Seattle and half by a Tacoma candy manufacturer. It is the largest candy order ever placed in the Northwest and probably the largest yet authorized by the government for the soldiers.

It is estimated that it will take three months to fill the order and that the supply will be sufficient to last the five exchanges at Camp Lewis for a period of three to four months.

This war has done more than anything else to demonstrate that candy is of tremendous food value. A soldier, after a hard day's work needs candy; his system craves it. Likewise, shipyard workers, loggers, men and women doing all kinds of heavy work crave candy because it supplies the need for something sweet to supply bodily fuel. Crowing children require the sugar in candy to supply them with carbohydrates.

The candy which is being made today is manufactured with the sugar authorized for this purpose by the Food Administration. You can patriotically eat the candy which you now see on sale. If you wish to forego it, you can send it to your soldier. A comparison of the food value of candy with other articles of diet tell an interesting story. Chocolate creams have a value of 2922 calories per pound. Compared with this are:

	Calories
Whole milk	315
Cream	881
Whole eggs	895
Beefsteak	1099
Corn	1885
Rice	1626
White Bread	1180
Corn bread	1175

Many people used to wonder what would be the substitute for drinking to supply heat to the system. People have found that sugar is the real source of bodily fuel, supplying carbohydrates. Sugar is most enjoyed by many people when made up into a food product, mixed with fruit, nuts, etc., all high in food value. We recognize sugar as a food product—and milk as a food product—and cocoa as a food product—and nuts and fruits and raisins as food products—those are the chief ingredients of candy—then, logically, is not the combination of all these products bound to be a wholesome, nutritious food?

 Dr. Wilhelm Gintl of Austria invented the duplex telegraph in 1853, by which two messages were sent over one wire, one message in each direction, at the same time. Carl Fischen of Hanover improved the system in 1854, and Joseph B. Stearns of Boston perfected it in 1872.

How To Develop Good Teeth

YOUR teeth need exercise daily. By masticating the hard and rougher sort of food they can best be kept in condition. Hard crusts and other coarse and fibrous foods which require thorough chewing before they can be swallowed, are especially good, not only for children but for adults also. It helps to produce a good circulation of blood and in children develops the muscles and expands the jaws, so that room is provided for the incoming larger teeth. Children should be allowed to eat only a regular bite. A child should be taught to chew his food very thoroughly.

Proper training and care of the teeth in childhood establish habits that will appreciate in after years. A few minutes' longer with the tooth-brush each morning and evening—a visit to a good dentist at intervals—will save lots of unnecessary pain and avoid poor health which usually follow neglect of the mouth and teeth.

RACES

AND BASE BALL

AT FAIR GROUNDS LA GRANDE, ORE. AFTERNOON OF Sunday, July 28

AUSPICES LA GRANDE LODGE NO. 850, L. O. O. M., AND UNION COUNTY ARMY AND NAVY AUXILIARY BENEFIT UNION COUNTY SOLDIERS WHO GO TO THE FRONT

EXPLANATION—Not long since the Enterprise Moose Lodge got a little "chesty" (as they are wont to do over in the Wallowa country) and informed the La Grande Moose Lodge that they had a base ball nine that could give the La Grande Moose 20 miles start and beat them to the fender, at the same time offering to come to La Grande and "show 'em" free of expenses, the proceeds to go to any war cause the La Grande Moose might select. While the La Grande Moose have traded their base ball suits and ball bats for War Savings Stamps, they concluded to "take on" their brothers from beyond the big hill, and the contest has been staged for Sunday, July 28. To make the afternoon more attractive (and as there will be no Speed 'Em Up races this year) those in charge have added a good racing program for the afternoon, so that the event promises to be one of much amusement and well worth patronizing. The entire proceeds go to the Auxiliary, who have been so prompt and efficient in providing the fine and necessary outfits to all of the Union county men who have left for the front. Your attendance will help them continue this good work, and you will enjoy the afternoon as you have enjoyed few others.

(Other side races between "speed demons" are being agitated and will no doubt be added to the program.)
 NOTE—Larger purses would be offered by the management, but it is figured that "patriotism" should figure as "profits" and that those who enter the races should be satisfied with expense money and that they will realize that the smaller the expense the larger the contribution to the war work.
