Mervin Lloyd, more familiarly known as "Dutch," who has been with the aviation corps in California for some time, dropped to Imbler the other day to meet his boyhood friends before going on to Portland to visit his parents. He has received his discharge from the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Higgins left Wednesday for Elgin, to spend the holidays at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Zeanner.

The council had a call meeting Thursday evening to consider the closing of all public meetings. A motion to close up the town was proposed and passed without a dissenting vote. This put a damper on the Christmas exercises and also on the dance which had been planned for Christmas Eve.

Sickness has been decidedly on the increase in Imbler. The quarantine has been raised on the houses of Lyal Kiddle, Grant Tucker and John Rollens. That leaves only one family afflicted with the flu, which is Mrs. Ethel Masters'. The latest report was that they were getting along fine.

Mervin E. Stevenson, who has been at the officers' training school in Texas and who received his discharge a few days ago, came up from Elgin Monday evening for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Wm. Wiggins.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Puhler, of Ladd's Canyon, spent Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker.

Wilford Westinkow returned last Friday from Camp Meade, Md., after spending a two-weeks furlough here. He expects to be discharged in the near future.

Frank and Dean Spencer arrived Tuesday to spend Christmas with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spencer. Dean has been attending the O. A. C. at Corvallis, while Frank has been in Uncle Sam's service.

Ray Monk, of Monti, Utah, who has been stationed at Camp Lewis, Wash., spent Christmas at the home of Mrs. L. A. Stringham and Mrs. P. H. Westinkow.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stringham received a very pleasant Christmas remembrance in the way of six letters from their son, Lynn. They think they could not have received a better present unless Lynn had come home himself. Lynn is now in Luxembourg, Germany. He said in one letter that Lyal Stringham had joined them and was looking fine and dandy.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyal Wilson had a very pleasant surprise Christmas evening, when a ten-pound boy arrived at their home. The little visitor evidently came intending to stay, as the little girl said, as he had his things off.

Walter Wade is much improved, after his attack of the flu.

Mrs. Bud Glynn, who has been ill with influenza, has suffered a relapse. Friends hope her condition will soon be much improved.

more than its share of sickness. Miss Hill, the principal of the Summerville school, is very low with the flu, and Mrs. Theibert Choate is also in a very critical condition.

Chas. Willis was brought home the other day from the hospital at La Grande, where he has been under the doctor's care for some time. Although he is much better it will be some time before he is able to be out again.

George Ferguson spent Christmas in Union, visiting his mother. Geo. Marshall will begin packing several car loads of apples in La Grande next week, which he expects to ship east in the near future.

The box factory has suspended work until the first week of the year, when they will begin to make boxes again. They have not been running the saws for some time. They have completed the erection of their dry sheds, which will provide shelter for several car loads of lumber.

The Grande Ronde Lumber Co. played Santa Claus to more than a hundred children by furnishing candy and nuts, which were distributed at the school program Christmas Eve.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 24, the following school program was given: Instrumental music, Mrs. Hull and Leighton Slon; recitation, "Giving and Getting" by Willard Goddard; primary song, "Hush-a-by Lullaby"; "Christmas Presents," Mary Johnson; Francis Smith, Eldred Coalwell and Ralph Connor; recitation, "Christmas Spirit," Iola Robertson; primary song, "Noisy Toys"; play, "Santa Jr., Substitute"; recitation, "Santa Claus," Pearl Murray; primary play, "Santa's Helpers"; recitation, "The Master is Coming"; Carmen Kelly; play, "Christmas Pilgrimage" and a Christmas pantomime.
