

Look Out for Poison Gas From Bochedom!

The War is not over. When you meet the talk that it is over and little or nothing is needed by our men, the hour has come for YOU to meet grave responsibility. Millions have died in this war, and don't forget that America has two million of the bravest and best men on earth overseas. Grave responsibility rests upon the people to safeguard their health and morale.

After hostilities have actually ceased, and a just and victorious peace is attained over our barbarous enemies, a long time will necessarily intervene before American troops can be transported home. At least 18 months is the estimated time. Any faltering now on the part of our people in supplying our men every need and comfort and extras that buck up the courage to endure the bloody nightmare over there, would be a kin to

Treachery at Home

Now, while autocracy is crumbling, is the time to show that we will not evade our individual share of the burden. The United War Work campaign carries as near as may be to the battle camps through seven recognized agencies, those home influences peculiarly American.

Our Soldiers Can't Quit: We who have joined in succoring them in the past, Can't Quit!

Get Ready to Do Your Share

Union County must do its share to bring the boys safely home, even though peace is declared tomorrow. In spite of the epidemic, the campaign will start November 11 and finish November 18.

Is Facing Financial Disaster Zurich.—The German Reichsbank has issued bank notes to the amount of 2,000,000,000 marks during the past four weeks, according to the Norceste Nachrichten at Munich. The newspaper says that this was caused by the hoarding of bank notes by the people, and points out that if the

Germans do not give up their present "craze" a financial catastrophe is inevitable

ALICEL NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

The funeral of the late John H. Friswold was held at the Friswold home here Wednesday. Mr. Friswold was born in Norway Feb. 28, 1866 and died at the Hot Lake Sanatorium Sunday, October 27. He came to the United States when he was fifteen years of age and came west in 1885. For several years he has been one of the prosperous farmers of the valley. He had been a constant sufferer for several years, and death was not unexpected. Besides friends he leaves to mourn his loss a wife and three children, Carl age 11, John, Cullen, who is in the service and stationed in lower California, but was here for the funeral. Rev. Gans conducted the services and
