PORTLAND, OREGON

Is Home to EAST OREGONIANS

The Multnomah Hotel is a contributor to the live stock shows of the Northwest; its facilities are always at the disposal of Oregonians who need to counsel for the best interests of the state, and in other ways the Multnomah has become identified with all that is making for progress.

Many Eastern Oregonians are making the Multnomah their home when in Portland, and the management is trying to make them comfortable. The finest thing anybody can say about the Multnomah is that the hotel is

HONEY DEMANDS IN NORTH POWDER BIG

DEATH OF MR. BLEVINS CAUSES GRIEF IN NORTH POWDER—OTHER PERSONAL AND NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

NORTH POWDER, Or., Aug. 9.

The death of Mr. Blevins, which occurred at Huntington some time ago, came as a shock to the people who were acquainted with him in this section. He was well known here, having lived here for some years and was at one time connected with the local paper. One of his sons died here a few years ago and was buried in the city cemetery. Mr. Blevins was brought to North Powder and laid to rest by the side of his son. It is reported that his death was the result of a cancer. His wife and family have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

L. C. Patterson, who is known here as the "Honey Man," says that he has sold a large amount of honey lately.
He has his bees out at the Chris Paterson farm and they are doing fine.
Many people are using honey, on account of the shortage of sugar, while some women are using it for cooking.
One woman reports that she has made current jelly with it and others are using it with fine success in cakes and pastries.

Lane Goff and Ernest Eaves are very much interested in a prospect of chrome ore. They took some of the samples to Baker to have it analyzed.

Mrs. Aultis has rented her home to Mr. Sturgill, who will teach the Wolfe Creek school this winter.
Mrs. Aultis will go with her daughter, Mrs. Conner, who is here on a visit with her mother, to Mrs. Conner's home in Portland, where she will spend the winter.

John Nice bought a home and moved to the hill from Dan Tomlinson, and Mrs. Nice has moved into it and will live in town for the winter.

A. E. Lambert sold the Westover place to a family from Idaho last week. Real estate moves slowly, but it keeps moving all the same.

Otto Heartyvick has bought the ranch on the west of his place, belonging to J. A. Burdette. This gives Mr.
Heartyvick 640 acres and a very good ranch. He will take possession and move onto his new ranch in a short time.

Mrs. Zera Taliferro, who now lives in California, is visiting with relatives and is planning to remain in this section for some time. Her little son is with her.

E. F. May, manager of the Walla Walla crematory is having a testing plant installed and will be ready for business in a few days. He will pay cash for all cream on delivery.

Mrs. Maxwell has accepted a position in the Huddleston store.

Miss Bertha Brubaker is at home, after taking a course at a normal school for the summer. She will have a short vacation before school begins.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, from Walla Walla, are visiting with Mrs.
Shaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davis. They drove down in their car.

John Shaw was called to Baker last week on the water contest case.
The farmer has enough to do, without having a water contest case on his hands these busy days.

Alex Shaw has started his combine and Johnny T. Shaw will begin at once. It is reported that the wheat on John Shaw's place is good, as is the barley.

Lou Dougherty has had several girls on his place helping with the first hay crop. Mr. Dougherty is pleased with their work and will give them help in caring for the second crop.

Harold Parker, who bought the Pilcher place, is enjoying a visit from his sister, Mrs. Dora Meldrum, of Portland.

Chet Lindsey had the misfortune to run a fork into his foot while he was helping in the hay. He now goes on crutches, as the result of his misfortune.

Several young friends of Miss Grace Goffe gave her a surprise a few days ago. Games and dancing were enjoyed by all, and at midnight refreshments were served. All report a good time.

in taking Kodak pictures you will
