LOCKED OUT.

You have, doubtless, met with a good many salesmen from the out-of-town houses, that you were unable to convince that you were not in the market for anything he has to offer. His persuasive arguments of quality and price, however, appeals to you and ultimately you capitulate. After you are convinced that your local merchant handles the same quality of goods at a cheaper price, you will but have to say to him, "We trade at Home." It has never failed to be a knockout blow. Make it your password among your friends and keep it always before you. TRADE AT HOME.

The Angry Tree.
In Australia there grows a species of acacia commonly called the "angry tree." It reaches the height of 80 feet, after a rapid growth, and in outward appearance somewhat resembles a gigantic century plant. When the sun gets the leaves fold up and the tender twigs roll tightly, and if the shoots are handled the leaves rustle and move usually for a time.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.
To whom it may concern, I will not be responsible for any indebtedness contracted by my wife, Maggie Young, ROBT. H. YOUNG.
