HE WAS A FINE BOY.

Little George Duckett passed away yesterday at 1:30 o'clock. His death was caused from burns received while attempting to save his father's house.

For a solid month this little hero laid in the hospital suffering untold agony. Day after day the pain would wrinkle his face and cause him to writhe and twist, but through it all he was the same dear little fellow, polite to his nurses and considerate of the welfare of others. His cheerfulness was dimpled at times by the pain only to return even brighter than before.

That he should be taken at his tender age is a calamity to the country, for such boys as George Duckett make the men worth while.

THE OTHER SIDE.

For several days this valley has been apprehensive relative to the ravings of crops on account of the gloomy weather that prevailed. On every hand could be heard the wish for sunshine, so that it became very refreshing Saturday when E. J. Conrad of rural delivery No. 1, came in, and when asked about crop conditions, he smiled a broad smile, saying, "things are in good shape, the hay is not badly hurt, the grain is not suffering and think what a world of good these rains are doing to pasture and range. The stock will enter the winter this year fat and sleek due to the good rains which the present rains are bringing on."

Guess that is a brand of optimism that is worthy of consideration, eh?

According to A. E. Tunncliffe, manager of the Western Union at Baker, girls make excellent messenger "boys." If there is a man in the country who knows the qualifications of a messenger boy it is Tunncliffe. But he does not state whether he demands the new ones wear the 1918 feminine dress.

Editor Don Fruit, of the Standard, who has the intuition of a woman, sagely remarks: "We still have a sneaking suspicion that Villa has a German ancestor somewhere in his family history."

Oswald West has accepted the "dry" nomination for senator, and Senator McNary in the same dispatches announced he wanted no draft to exempt him for service. It is Oswald's move.

Potato digging time is going to be a festival period this year for is not the lovely and some factor in domestic life a year such as this?

This is show week again, so count out your pennies.

Did the coming carnival cut the Sunday collection short yesterday?

the mushroom mining towns that sprung up in California in the days of the gold rush of '49. In gaudy sack rags and tatters Miss Dalton is still attractive. She goes to the Loo-loo Bird, a noted resort, and is lured into an unconscious dance by the music which so charms the proprietor of the place, Dandy Dave Hammond (William Conklin) that he secures permission to keep her there.

"Sal is every ready to enter into argument, verbal or physical, and throughout the entire picture she dominates everything and everybody, earning the name of "Flare-Up" Sal," because of her impetuosity. Of course, there is a splendid love story running through the picture delineating the love of Sal for the Red Rider, a notorious road agent who holds up the Loo-loo Bird while he dances with Sal, later returning to the town in the guise of a minister.

The early fifties in the gold camps of California were exciting days and "Flare-Up" Sal," reflecting accurately that period, is replete with adventure and thrilling episodes. There is an abundance of genuinely interesting comedy, too, while the towering Redwood forest, where the picture was filmed, forms a beautiful and picturesque as well as an accurate background for the story.

GO TO THE BEE, THOU SLUGGARD, CONSIDER HIS WAYS AND BE WISE.

The most important thing about a bee is not his stinger—but, that he is a "Saver," while the fact that he is also a stinger is the next most important thing about him, as you have probably had reasons to experience.

If you adopt his plan on saving, and make our bank your hive, you are less liable to "get stung" by some "get-rich-quick" scheme.

You can't lose if your money is deposited in our bank. We take every precaution to protect your money; we carry burglar insurance, have fire-proof vaults, and bonded employees.

FORMER SHERIFF A R ANDERSON NOW ENDORSES TANLAC

Prominent Houston Man Says "Money Could Not Buy The Good It Has Done Me."

"Money could not buy the good Tanlac has done me, and I gladly recommend it for what it has done in my case," said Hon. Archie R. Anderson, of Houston, ex-Sheriff of Harris County, Texas, recently. Mr. Anderson is unquestionably not only one of the best known, but one of the most popular men that ever held public office in "The Lone Star" State. After serving as deputy sheriff of Harris county for twelve years, Mr. Anderson was elected Chief of Police of the city of Houston. He had occupied this office only a short time when the Sheriff of Harris county died. Mr. Anderson's friends persuaded him to make the race for the unexpired term of Sheriff to which he was easily elected. He was honored with re-election seven different times and served the people in this important office for fifteen consecutive years. Four years ago Mr. Anderson declined re-election and retired to private life. He cast his lot among the people of Houston and is a large property owner and foremost citizen of this interesting and prosperous city.

"I was in a run-down condition," continued Mr. Anderson, "and had no appetite at all. I could hardly sleep at night and never felt like getting up in the mornings. I was so tired. I had the worst form of indigestion, suffered all the time from gas on my stomach and was continually belching up undigested food. I had to take my coffee without sugar, as when I drank it with sugar, I would just belch for hours. I would bloat and swell up like I was poisoned and suffered with neuralgic pains of the worst sort, and nothing seemed to help me only in a temporary way. I just can't tell you how I did suffer for the past four years and up to the time I began taking Tanlac a few weeks ago.

"When I read the testimonials of some who had been relieved of troubles like mine I just felt like I couldn't make a mistake by taking Tanlac and it has done even more for me than I had expected. I began to feel better after taking my first bottle and have just started on my third and I'm a different man already. I sleep like a log now and eat just any and everything I want without the slightest discomfort afterwards. I am glad to endorse Tanlac because it does the work and I'm telling all my friends just what I'm telling you. I never felt better in my life than I do since taking Tanlac. I am willing for you to publish my statement and let every suffering person who may wish, benefit by my experience with this great medicine."

Tanlac can be obtained at the Silverthorn Family Drug Store, La Grande.—Adv.
