SHERRY'S

DU BARRY

There was a strong element of surprise in the presentation of "Du Barry" at the Sherry theatre yesterday, for in spite of all, the public had expected of it, the audience that viewed it were amazed, not only at the gorgeousness of the production, but at the brilliant work of Theda Bara, in the presentation of this greatest of the William Fox productions.

This story of "Du Barry" has been attempted in many forms, but only the screen, it would appear, can truly present it to the world. Miss Bara has grasped the subtleties of the character in a most wonderful way, she seems to live the part in very truth, as she acted it. For gorgeousness of scene and costume, nothing like it has ever been presented before on the screen.

The life of the famous woman of the court of Louis XV is shown with all its complexity, and it proves to be a most interesting one. The intrigues of the inner circle are clearly presented, and every phase of it is built up so as to make a most splendid drama. But the personality of Theda Bara as she displays this woman of the most effete court that history has developed is the dominating feature throughout.

Those who went to the theatre yesterday thought they knew Theda Bara and were familiar with what she was capable of doing, but they left it with a new and greater conception of her ability and charms. She never looked more beautiful in her life, and she never acted better than in the presentation of this character.

The gowns that Miss Bara wore were bewildering in their gorgeousness, and while they undoubtedly were correct as to period, each of them was such that every woman in the audience envied her whenever she came on the stage.

The play is an epoch making one in every sense. In every detail it is most perfectly done, the costuming, the scenes themselves, and all their details are an exact picture of the time of Louis XV. There is no doubt of the sensation which it will cause, and it is hardly necessary to say that no one should miss seeing it.

Also a comedy and the Ford weekly will be shown. Last showing today.

A NEW WRINKLE

Device Which Shows Gas Costs
What They Get for Their Money

The name itself surely tells all the story. It called the "Gasoline Visible Measuring Device." It is a glass cylinder which fits on the top of the gasoline curb pump. When the gasoline is pumped through the hose into the tank it goes up into this glass top and shows exactly the measurement that is supplied. In this way everyone can see just exactly the amount he is receiving. The curb pump at the Harris grocery north of the track has installed this new and up-to-date contrivance.

BANISH CATARRH

Breathe Hyomei for Two Minutes and Relieve Stuffed Up Head.

If you want to get relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the short time breathe Hyomei.

It should clean out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely.

Hyomei often ends a cold in one day, it will relieve you of disgusting sniffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

Hyomei is made chiefly from a soothing, healing antiseptic, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia where catarrh, asthma and consumption were never known to exist.

Hyomei is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler, use as directed and relief is almost certain.

A complete Hyomei outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, costs but little at druggists everywhere and at the La Grande Pharmacy. If you already own an inhaler you can get an extra bottle of Hyomei at the La Grande Pharmacy—adv.
