MEN IN DEFERRED CLASSES MAY GO

Hint Is Seen in Words of General March—Further Change in Age Limits Possible.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 17.—A hint that the proposed new draft ages of 18 to 45 may be still further extended or the deferred classes entered before the war is won, was given by General March, testifying recently before the senate military committee.

"It is not beyond the range of possibilities that this congress will have to authorize the invasion of others of the classes in order to carry the work through," March is quoted as saying in testimony made public yesterday.

"The United States is going to see this thing through. The way we can win is to put the greatest number of men over there that we can. Every one will have hardships. No man can win a war without hardships."

March made it clear that there is little possibility of France of England greatly increasing their armies. Replying to a question of Senator Kirby regarding the strength of England and France, March replied:

"The only way that Germany can be whipped is by America going into this with her whole strength. The allies have superiority of man power on the west front today for the first time, because the American troops are there in large numbers."

"The great battles of the allies" will probably be fought next summer. This was the interpretation placed by authorities today on General March's statement before the senate military committee that the 2,300,000 men available under the new draft will be in France by June, 1919, and with 4,000,000 Americans then there the allies can penetrate the German lines at will.

Little expectation is held that the war will end this year. A high official in the government councils outlined the stages by which the war would be ended, as follows:

"Maximum man power in Europe by next summer.

"Mammoth allied drive as soon as possible thereafter, surpassing in size and force anything previously attempted, with the view of inflicting decisive defeat on the German army.

"Peace bid from Germany late in 1919 and sufficient guarantees from her to make possible an armistice. Signing of the peace treaty in the winter of 1919 or early in 1920."

To get the 2,300,000 new draftees which the program now calls for, Crowder plans to register 13,000,000 men early next month.

Draft officials throughout the country are getting ready for this gigantic task. Men will begin leaving for the camps almost as soon as they are classified, Crowder said.

An appeal to congress to speed up action on the draft bill was being throughout the country today. As it becomes clearer that America is in the fight to a finish, the people are demanding that nothing shall delay military officials in executing the mammoth program under their charge.

BOYS STEAL BIKES.

in the county jail for lack of bail. This "boy" is 21 years old.

The offender, Jack Butler, is but 15 years of age, and is in jail waiting trial before the juvenile court.

Yesterday one of the boys was seen in town, and Rayburn, told the night watchman to look out for him. Going to the railroad track later, Rayburn noticed a freight just pulling out. He got into a taxi, beat the train to Hillgard, stopped the train, and brought the boy back with him.

MRS. SANDERS PASSES AWAY

North Powder Lady Dead at Phoenix, Arizona, Says Telegram.

Otto Hartvigsen reported to the draft board in Baker recently, but could not pass the examination so was exempted. Mr. Hartvigsen summoned last year and could not pass. He is now busily engaged on his place.

Walter McGrath returned to his home last week after finishing up his haying on his farm in Union.

Several persons are planning on attending the G. A. R. reunion in Portland this month. Capt. Haines, Mrs. Martin and Mr. Huddleson are going. This will probably be the last G. A. R. reunion that will ever be held in the Northwest. There are not many old veterans left and what are, are too feeble to go so far away.

J. W. Barker reports that he has a fair crop on his dry farm this year in spite of the dry weather.

The Sanders family in North Powder received a telegram from Ed. Sanders at Phoenix, Arizona, on Wednesday, August 7th telling them of the death of his wife at that place. Mrs. Sanders death was not unexpected as she had been ailing for years with tuberculosis. She had been going to different climates in hope that it would benefit her, but to no avail. It is supposed that the remains will be shipped to her old home in Nebraska for burial. Mrs. Sanders was very well known here having lived here some years ago.

Some of the members of the K. P. Lodge of Huntington attended the funeral of G. M. Blevins held at that place. Mr. Blevins was a member of that lodge and buried under the auspices of that lodge.

Charles Johnson received his appointment for special work in the sanitary corps and left last week to take a special course at Yale college.

Mrs. Gladys Carnea will teach the Telecast school for the coming year. Mrs. Carnea taught here at one time and was well liked.

Gale Gibbons had the misfortune to lose a finger while helping to fill a silo at Homer Carnea's place. He got too near the cutting knives with the result of losing a finger.

L. B. Lindley has purchased an eighty acre farm near Baker and will move his family to that place at once.

Mrs. Lizzie Dalton has gone on a visit to Hermiston, Ore. While there she will investigate a hotel proposition and if it suits her will go into business at that place.

INDIANS' GREAT CROPS SHOW DEMOCRACY HAS WON THEM

That the white man's democracy appeals to the North American red man, in spite of all, is shown by what Lo is adding to crop production by hard work as well as by what he is doing in uniform instead of war paint, as a fighter. No less than 100,000 acres of new land broken this year on Indian reservations of Saskatchewan and Alberta, Canada, will add millions of bushels of wheat, oats and flax to the food and feed of the allies. And in the United States, Indians of various tribes are both soldiers and big producers of food stuffs and oil.

As Canadian soldiers they did many tribes enlisted at the outbreak of war, over a battalion being in service at New Years 1917. Some have won honor medals; all have done wonderful sharp-shooting. Several wear the kilts of Highlanders. The women show devotion in knitting and making of comforts. Thousands of dollars have been subscribed by Indians to patriotic and relief funds. But when Lo turned turned in with teams and plows to add an empire of new land for victory crops the greatest achievement was noted in all the years since the Canadian Pacific railway system penetrated the Indians' hunting ground and brought to the squaw farmers and towns and cities.

SAVE HALF A DOLLAR

On these Wirthmor $1.00 Waists

Time was when there were a number of Waist makers turning out Waists of character to sell for $1.00. One by one they have dropped out with the increase in production costs, until now the Wirthmor stands alone in the $1.00 Waist field. Many of the materials out of which these favored Waists are being made costs today fully 100 per cent more than they did a year ago, and were it not for the fact that these materials were contracted for by the maker before these advances were effected, it would not be possible to retail the blouses at this time at less than $1.50.

The quality standard of these far-famed Waists has never been nor ever will be lowered. When the makers' present stocks of materials have been exhausted the prices must inevitably be increased to maintain this standard. Until that time arrives, however, the price will remain $1.00.

Just one Good Store in every city can sell WIRTHMOR WAISTS, and in this city they are sold here only.

Conservative Enthusiasm.

Are you a boy or girl who becomes very enthusiastic about some nice thing you want to do? Be careful not to be so enthusiastic in starting a new undertaking that you have no energy left for carrying it through to completion. Enthusiasm is an important factor in success, but it must be a steady flow, and not burst forth like some of the geysers which send a spout of water skyward, and then are quiet for 24 hours.—Exchange.
