POT OF GOLD AWAITS WILSON

NORWAY WANTS PRESIDENT TO COME AND GET HIS $36,000 NOBEL PEACE PRIZE

CHRISTIANA, NORWAY, Jan. 7.—While President Wilson is visiting in Europe, he should run up here and get his gold medal and his $36,000 Scandinavian prize.

The awarding of the Nobel peace prize to President Wilson in Christiania in due form would give the Norwegian government great pleasure. Besides, one of the conditions of the award is that the recipient come to Christiania and deliver an address on peace. Right now, custodians of the Nobel fund are said to hold, would be the best time of all for President Wilson to deliver an address on peace.

When President Roosevelt was awarded the prize the condition relating to the address in Christiania was waived on account of the president's duties in Washington. But in Wilson's case it is believed the commission in charge of awarding the prize would consider that the president could find time while on his European trip to step up here and receive the medal and the $36,000 in person.

Alfred Bernhard Nobel, Swedish scientist, left a fortune of $3,000,000, the interest on which he stipulated should be expended each year in providing awards for the five persons contributing most valuable work in advancing medicine, physics, idealistic literature, chemistry, and the promotion of peace. Elhu Root and Theodore Roosevelt are the Americans who have won the peace prize. Not all of the five prizes are awarded every year, because trustees of the fund spend so much of the income for administrative purposes that there is not enough left to provide prizes of suitable size.

However, the Scandinavians are of opinion that $36,000 and a gold medal ought to be sufficient inducement to bring the president north during his stay in Europe.

Origin of Lace Making.
The origin of lace making is so far lost in the dark ages that it is impossible to know in which country the process began. It is certain, however, that the Italians were making most elaborate and beautiful laces soon after America was discovered.
