PACIFIC COAST FISHING NOW PAYS SOME MEN $43.57 A DAY

DOCKS at PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

WOMEN in MUNITION WORK

A challenge to the highest paid war workers comes now from the halibut fishermen of the Pacific Coast with a record of $348.60 for eight days' work—$43.57 a day per man.

Machinists, chemists and foundrymen in this country, where certain United States industries have paid workers up to $80 a week, instead of their usual $25 and $30, please note the case of fishing which long will be beside talk off the coast from Prince Rupert south to Vancouver. It was not the only haul of fortune for the schooner "Director" either. On a former trip the wages of the men reached $30.70 a day. Not so bad a result of the great sale of fish made by the Canadian commission when fish was put into the dietary of the British and French armies because it proved so popular among the soldiers from Canada. Enormous orders for fish have run up prices until a big catch brings big returns. Not only the coast cities like Vancouver and Prince Rupert but the entire province of British Columbia have felt the stimulus of the extraordinary development in the fishing industry. Corzual George M. Hanson reported officially: "The Director" was gone from Prince Rupert eight days. It brought in 17,000 pounds of halibut, of which 9,000 pounds were first class. The rest were second class, and brought half price. The first-class fish was sold for 13¢ cents a pound. The amount received for the catch was $2,139.00. The expenses were $309.99—an unusual figure, as an extra supply of gear was taken along in case of emergency. The share of the vessel amounted to $1,200.00, leaving $1,938.00 to be distributed among the crew of four men. Hanson re-

AN OREGON PROJECT MEETS WITH FAVOR

According to latest advice received by Secretary M. G. Hoke of the Warrentons district, the bond sale made several weeks ago to the Anglo, London and Paris Bank of San Francisco is now pending upon the recommendations of the Federal Capital Issues Committee, which will be given upon receipt of the report of the Reclamation Service officials. While not officially sanctioned, it is believed that the recommendations of the Federal Reserve Bank directors at San Francisco, as well as the Agricultural Department report were favorable. It is known that the Reclamation Service has always been in favor of the Warrentons project, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers—The Birmingham Age-Herald. Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta, Mr. Evans says: "By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again, because I am getting well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back. "One week ago, upon recommendation of friends, who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bot-

FORMER MAYOR OF BIRMINGHAM, ALA. ENDORSES TANLAC

"You Will Hardly Know Me When We Meet Again; For I Am Getting Well," He Writes Friend.
One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified endorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon. Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., ex-State Examiner of Public Accounts of Alabama, and at one time editor of one of the South's greatest newspapers—The Birmingham Age-Herald. Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta, Mr. Evans says: "By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again, because I am getting well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctors call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, headache, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back. "One week ago, upon recommendation of friends, who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of those troubles to which I refer, and really believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certainly it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know I am not given to "puffing" mere experiments and am rather orthodox as to watera medica.

"I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results."

(Signed) "FRANK V. EVANS." Commenting on this splendid endorsement of Tanlac, G. F. Willis, International Distributor of Tanlac said:

"Although the list of prominent endorsers is a long one I recall a few leading names that lend both dignity and credit to the entire array. Some of them are: "Hon. C. W. Mangum, of Atlanta, Ga., for three terms Sheriff of Fulton County; Hon. McKenzil Moss, Judge of the Eighth District of Kentucky; Hon. Moses R. Glenn, Superintendent of Printing for the state of Kentucky; Col. John B. Gains, Editor and Publisher, Bowling Green, Ky.; Mr. C. C. Cooper, President of the Georgia Cotton Oil Company; Mr. H. H. Hill, Bank President of South Pittsburg, Tenn.; Mr. J. F. Carroll, Cotton Mill Superintendent of Chattanooga, Ga.; Hon. A. E. Anderson, of Houston, Tex., for seven terms sheriff of Harris County. Hon. S. S. Shepard, ex-city councilman of Atlanta, and many others whose names have heretofore been given to the public. Tanlac can be obtained at the Silverthorn Family Drug Store, La Grande, —Adv.
