TAILOR MAKES VALUABLE FIND
After spending $900 for medicine and doctors four years without getting any benefit for stomach trouble and bloating I was induced by my druggist to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and must say that a $1 bottle has done me $500 worth of good. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For Sale by druggists everywhere. 9-10-18-adv.

ALL WILL REGISTER.

As an indication that all who come under the provisions will register promptly is shown in the fact that very many who might be called away or who might be otherwise engaged on registration day have already complied with the rules recently approved by congress. As a matter of fact, there is no inclination to shirk the duty, as such procedure is not only very unpopular, but the attendant consequences are such that there is practically no means of escape.

It is scarcely believable that there can be anyone who does not approve of the ponderous duty which lies before the country. It is believable, however, that there are those who are perfectly willing to let someone else take the more active part in licking the Kaiser. They are in a "straggling minority" in Union county, and both numerically and in the public estimate are fading toward the vanishing point. Many and many who were not within the former prescribed age for registration are not only ready for the opportunity to register, but are equally willing and ready to go to the front, when called on to do so. With the large increase in available material there will be a force assembled that will answer all the needs and Union county will, as it has in the past, furnish its full share.

NO TALK OF PEACE.

An editorial in the "Stars and Stripes," the official newspaper of the American soldiers in France, indicates how little the boys think of a premature peace. It says: "American doughboys charge a German machine gun nest across an open field."

Some fall, but the others press forward. They come to their objective at the point of the bayonet, only to find the beaten Hun, with upturned hands, crying "Kamerad." But with a gun or knife concealed ready to violate his plea of surrender.

This is the true Hun spirit, the spirit back of the Kaiser and his court. With the power of the offensive passing from him, he is now merely waiting for another change to lift his hands with the cry of "Kamerad" or "Peace."

Peace—with part of the loot still in his possession! Peace—with only a thought of German gain or German victory through craft or deceit! Peace—with the hidden knife ready for its sudden and treacherous thrust!

Peace! In the A. E. F. there will be no thought of peace, no whisper of peace, no dream of peace until the Hun is beaten to the dust.

The fighting lines sweeping their way forward through machine gun fire are not talking of peace. The fighting lines and the workers through the S.O.S. are not thinking of peace. Their single thought and dream is Victory. They see ahead, through the battle smoke, only a savage enemy to humanity whipped until he is ready to quit and take up his share of the work for civilization.

Let the weak-hearted, who are dreaming of a compromise—
Let the pacifists, who are talking of "peace by agreement"—
Let the side-liners, who have "had enough of war"—

Let the secretly-inclined pro-Germans who think "this great tragedy should end without a decision"—
Let them one and all know once and for all that for the A. E. F. there is no such word as peace with the Hun unbeaten. The man who talks of peace today, except through victory, is a traitor. He is only fit to face the firing squad.

Coughed Fifteen Years.

Coughs that hung on and grow worse in the night and weaken the sufferer are relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar oftener than by any other remedy. R. F. Hall, Mable, Va., writes: "For 15 years I was afflicted with a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation of the throat. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me; after taking one bottle the cough ceased and has not returned." No medicine stands higher as a family remedy for coughs for children and grown-ups. Sold everywhere.—Adv.
