MRS. GEO. PAPPALOX

The funeral of Mrs. George Pappalex, who died recently in La Grande at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lulu Volswinkler, took place Thursday afternoon at Island City.

The late Mrs. Pappalex was born in Summerville, Ore., on the 23rd of February, 1898, having therefore not attained her twenty-first year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson, who now live in Island City.

She was married on the 24th of last February, at Pocatello, Idaho, to George Pappalex, who formerly conducted the Paris Cafe in this city.

Besides the sorrowing husband, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, two sisters, Mrs. Volswinkler, of this city, and Miss Gladys at home; and three brothers, Leonard, who is in France, and Roy and Gleen, mourn her death.

Importance of the Past.
To think of ourselves as masters of our habits is to bait a trap for our own mortal death. What we are at this moment, depends not only upon making up our minds at the time being but also upon how we have made up our minds countless other times by thousands of minutes already gone by and now out of our control. The one thing we cannot control is the past; it may, however, control us for good or evil.—Youth's Companion.

Pine Leaf Paper.
It has been estimated that if the immense waste were eliminated, the daily output of the long-leaf pine industry would be 4,000 tons of paper, 3,000 tons of resin, 300,000 gallons of turpentine, and 600,000 gallons of ethyl.

Short but Not Merry.
An ethnologist says the natives of New Guinea are the shortest-lived people in the world because they eat beetles and drink seawater. Not every short life's a merry one.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PICTURES OF SINKING OF THE LUCIA

The steamer Lucia, which was struck by an enemy torpedo on October 17, was the last American vessel to be reported a victim of German submarines. The Lucia, which was equipped with buoyancy boxes designed to make her unsinkable, kept afloat for nearly 24 hours. The destroyers Fairfax and Huntington went to the rescue of the ill-fated vessel. The upper photograph shows the sinking of the Lucia, with the last boatload of survivors leaving. The lower photograph shows a motorboat of the Huntington arriving at the destroyer with survivors.

TO LIST OREGON SOLDIERS

The name of every man in Union county, as well as in the other counties of the state who entered the country's service during the great war will be compiled by State Historian Cornelia Marvin. The gigantic task is now well under way, according to word from Miss Marvin to friends in Eugene.

County historians have been appointed in each county by the state council of defense, to co-operate with Miss Marvin and facilitate the work. Bulk records available so far show that 5000 men of the O. N. G. entered the regular army as a unit; 7500 men volunteered from July, 1917, to March, 1918; 15,000 men were drafted; 2400 enlisted in the navy; 2000 enlisted in the United States marine corps; 4000 enlisted in the S. A. T. C. and officers' training schools.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME.

The residence occupied by Turner Perkins, 1419 V. avenue, was practically destroyed by a fire that was caused by an overheated stove, at an early hour this morning. An alarm was rung in to the fire hall a little before 5:30 o'clock and although the brigade reached the scene of the trouble promptly, they found that little could be done.

The family lost nearly all their belongings, saving only some clothing and a small amount of bedding. Their furniture was a total loss. The property is owned by A. S. Meyers, of Oregon City, and undoubtedly insured.
