Now that springtime is almost here, we will all soon be longing for a good cool soda water or ice cream sundae, or some of the other cool and refreshing drinks, such as Silverthorn's serve at their fountain.

Just now, they are serving many of the winter drinks and hot tamales, chili con carne and eschaldas. These special melted milks with whipped cream are fine.

CAN LEARN TO LIKE TASKS
Quality Once Acquired, Many Men Will Find Their Life Take on a Brighter Hue.

It is a remarkable fact that most men are engaged in occupations that they dislike. We know many a doctor who would far rather be an author, but by the same token, we know some authors whom we would like to be doctors or something else. There are statesmen who always wanted to be blacksmiths, and blacksmiths who wanted to be statesmen. In many instances they could trade and the country would be the gainer.

But that's neither here nor there. The thing to be considered is that we can make life a whole lot easier by learning to like tasks that we now do not like. It can be done, strange as it may seem. Many a man has learned to like to play croquet or to eat greens. There are instances of men who actually fell in love with their wives.

It will not do to merely assume a grin-and-bear-it attitude toward the unpleasant task. Eat it up. Go at it as though there were not half as much fun in doing anything else in the world. You will then certainly discover that you were not nearly so badly off as you thought you were.—Los Angeles Times.

King Named Pennsylvania.
It was Charles II who gave the name Pennsylvania to the American colony. The founder would have named it New Wales on account of its rugged and beautiful scenery. A good story is told of how Charles once turned the tables on his Quaker subject when they met in the park. "Why dost thou remove thy hat friend Charles?" asked William Penn. "Because wherever I am it is customary for only one person to remain uncovered." Penn was much at home with kings. James II used to go to Quaker meetings to hear him preach. He knew Anne as a little girl and that queen counted him as an old friend, but William III was not so cordially disposed. When Peter the Great was occupying Evelyn's residence at Deptford he went to Quaker meetings and knew Penn. Indeed, that destructive tenant and absolute monarch and militarist said that whoever could live as a Quaker would be happy.

RECORDS OF DOINGS OF LEGISLATURE AT LIBRARY
Through the kindness of Senator Eberhard, the public library has been placed on the mailing list to receive the bills and calendars of both houses of the Oregon legislature, for the present session.

The documents are accessible to the public at any time during library hours. No attempt will be made to index the bills, but they will be filed in their proper numerical order as received.

These letters will be sent to the dead letter office on February 7th, 1919, if not delivered before. In calling for the above please say "advertised" giving date of list.

SALVATION ARMY WEEK END SERVICES PROGRAM

The Salvation Army services for the week-end are as follows:
The meeting tonight will be conducted by Mrs. Captain Smith, assisted by the ladies of the local corps. Captain Smith assures every one a good meeting, and wants every lady present.

Sunday services will begin with a holiness meeting at 11 o'clock a. m., followed by the Sunday school at 10 p. m. Everyone that is at Sunday school tomorrow will receive full credit for attendance since the first of the year. Make a special effort to be present and receive credit marks accordingly.

A special prayer meeting will be conducted in the hall from 7 to 7:30 p. m., followed by an open air meeting.

Rousing salvation meeting inside at 8 o'clock. You are cordially invited to attend these services. Come, praying and believing for a good time.

CAPT. AND MRS. SMITH,
Officers in Charge.

The retail clerks will hold their regular meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.
