Autocracy Is Wholly Undone.

The last surviving autocracy of consequence has been swept from the face of the earth and democracy is triumphant. No more will intelligent people be swayed or coerced by the dominion of self-constituted masters or be compelled to shed their blood to satiate the lust of power.

HOHENZOLLERN GOES TO HOLLAND

WASHINGTON, NOV. 11.—WILLIAM HOHENZOLLERN HAS ARRIVED IN HOLLAND AND IS PROCEEDING TO THE TOWN OF DE STEEG, NEAR UTRECHT, ACCORDING TO A DISPATCH RECEIVED BY THE AMERICAN ARMY GENERAL STAFF SUNDAY, FROM THE HAGUE.

It Looks That Way. Some fellows think the first syllable of patriotism is spelled 'patriotism'.

Emperor and King. The title emperor is assumed by the ruler of an empire, that is of a nation composed generally of several countries once separate but later brought together by conquest, colonization or confederation.

No Need to Worry. Mrs. Livewell—"Please don't be offended at the question, Tillie, but are you addicted to drink?" New Maid—"I don't know the taste of it, ma'am. You can keep a bottle in every room in the house if you like and you'll always find it as you left it."

A Woman's Answer. When asked how much stuff she had earned a Jacksonville woman replied that she had earned a powerful lot, sold a heap, and had a right smart mess left.

Superstitions of Seamen. If a man is ill at sea, his most critical time is when land is first sighted. If he survives an hour after the sighting of land he will recover.

Wouldn't Take Advice. Dot and her brother were playing on the woodshed roof and her brother fell into a barrel that was standing beneath it.

CONFIDENCE OF SUCCESS IN RAISING FUND.

United War Work Was Organized at Request of President Wilson

(By United Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Confidence in the success of raising $170,500,000 to be used in service work for American fighters today marked the commencement of the nationwide United War Work campaign of the seven recognized service agencies merged for the drive.

Organized at the request of President Wilson, the United War Work campaign fired its first gun in the form of the President's warm endorsement of the services of the seven cooperating organizations have rendered to contribute to the mental, spiritual and bodily welfare of the American fighting men.

A hundred field workers of the uniformed force, invalidated from the war zone after having been gassed or wounded or exposed to illness in the course of their unselfish work for the soldiers and marines, have been assigned to tell their experiences this week at meetings throughout the land, giving first-hand information as to the need of more and continuous service for our fighters.

In all places of worship, Catholic, Protestant and Jewish, appeals will be made to the parishioners to support this movement which, as one of the great developments of the war, has brought all Americans together regardless of creeds or religious differences, into one great unit.

The United War Work campaign was organized at President Wilson's request to coordinate and merge the 7 distinct drives which the 7 agencies contemplated, a great saving in energy, duplication and time. The director-general of the campaign is Dr. John R. Mott, chief executive of the Y. M. C. A., who, with George W. Perkins represents that organization; the other agencies being represented as follows: Mrs. Henry P. Davidson, Y. W. C. A.; John G. Agar and James J. Phelan, National Catholic War Council; Mortimer L. Schiff, Jewish Welfare Board; Merron T. Horrick, War Camp Community Service; Frank A. Vandervlip, American Library Association, and George Gordon's Basin, Salvation Army, with Cleveland H. Dodge as treasurer, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., chairman of the New York City committee, and Raymond P. Loebeck, of the war department committee on camp activities as executive chairman.

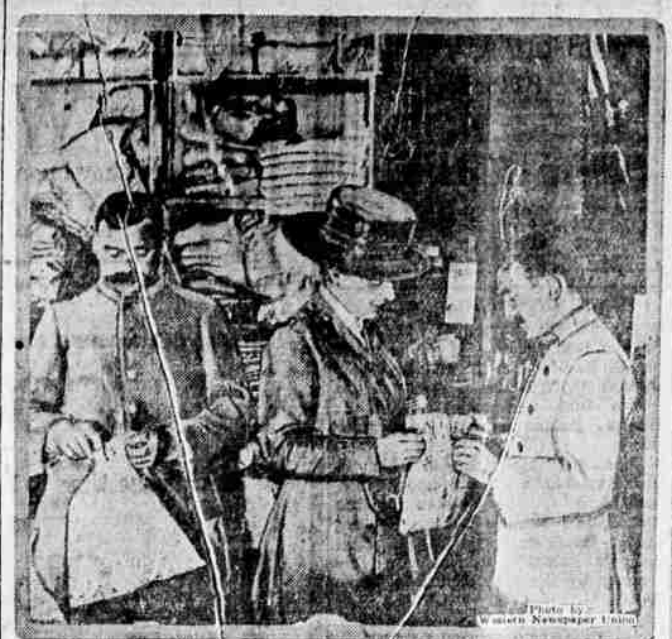

Any Honest Task Attractive. Any honest task is capable of being so largely conceived that he who enters into it may see, stretching before him, the promise of things to do and to be, that will stir his enthusiasm and satisfy his best desires.—Phillips Brooks.

MISS KITCHENER A WAR WORKER IN FRANCE

Miss Kitchener, sister of the late Lord Kitchener, is among the prominent English women engaged in war work. Miss Kitchener has given her services to the Red Cross and has been active at service stations near the battle line. The photograph shows her distributing comfort kits to French soldiers in a storeroom at Dinan.

I LOVED A LASSIE

I loved a thin girl, but she was too thin.

I loved a fat girl, but she was awfully fat.

I loved a tall girl, but she was a baby giraffe.

I loved a short girl, but I could only see the top of her hat.

I loved a religious girl, but she was always at a meeting.

I loved a free-thinker, but she insisted on living in Greenwich village.

I loved a good fellow, but she was well, just a little free in her cups.

I loved an outdoor girl, but she always wore a middie blouse.

I loved a cabaret queen, but she painted her cheeks red.

I loved a girl with a brain, but she looked like Banquo's ghost.

I loved a simple lass, but she stuttered.

I loved a chorus girl, but she ate onions.

I loved an athletic girl, but she had a disagreeable habit of slapping me on the back.

I loved a pretty little thing, but her father was a plumber.

I loved a girl with beautiful eyes, but she kalsomined her nose.

I loved a Red Cross nurse, but she went away.

I loved a minister's daughter, but she was too gay for me.

I loved a debutante, but she couldn't get up an appetite for breakfast without three cocktails.

And then, all of a sudden, just like that—

I loved a girl who wasn't too thin nor too fat, neither too tall nor too short, not unduly sanctimonious and yet who had decent scruples, taking her glass of port, but no more, serious as well as she played tennis, serious at times and not subjected to foolish remarks; pretty of course, with eyes, hair, nose, lips, shoulders and all that sort of thing—merciful heavens, how I loved her—

But she existed only in my imagination.—Franklyn Everett Fitch, in Judge.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood—Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results.

ACQUIRING A PERFECT FIGURE

Most women who have perfect figures did not have them originally. They have acquired them. A woman gradually takes the shape of her corset so the corset producer by the most artistic design is the right one to wear to secure a perfect figure.

MODART CORSETS Front Laced are most symmetrically and artistically designed. They are comfortable, stylish and gradually mold the figure into those beautiful lines that every woman admires and desires.
