"DIAMONDS AND PEARLS"

Kitty Gordon Is Seen In A Powerful Role In New Brady-Made.

Kitty Gordon, the internationally famous beauty, has a powerful, unusual role in "Diamonds and Pearls," the new World-Picture Brady-Made in which she will be seen on Sunday only at the Arcade Theater. She is seen in the role of Violetta D'Arcy, a beautiful Southern girl, whose sleeping and waking dreams are only of wealth and power, and social position.

Early in life, Violetta is faced by the proposition of deciding whether to marry for life or to marry for money. She decides to marry Robert Van Ellstrom for his money, after she has turned down Jack Harrington, young and handsome, but poor, who loves her deeply and has proposed marriage to her. Immediately after the marriage Violetta starts out on a career of enormous extravagance and social conquest. She easily assumes a high position in the social life of New York City, but she is surprised and amazed to find that even her husband's vast fortune will not stand against the inroads made by her vast expenditures.

Then Violetta takes a step which has remarkable consequences. Jack Harrington's father, a stern, cold individual, who threw Jack out of his home in himself forced to leave his home town by reason of his unpopular stand on the labor question. The elder Harrington has a great amount of money and he decides to gain a social position for his wife and himself in the metropolis. In New York he makes the acquaintance of Violetta, and not knowing that this is the woman his son loved, he induces her to present his wife and himself in the highest social circles. The reward for doing this is a blank check, signed by Harrington, which Violetta is to fill in for any amount she desires. Violetta, of course, keeps this transaction a secret from her husband.

Then Jack saves Van Ellstrom's sister from death by a runaway accident and is presented to the family. Jack meets Violetta again and his own father. Then events begin to happen speedily. You will get plenty of thrills, plenty of surprises in this most amazing photoplay. You will be fascinated by Kitty Gordon's display of the latest gowns. You will be interested by the swift progress of events and you will enjoy the whole production immensely.

"MAGDA"

Clara Kimball Young Starring In New Role.

In "Magda" the new Select picture in which Clara Kimball Young is starring at the head of her own company, the famous screen actress achieves the triumph of her career. Playing the title role, she depicts the struggle of a girl forced to rebellion by the menaces of an undesired marriage, and the subsequent events of the play move up to a vivid and compelling climax. This stage classic adapted to the screen will be shown at the Star Theater on Saturday and Sunday, and is the first of a series of eight pictures made by Miss Young, to be released during the coming year.

The action of the year is built about the clash of wills between a domineering father and his high strung, independent daughter. It is a striking exposition of the stupidity of a certain class of parents and Miss Young in her portrayal of the misunderstood and driven daughter, makes a strong appeal to the sympathies.

Magda is her father's child. Of all his household she alone inherits his indomitable will and the fearlessness with which she opposes his wishes. When he orders her to marry the minister, she, with a young girl's romantic dreams of love, refuses to accede to his wishes with the result that she is turned out of doors.

When she again flings on her home town in the personality of Madalene Dali-Orto, the world famous singer, feted by the Governor and his officials, her father pompously agrees to forgive her. He insists, however, that she leave the hotel and live under his roof. Magda consents on condition that he ask her no questions about her outside life.

The tenacity of the situation is tightened by the appearance at her father's home of von Kellner, the man who was responsible for her betrayal after she had left the family shelter. Von Kellner who has risen to affluence and respectability learns for the first time that Magda had borne him a child. Her father coming in suddenly is made aware of their relations and in a towering rage threatens to challenge his daughter's betrayer.

How the tangled snarl of Magda's life is finally straightened by the removal of the domestic tyrant, and the way made clear for a continuance of her career, makes for an absorbing story and Miss Young's interpretation of the role more than fulfills the promise of her previous work.

County Agent P. H. Spillman returned this morning from the North Powder and Telocaset farming districts, and reports that all the hay in those sections has about been cut and stacked.

Mr. Spillman said: "The crops of hay in those sections are much better than was indicated at the beginning of the season. They will be short of water, however, for the second crop. There will be a short crop of apples in that section of the county, as well as some of the other later fruits."

The Telocaset community farmers will meet tonight and besides a short program of exercises, Robert Withycombe, superintendent of the Union experimental farm, will deliver an address.

WET DAY FOR FISHING

J. G. Snodgrass and Brother Caught in Big Storm at Catherine Meadows.

J. G. Snodgrass and brother, Will, who went fishing last Tuesday, on Catherine Creek, returned last evening.

"Well, the first night out, we had to sleep in an old cabin, for the reason that my younger brother, who had agreed to meet us there and drive us the rest of the way, failed to show up," said Mr. Snodgrass, in speaking of the trip this morning.

"The scenery in the hills and on Catherine Meadows is very beautiful. Indeed, I waded through tall, silky grass up above my knees, and as it had been raining hard, of course, I might have been wading through that much water, as I got good and wet."

"We had all the fish we wanted to eat, but did not catch enough to bring any home with us. The fish were of fairly good size, but presume that on account of the very stormy weather they would not show up, as if it had been less stormy. We had a fine outing, as it was."

"I believe we drove our car farther up that trail than any white man ever did before, and while the roads were simply abominable, the magnificent scenery amply repaid us for any discomforts of the trip."

SHERRY'S

"JACK SPURLOCK, PRODIGAL"

What would you do, if after a night at the cabarets you discovered a big bear in your bathroom and it dawned upon you that you had bought the animal for a "pet." This may happen to you—this is an age of surprises—so you are advised to see "Jack Spurlock, Prodigal" at the Sherry Theater today only, where George Walsh, the William Fox star, as young Spurlock, solves the problem of disposing of a $400 Alaskan bear. "Big Bear" makes it interesting for the Harvard faculty and his young owner before he is gotten rid of.

"Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" was written by George Horace Lorimer, editor of the Saturday Evening Post and was published in the Evening Post in serial form and later in book form. The story made a hit and the book attained the distinction of being the "best seller" on the market.

"Jack Spurlock—Prodigal" is the story of a young Harvard student's experience beginning after he had been dropped from Harvard because of his escapade with the bear. He was a self-reliant chap and when his millionaire father placed him in charge of his business he sought

Mr. Grain Farmer:

Are you prepared to handle your grain in bulk? Do not wait until Spring and Summer when you are buried with work and worried with labor shortage, but build your granaries now.

You can buy the lumber and roofing paper for a first-class 1000 bushel portable granary for $54.58 and it will last for years. Sacks for the same amount of grain will cost you $125.00 and this would be a dead loss against this year's crop.

A granary of this size can be moved anywhere and can be filled directly from the thresher, doing away with high priced labor handling and sewing sacks.

The boys in the trenches need the sacks for sand bags for the protection of their very lives and perhaps your boy is among them.

Spend your money in your own valley by buying lumber manufactured at home. When you buy sacks part of the money goes to India.

BUILD YOUR GRANARIES NOW

Be prepared by building them before the farming season opens up. Be sure to get good lumber, well seasoned, as low grade lumber will give you trouble in a few seasons. Don't use green lumber.

Save money—keep what you spend at home—prevent loss and damage from exposure to weather—leave the sacks for our boys in the trenches; help win the war by building granaries now.

Portable granaries of this type are universally used in other sections. One trip with a good team will haul the material for one granary. For particulars as well as prices on Union County lumber for all farm purposes, see
