REGULAR ARMY MAN HEADS EXPEDITION

Col. H. D. Styer, at Vladivostok, lately Served at Camp Lewis.

CAMP LEWIS, Aug. 19.—Colonel Henry D. Styer, who was mentioned in the dispatches as commanding the 27th infantry, which landed at Vladivostok, was a brigadier general of the national army here, in command of the 181st infantry brigade, now a part of the 91st division in France, until early last spring.

last year, having received his promotion to the rank of brigadier general in the national army a few days previously, and was assigned to command the brigade which was composed of the 391st and 362nd infantry.

A few months ago, he left the national army, where he held his commission as brigadier general, and returned to his rank in the regular army, that of colonel, when he was assigned to command a regiment in the Philippines. He was succeeded in command of the 181st brigade by Brigadier General J. B. McDonald.

Knitting Women

By KATHLEEN NORRIS.

("Of one million sweaters furnished by the Red Cross to American soldiers, half were made by the hands of the knitting women of America."—January Report.)

We are the knitting women; weaving swift
Our webs of olive drab and navy gray;
We are the women, keeping thought away
By this new work of love, this eager gift
Through which our men, facing the bitter fight
Under the stars of far and foreign lands,
Shall know that still a million women's hands
Uphold them in the darkness and the night.

We are the knitting women, knitting fast
A web of love; our million hearts are sent
As one, with every marching regiment,
Love's own democracy is come at last.
High over stricken France the black smoke towers;
Beneath it, in the hurry and the noise
Are eastern, western, northern, southern, boys,
No longer yours or mine,—forever ours!

We are the knitting women; weaving strong
A web of prayer; our eyes with tears are dim,
But, wife or mother, we shall search for him
Across the seas, morning and even-song.
Lord God,—we pray—look down on what we do!
Bless this our work, help us to play our part,
The God of Battles—Father, still Thou art
The God of waiting—waiting women, too!

RED CROSS News and Notes.

Official notice is given by the Red Cross that the La Grande work room is now supplied with a good sized allotment of yarns from the chapter. Please call upstairs for either sweater or sock yarn. All knitters will please turn in finished garments by August 30th as a shipment is to be made by the chapter on September 1, and garments must be inspected and tied before that date.

Hurry Up the Leather.
Ladies working on vests are eager for more leather. Miss Slater has turned in over 100 covers from old law books. Please look through your old volumes and decide if the covers cannot be put to more patriotic use than merely gathering dust. Almost everyone has some antiquated or useless books, so turn them in at once. The box must go not later than Saturday of this week.

NEWSY LETTER FROM SUMMERVILLE TOWN

SUMMERVILLE, Or., Aug. 16.—(Special.)—At 4 o'clock this morning, Mrs. T. T. Glenn suddenly passed away. She went to bed the night before, apparently well. Mrs. Glenn was one of the first pioneers of this valley and therefore, well known, and to know her was to love her. She will be greatly missed by all. More particulars of her death will be given later.

Mrs. W. H. Gibson, from near Portland, is here on a visit with her mother, Mrs. Choate, and other relatives and friends. The two oldest sons of Rev. and Mrs. Gibson have joined the colors. The oldest, Manly, is now in France and the second, Mable, is in the navy. Both have distinguished themselves by their bravery and skill.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson, of Joseph, stopped overnight at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Niederer, while on their return from a pleasure trip to Athens, Wala Wala and other points.

George McDonald finished the early threshing on Pumpkin Ridge last Saturday, and since then he has been at

HUN GOVERNOR IS TOLD ABOUT YANKS

By Webb Miller.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

PARIS, Aug. 10.—(By Mail.)—The latest issue of the mysterious patriotic newspaper, "La Libre Belgique," contains a sarcastic personal letter addressed to Gen von Falkenhausen, the military governor of occupied Belgium, informing him of the "wallowing" that the Americans are preparing for Germany. The letter gives Falkenhausen the details of the wonderful growth of the American army recently announced in Washington.

As a result of the circulation of the letter, several Belgians have been arrested under suspicion of having aided in the publication and circulation of the little "underground" sheet. Falkenhausen ordered the military authorities to intensify their efforts to unearth the publishers of the newspaper. For three years the German authorities have sought the source of the mysterious little journal, which appears irregularly throughout the invaded district with fiery denunciation and cutting sarcasm directed against the Wehr. At least three persons have been shot to death upon suspicion within the last two years, but "La Libre Belgique" still is published.
