Mrs. Nellie G. Noll and Miss Kathleen Rye were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Fred Schilke last Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Fredrick's 19th birthday. An interesting feature of the occasion is that Mrs. Noll, who is the young lady's godmother, has been a dinner guest in the Schilke home on every birthday anniversary of Miss Fredrick for the past nineteen years.

The first meeting of the Central school for this year was held at the Central building on Friday, December 6. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Lee Warnick, and the new officers for the ensuing year took their place. The new officers are: Mrs. Gordon Powers, president; Miss Hulda Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Bruce Dennis, treasurer; Mrs. Powers gave a short address touching upon the value and meaning of the organization and a vote was taken to hold the regular meetings at 8 o'clock p. m. on the fourth Friday of each month, the next meeting to be held in January.

Mrs. A. T. Dill entertained with a delightful luncheon and hot-home on Fourth street last Saturday. Besides the hostess, covers were laid for Mrs. Garret, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Silverthorn, Mrs. George Carpy, Mrs. G. L. Clarke, Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. Walter Parker, Mrs. Stella, Mrs. L. B. Moe, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. Chas. Cleaver, Mrs. George Curry and Miss Ruth Parker.

An attractive centerpiece for the table consisted of a basket of assorted fruits artistically arranged, one of the unique features of entertainment which caused much merriment was the guessing of countenances on the place cards. The afternoon was spent at needlework.

COLUMBIA GRAFONOLA

The Columbia Grafonola holds the record for melodious mileage because Columbia Records have really put amusement into music. Musically up-to-date—that's the Columbia key-note. If there's anything in melody that's sparkling new or entertaining, you'll surely find it on Columbia Records. And of course the Grafonola plays Columbia Records best.

Mississippi steamboats whistling through some clever novelty chorus, haunting love songs from the latest opera hit, patriotic music, military marches—any piece that's catchy, tuneful, bubbling with the joy of life—that you'll find, and find it FIRST, on a Columbia Record.

You'll never miss the way if you follow Columbia Records. Their very titles are signboards on the happy road that leads to song and laughter. They set the pace for dancing mirth and joyous melody—and the Grafonola ALWAYS follows through. Such a jolly, happy go-lucky sort of a fellow is this big, handsome, clear-voiced Grafonola. Just a merry, likable musical friend. His voice is seldom silent in the home he lives in—he sings live music in a lively way.
