The Neighborhood Club held its first meeting of this club year on Tuesday afternoon at its parlors in the Library building.

It was a group of earnest and cheerful women who assembled to take up again with renewed zeal and ardor the various lines of work which the Neighborhood Club feels its duty and pleasure to assume and perform.

Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, the retiring president, gracefully and graciously thanked the club for its support and co-operation during the past year, and called Mrs. A. R. Hunter, president elect, to the chair. Mrs. Hunter's inaugural remarks were very earnest and pleasing.

In accordance with previous custom this day partook partly of a social nature, the retiring officers acting as hostesses to the club and having charge of the program. Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, retiring president called the meeting to order and reports from delegates to the State Federation of Women's Clubs were heard and much enjoyed by those present.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson told of her pleasure in and enjoyment of the music which was given at the Federation and spoke of the need of plenty of music during these trying times in order to help keep up our spirits and courage.

Mrs. George Cochran's report on the picture work was very interesting. Mrs. Cochran spoke, among other things, of an innovation in connection with movies of the audience singing our anthem and "America" at evening performances.

A report of various resolutions introduced by the state president was given by Mrs. A. R. Hunter. They were voted upon and adopted.

Mrs. Silverthorn's report from the legislative branch was very interesting. Her subject was "Woman's Political Influence and how best to use it for Legislative Improvement."

The report from the Home Economics Section was ably handled by Mrs. C. H. Bidwell. Her plea for the conservation of milk and sugar was impressive and forceful.

A fine report on the yearbook and use of library books in connection with club programs was presented by Miss Lucia Haley, city librarian.

Mrs. Eberhard spoke in a few well-chosen words of the coming Red Cross linen show.

Miss Frederika Schilke very graciously favored the ladies with two vocal solos and was roundly applauded for each.

At the conclusion of the program, those present were invited to spend a social hour over the tea cups, which, needless to say, was heartily enjoyed.

There is a good deal of work ahead of the Neighborhood Club this year, but there are many capable and efficient hands to accomplish it.

Mrs. L. H. Martin, house guest of her sister, Mrs. M. A. Harrison for the past two months, was honored at two social functions this week.

On Sunday, about 85 former schoolmates and other acquaintances and friends met at Riverside Park for a day's outing. The time was spent socially in renewing friendships and relating pleasant reminiscences. At noon a delicious basket luncheon was spread on a large table in the pavilion. The day afforded rare pleasure to all present. Mrs. Martin having spent her girlhood here. She will be remembered by many as Miss Amanda Buchanan.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. James McClure was hostess at an informal afternoon reception at which Mrs. Martin was a guest of honor. The time was pleasantly spent in a social way, knitting, crocheting and various kinds of art work being engaged in. Light refreshments were served just previous to the departure of the guests for home. Those present were: Mrs. James Garrity, Miss Fannie Brown, Mrs. Heister Eleworth, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Susan Williamson, Mrs. L. H. Russell, Mrs. Avery Harrison, Mrs. M. A. Harrison, Miss Mary Warnick, Mrs. Laura Childs, Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mrs. Goodnough, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. James McClure.

Mrs. Martin will return to her home at Heppner Tuesday. A very successful linen show has been conducted by the auxiliaries of the Red Cross during the past week. Mrs. G. L. Larson, chairman of the department, desires that all who have no telephone know that deep appreciation will be felt if any linen such as hand towels, bath towels or sheets will be delivered at Red Cross headquarters. In case it is convenient for the donor to deliver the articles arrangements can be made by communication with Mrs. Larson.

The Island City Club met yesterday afternoon for their regular Friday afternoon meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Volwinkler.

A pleasant social time is reported by all the members present, cards forming the chief interest of the afternoon. Light refreshments were served.

Chapter I, T.E.O. met yesterday morning at the Y.M.C.A. building for an all day session. Work on the fifty leather vests upon which the members have been working this summer and which are being made for the military relief department of the Red Cross, was continued. At noon the workers repaired to the home of Mrs. J. W. Knowles. After luncheon, the regular monthly business meeting was held. It was decided that printed programs would be dispensed with and that perfect subjects would be taken up for discussion by the club from time to time.

Work was then continued on the vests which are nearly ready for shipment. The work of making a leather vest is considerable and the present assignment of fifty is comparatively large.

An informal dancing party was held Tuesday evening at the Hermann Siegrist home in honor of L. L. Snodgrass, who left this week for the Officers' Training Camp at Camp Pike, Arkansas. A number of Mr. Snodgrass' former school mates and old friends were present, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Aloph Siegrist, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Siegrist, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. W. R. Rehhardt, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rehhardt, Mr. and Mrs. G. Sturdivant, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Bacon, Mrs. Elizabeth Daulton, Mrs. Ollie Bay, Mrs. Irene Murphy. Light refreshments were served.

The members of the Parkdale club were entertained at the Park pavilion on Wednesday by Mrs. Adler, Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Coolidge, all of May Park. Substantial refreshments were served and the time was occupied in the making of "housewives" for the soldiers. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Luppore will be the hostesses to the club at the regular meeting one week from Wednesday, October 16, at the home of Mrs. Davis.

WATER CONTEST FILED.
A record inspection of Cherry Creek water claims was held yesterday in the office of George T. Cochran, Superintendent of Water Division No. 2, and contest of Prineville Land and Livestock Company claims was filed by Jacob Kase, of Jefferson County.

Somewhat Mercenary.
Bob was to have a birthday party. His best friend, Dick, met him in town the day before. "Say, kid," he asked, "what do you want me to bring you?" Bob, who was saving for a bicycle, replied: "If it's all the same to you, Dick, I'd rather you'd give me the money." The following day as Bob's mother received the little guests, Dick presented 25 cents, saying: "Mrs. G., Bob said he'd rather have the money."

Force of Habit.
"Ruth! I'm really surprised at you, putting out your tongue at people." "It was all right, mother; it was only the doctor going past."
