

20 Per Cent Off on All Xmas Goods Santa Claus Says: Give Practical Christmas Gifts

For many years there has been a tendency to give useful, practical gifts. The "Spugs" were active in encouraging the movement before we entered the war. But, there is an extra reason now for giving useful Christmas gifts. We have all been urged to practice economy, so as to conserve the resources of the country. In many ways this spirit of economy will extend to our gift giving and Christmas celebrations. We have an interesting stock of sensible gift goods for your inspection. Beauty and utility combined are the features which recommend such goods.

For "HER"
If there is trouble in selecting a gift for a lady it is due to confusion caused by such an array of suitable items.
Perfumes, Atomizers, Ivory Goods, Leather Goods, Manicure Sets, Toilet Sets, Desk Sets, Stationery, Art Calendars, Candy, etc.

For "HIM"
Sentiment does not play as great a part in a man's life as it does in woman's. He wants something useful.
Cigars, Pipes, Tobacco Jars, Humidors, Cigar and Cigarette Cases, Safety Razors, Shaving Sets, Brushes, Pocket Books, Traveling Cases, Watches, Fountain Pens, Playing Cards, Flashlights, etc.

For GIRLS
Girls get real pleasure from the Christmas festivities. They expect numerous gifts, so don't disappoint them.
Calendars, Handbags, Work Boxes, Toilet Articles, Manicure Cases, Ivory Goods, Desk Sets, Stationery, Candy, etc.

For BOYS
Let the boys come in and see our stock. They will probably express their wishes concerning gifts. Give him plenty and he'll be happy.
Pocket Knives, Flashlights, Watches, Purses, Games, Brushes, Fountain Pens.

For the SOLDIER
The soldier and sailor boy cannot carry very much in the way of equipment. So it is wise to send them useful things which they can use and enjoy every day.
Fountain Pens, Stationery, Shaving Kits, Sewing Kits, Comfort Kits, Combs, Brushes, Metal Mirrors, Dentifrices, Tooth Brushes, Wash Cloths, Wrist Watches, Pipes, Cigarettes, Tobacco, Flashlights, Hard Candies, Food Tablets, Liniments, Foot Powder, Adhesive Tape.

For "DAD" and MOTHER
The older folks are interested in Christmas, too. But they always want useful things. Our stock will suggest many appropriate items.
Calendars, Magazine Subscriptions, Spectacles, Vacuum Bottles, Hot Water Bottles, etc.

Our Magnificent Assortment and Low Prices Assure an Economical and Merry Christmas for All.

JOSEPH SENDS EXHIBITS TO LIVE STOCK SHOW

THE WALLOWA COUNTY GRAND JURY MEETS—CHINOOK THE SPITS COASTING AND SLED-DING.

JOSEPH, Dec. 5.—(Special)—The coasting, sledding, etc., which we enjoyed last week were sponsored by the recent chinook. Joseph and vicinity will be well represented at the Stock Show in Portland next week, as stock are being shipped in large numbers on every freight.

The grand jury met at the court house in Enterprise the first of the week to organize and begin work. Mrs. Bess Seether and daughter, Ella were up from La Grande the first of the week visiting. Miss Ella is attending school in La Grande.

A. R. Beck left recently for Portland where he will spend the winter with his daughter Lois. Gus Armstrong left Friday for Grand Pass, where his uncle is seriously ill.

Miss Rue Whitmore left on Thanksgiving Day for Portland, where she will attend school at St. Helen's Hill.

Miss Mildred McFledge went to La Grande last Friday to meet her little son, Harley, who had been visiting in Homestead.

After spending a few months visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Karnon, Mrs. J. W. Springs left Friday for her home in San Francisco.

The Joseph Milling Company are shipping two cars of flour under government contract this week.

After a long illness, Shirley, the six months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Loffer died last Thursday evening.

In a letter from John Dester he says that he has seen O. D. Welch and Ray Springer since his arrival in France. Both boys are getting along fine reports Mr. Dester.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. George Starr on November 27th, 1918, a daughter.

Mrs. J. J. McClain left Saturday for La Grande where she attended the funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Neiderer of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Green and children returned to their home in La Grande the latter part of the week, after spending a few days at the farm of Earl Green on Prairie Creek.

Miss Lulu Lane, a sixteen year old school girl, rode from Lewin to Joseph, a distance of about thirty miles to mail a Christmas box to her brother in France. On account of the congestion of mail the label had come too late to get it in the Red Cross shipment so Miss Lulu had to be content with sending him some money.

Messrs. M. E. Strite and C. K. Kerbaugh have sold the Strite's market to the Mountain Meat company, corporation of Enterprise. The new owners took charge the first of the week. The former owners expect to leave soon for new fields. Mr. Kerbaugh and Mr. Strite have been in business in our city for several years and they will be missed here.

After an extended visit with relatives on Prairie Creek, Mrs. A. L. Hunter of California left the first of the week to visit other relatives in Ontario.

Miss Emma Hackett of Wallowa spent a few days last week visiting her sister, Miss Bessie Hackett of Joseph.

J. W. Chandler of La Grande and A. Blockland of Island City, were passengers on Sunday's train to Joseph.

Some time ago Miss Lucille Dunbar wrote to a friend in France asking that he "get a Hun for her." Last week she received a strange looking package which contained a German helmet and a card saying, "Here's his hat." A cap worn by a German private accompanied the headpiece. Several bullet dents may be seen on the surface of the helmet and in the cap is the date 1914. Both are held by the east end of the valley farmers.

Don Brown, the late sanitarium barber sent word that by the time the letter arrived here he would be on the ocean enroute to France. He joined the "tank" corps and it is presumed that the government is sending him, and doubtless others, to fill in as army transport auto drivers.

Mark Phly, in the marines at Mare Island, writes that the authorities have no intention at present in letting any of the recently recruited marines go back to civil life. Mark is happy, healthy and hopeful of getting action.

NEWS OF HOT LAKE

Don Brown, Former Barber, Is In the Tank Service.

HOT LAKE, Dec. 5.—(Special)—Chas. King has received a letter from his brother in Liverpool, England, saying that Dr. Frank Butler who was Dr. Phly's assistant physician for over two years and who joined the U. S. army medical corps a year ago, had called upon him at the office of the Liverpool District Bank. Dr. Butler evidently had very little time to spend with Mr. King as he was on his way from the steamship landing stage to return for London and France. Mr. King in his letter stated that Dr. Butler looked a perfect Yankee of-fer and he promised to come back to Liverpool when it could be arranged and spend a few days in the great sanitarium. Charles King wishes he could be in Liverpool this next time Dr. Butler gets there, but it's a long trail between Hot Lake and Liverpool, England.

The Rev. Dr. O. Jones of Baker, came over yesterday to take back with him Mrs. Jones, who has made a complete recovery after a very serious operation. The recovered gentleman was profuse in his expression of thankfulness and joy for the great recovery of health of the good wife.

The big grain warehouse on the railroad track is now nearly full, there being, according to Cato Johns, about 150,000 sacks of grain already stored. It contains wheat, oats and barley in about equal proportions and just about cleaned up the grain which had been
