

Case 10-18 Tractor

Made by the old reliable J. I. Case Threshing Machine Co., Racine, Wisconsin. The tractor that will do the work it is intended to do, easier and more economical than any tractor made. It pulls two plows, runs silo filler, small thresher, will handle a self binder easily, and all manner of farm work. It is a four-cylinder machine with all working parts enclosed.

If you want the best, buy the CASE, then if you should need repairs you will be able to get them. If interested, let me give you detailed information.

William N. Steelhouse and Eva E. Hasey were married last Sunday at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Rev. Sherman Hawk officiating.

The Army and Navy Auxiliary met last Monday evening. The main object of the meeting was to decide what to do with the money on hand that had been raised for the Mess Fund of the hospital boys. It was decided to save it and give the boys "one good time" when they reach La Grande.

The ladies L. A. of Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen had a social meeting Wednesday afternoon, which was well attended and most highly enjoyed by all present. Members of the Brotherhood were given a surprise luncheon which the ladies had prepared and while it conformed to the conservation rules the spread was ample and a delight to the recipients. The session was voted to be among the most pleasing that has been held in a long period.

On Tuesday afternoon, November 26th, the Neighborhood Club will combine a most instructive and interesting literary program with a social hour and all members are cordially urged to be present. The program is as follows:

"France Through the Eyes of Young America"—Miss Haley.

"The Statue of Alean-Lorraine Under German Rule"—Mrs. J. D. Smith.

Reading, Translations of Popular French poems—Mrs. J. P. Caldwell.

Vocal Selection—Mrs. J. H. Purcell.

After the program the meeting will be in the hands of the social committee and refreshments will be served.

In preparation for their appearance two evenings entertainments on the subjects "Cathedrals—On the Trail of the Bullder" and "Cathedrals—On the Trail of the Destroyer." Selected members of the Neighborhood club have been studying each Thursday evening under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Mossman. Previous to her removal to La Grande Mrs. Mossman effected the organization of the present popular Art Club of Pogliand.

Mrs. E. E. Kiddle was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Eastern Star Card Club at Island City. Four tables were filled by the twenty-four members. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp won the prize of our thrift stamps. This club reports satisfaction on the part of all with the new plan of offering no other prize than thrift stamps or similar articles of a patriotic nature.

Past Matrons of the Eastern Star were Friday evening entertained at the home of Mrs. Geo. C. Hopkins. Knitting and fancy work formed the chief diversions of interest during the evening. Light refreshments were served. Those present were Mesdames Mac Woods, C. W. Noyes, F. M. Jackson, E. S. Kiddle, Arthur Williams, A. B. Cherry and L. H. Russel and Misses Pauline Lederly and Carrie Hunter.

Miss Katherine Schell, for the past few months the guest at the J. T. Ridenour home was entertained Thursday afternoon when a number of guests were received in her honor. The time was spent socially and in knitting and crocheting. A light luncheon was served. Guests present during the afternoon were Mesdames Garrity, A. Floyd, Wessley Harrison, Leo Ballinger, Fred South and Misses Ryan and Driscoll.

Word was received this week of the wedding of Walter Galloway in Portland on November 14. Mr. Galloway was one of La Grande's most popular and widely known young men during his stay here. For a number of months, he played in the moving picture theaters here and later moved to Hilgard to take a similar position there. More recently he has been serving in the Star Military police and is now stationed at Portland. Mr. Galloway is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Budge, 1395 N. avenue.

Rev. Sherman Hawk of the Methodist Episcopal church officiated at the wedding Thursday at the Walter Landry home of Roy L. Gray of Seattle and Miss Oriolee King. The arrangements were very simple, only the immediate relatives witnessing the ceremony. Miss King lived in La Grande for a number of years and will be well remembered. Mr. Gray has extensive property interests in Spokane, in which city Mr. and Mrs. Gray will be at home to their friends. Following a few days trip to Los Angeles, Mrs. Gray is the daughter of Mrs. Floro Denning.

Twenty-four members of the Island City Sewing Club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Albert Wardell for a social afternoon and for work. Refreshments were served.

MISS VIRGINIA LE SEURE

The engagement of Miss Virginia Cannon Le Seure, granddaughter of Representative Joseph G. Cannon, has been announced. Miss Le Seure is to marry Capt. William Houghteling of Chicago and San Francisco. She has spent several winters in Washington, where she is very popular. She is possessed of much of the keen wit for which "Uncle Joe" is famous.

The Bookworm

While school is keeping Saturday mornings, the public library will open at noon on Saturday only. Hours as usual on other days: 1 to 6, 7 to 9 p. m. Sundays 1:30 to 5:30 for reading only.

If you have seen a library copy of these books, please return to the library, or notify the librarian. They have been lost by borrowers or taken from the building without record being made:

- Haarom. Famous men of Rome. White, Gold.
- Pinley. Little Bird Blue. North American Review, Nov. 1918.

What relation is there between the present, or very recent reigning sovereigns of Europe? This question is often asked. To figure out the whole family tree is very confusing. The most essential points are shown in these tables:

- Victoria, Queen of England EDWARD VII
- Victoria Alice m. Louis IV. Grand Duke of Hesse
- Kaiser Wilhelm II GEORGE V

- Alexandra Alix m. Nicholas II, czar of Russia
- Christian IX. King of Denmark GEORGE, KING OF GREECE
- Alexandra Tsagar m. Edward VII Alexander III, czar of Russia
- m. Maria ( )
- S)a CONSTANTINE
- George V. Nicholas II

New war books at the library are:

- MacGill—The Great Push. Barinfeather—Billets and Bullets.
- White—Martial Adventures of Henry and Me. This is one of the few humorous books on the war, although nothing on the war is altogether humor.
- Lichnowsky—Memorandum, with Reply of Herr von Jagow.
- Hazen—Alsace-Lorraine under German rule.
- A. C. McClurg & Co.—European War Zone Geographical names.

Various pamphlets received as gifts include booklets on the Checho-Slovaks, The Destruction of Poland, and "The Victory of The Marne."

One hundred and three people owe library fines at the present time. The amounts vary from one cent to the price of a book. The receipts from library fines, amounting to something over $100 a year, are used for postage, express, and small supplies and repairs.

Heat Your Entire House From One Register

SIMPLE — WARM — COMFORTABLE

Just this one large register. The hot air comes up through the center circle and the cold air goes down the other compartment between the circle and the border. It's right over the Quaker Pipeless Furnace.

More heat—and just where you want it—always ready. To warm that cold room, just open the door. The has no pipes, no bulky cold air returns. Your walls are not torn up, no ceiling is too small. Will burn any fuel. Particularly adapted to soft coal. Special humidifier keeps the air always moist. The furnace is built of heavy boiler plate steel, no cemented joints to leak gas, dust or soot. Fire proof lined with high-test fire brick, capable of withstanding 2000 degrees of heat. An abundance of clean, pure warm air sent to every room. Simpler than a stove to operate, cleaner, more saving of fuel, and much more healthful. Sends heat to every room in the house. Ventilates as well as heats. Changes and purifies the air in every room. Keeps the cellar cool for fruit and vegetable storage.
